

Poem 1

Pg 1

I Lived in a Mystery
I did not know
I could not know
I tried to know

It was a lie
OR more
A truth untold

A Part of me died a Part of you died
a Part of everyone around us died

It ate on me Till I could not see
With a horrible spill
I could not feel

Looking at the Sky
I wondered why at one Point
I wanted to die

I could not eat
I could not sleep
because the mystery occurring
I kept a stirring

I ruined my work
From all the unknown
Looking too deep
I would run home

I got hurt on the job
all the stress took a toll all four of my boss's Just did not know

The things that were happening Problems, I could not tell
We were heading for trouble
On a pathway to hell

My brain was getting scattered bad choices were made and all that I wanted was our relationship saved

This was not what I wanted
I needed a Cure
I Loved my Family and that was for Sure

By far I'm not Perfect
I made lots of Mistakes
When the Mystery came unfold
My mind, I could not hold

The Pressure's were building and now I'm here today because I exploded
lots of times gone away

No more Mysteries
