

University Convocation

May 30, 1970

TUFTS UNIVERSITY
Medford, Massachusetts

Recipients of Honorary Degrees

ANDREW FELTON BRIMMER. LL.D. Economist. Appointed by President Johnson to the seven-man Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System for a 14-year term (March, 1966). Delegated responsibility by the Board for management of the Foreign Credit Restraint Program. Alternate member, National Advisory Council on International Monetary and Financial Policy; member of the U.S. Delegation to the Economic Policy Committee of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) headquartered in Paris. When appointed to the Federal Reserve Board he was assistant secretary of commerce. Formerly, economist for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (1955-58). Faculty member, Michigan State University (1958-61); Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, University of Pennsylvania (1961-63). Joined U.S. Department of Commerce (1963). Named "Government Man of the Year" by the National Business League (1963). Author of several books and monographs and many journal articles in the fields of banking and finance and also of minority economic development. Recipient of numerous honors, awards, and honorary degrees.

PAUL McDONALD FYE. Sc.D. Marine scientist. President and director, Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution. Formerly associate director for research, U.S. Naval Ordnance Laboratory. Member of the corporation, Marine Biological Laboratory. Member, Undersea Warfare Research and Development Planning Council; Committee on Oceanography, National Academy of Sciences; Cape Cod Community College Advisory Board; Board of Directors, Arthur D. Little, Inc. Trustee, Bermuda Biological Station for Research, Inc. Former member, POLARIS Steering Task Group (1956-58); POLARIS Ad Hoc Group for Long Range Research and Development (1960-65); Project SEABED, U.S. Navy (1964); President's Task Force on Oceanography (1969). Director, Cape Cod Community Fund. Member, American Association for the Advancement of Science, American Chemical Society, American Geophysical Union, Marine Technology Society (president 1968-69), and other professional societies. Recipient of U.S. Navy Certificate of Commendation (1960 and 1966), and other honors and awards.

PATRICIA ROBERTS HARRIS. LL.D. Attorney, educator, government official. Member of the law firm of Strasser, Spiegelberg, Fried, Frank and Kampelman, Washington, D.C. Dean (1969) and Professor of Law (1967-69), Howard University School of Law. United States Ambassador to Luxembourg (1965-67). Previously, attorney, Department of Justice, Appeals and Research Section, Criminal Division; executive director, Delta Sigma Theta. Member, National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence; National Advisory Committee on Reform of Federal Criminal Laws; Administrative Conference of the United States. U.S. alternate delegate to the 21st and 22nd General Assemblies of the United Nations (1966 and 1967) and to the 20th Plenary Meeting of the Economic Commission for Europe (1967). Presidential elector for District of Columbia (1964); delegate to the 1964 Democratic National Convention (seconded nomination of President Johnson). Member, Carnegie Commission on the Future of Higher Education. Board member, Atlantic Institute, National Educational Television, the Urban Coalition, among others. Recipient of numerous honors, awards and honorary degrees .

(Continued on page 4)

Order of Events

PROCESSIONAL

INVOCATION

Eugene Samuel Ashton
University Chaplain

NATIONAL ANTHEM

BESTOWAL OF DEGREES EARNED IN COURSE

Albert Daniel Ullman
Senior Vice-President and Provost

Alexander Nelson McFarlane
Chairman, Board of Trustees

AWARDING HONORARY DEGREES

Burton Crosby Hallowell
President

CONVOCATION THEME

“The Role of Tufts University in Today’s Society”

ADDRESS

Mrs. Patricia Roberts Harris

ADDRESS

Harris Llewellyn Wofford, Jr.

ALMA MATER

Jane Eichkern
Jackson '71

BENEDICTION

Chaplain Ashton

RECESSIONAL

COMMENCEMENT SYMPOSIA 3:00 P.M. Eaton Memorial Hall THE FLETCHER SCHOOL—ITS EDUCATIONAL ROLE IN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Professor Ruhl J. Bartlett
Professor John H. Spencer
Stephen B. Penrose, Fletcher 1970
Eaton Hall — Room 201

PLANNING RESPONSIVE EDUCATIONAL CURRICULA

Professor Robert L'H. Miller
Professor Daniel M. Mullholland
Professor G. Robert Stange
Eaton Hall — Room 202

Recipients of Honorary Degrees

(Continued from page 2)

ANNE SEXTON. Litt.D. Author of To Bedlam and Part Way Back (1960), All My Pretty Ones (1962), Selected Poems (1964), Live or Die (1966), and Love Poems (1969). Awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 1967 for Live or Die. Scholar at Radcliffe Institute for Independent Study (1961-63). Awarded the first traveling fellowship of the American Academy of Arts and Letters (1963-64), Ford Foundation grant for residence with the Charles Playhouse (1964-65), and the first literary magazine travel grant under the Congress of Cultural Freedom. Elected a fellow of the Royal Society of Literature in London, honorary member of Phi Beta Kappa, Harvard chapter (1968) and Radcliffe chapter (1969). Currently holds a Guggenheim grant for 1969-70. Poems have appeared in such magazines as New Yorker, Harper's, Hudson Review, Yale Review, Partisan Review, Nation, Saturday Review, Poetry, and others.

HARRIS LLEWELLYN WOFFORD, JR. LL.D. Educator, attorney. President, State University College at Old Westbury, New York. Formerly associate director of the Peace Corps; special assistant to President Kennedy for civil rights; associate professor of law at Notre Dame. Appointed president of Old Westbury (1966), to set up this experimental college of the State University of New York which has a mandate "to review all the conventional ingredients . . . and break whatever barriers may stand in the way." Member of the task force which organized the Peace Corps (1961-62); served in Ethiopia as Peace Corps special representative in Africa (1962-64); organized the Conference of Returned Volunteers (1965). Joined Senator John Kennedy's pre-convention campaign as editor and adviser (1959); as special assistant to President Kennedy, served as chairman of the Sub-Cabinet Group on Civil Rights, coordinating efforts of all federal agencies. In 1965 he was among the 22 "outsiders" invited by Martin Luther King to walk the full route of the protest march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama.