

TUFTS WOMEN EMPLOYEES--Newsletter #9

May 8, 1974

Upcoming Events--All women employees welcome!

Friday, May 10, 12:30 p.m. Margaret Booker, from the Training Center, will explain the workings of this department and its significance for women employees.

Tuesday, May 14, 5:15 p.m. Mary Joan Seidman, from the NOW Speaker's Bureau, speaks on employment policies and affirmative action.

Friday, May 17, 12:30 p.m. A speaker from the Boston secretaries' group, "9 to 5" will be present to speak on the concerns of university women.

Friday, May 24, 12:30 p.m. Faculty member Mary Ella Feinlieb will discuss grievance procedures and tenure.

Friday, May 31, 12:30 p.m. A speaker from the Cambridge Women's Center is tentatively scheduled to speak on self-defense.

On Thursday, May 16 at 8:30 p.m. in Cohen Auditorium, the Tufts Lecture Series will present Robin Morgan, feminist poet and editor of Sisterhood is Powerful. $.50 with Tufts I.D.

Persons interested in taking a course in business English this ~~summer~~ or fall should contact Mrs. Pederson, Ext. ~~661~~ 754

Those interested in tutorials through the English Dept. this summer or fall should contact Patricia Molloy, Ext. 258.

Sports Activities

New sports groups have arisen among women employees. Everyone is encouraged to participate if they see anything of interest to them.

Swimming: Contact Althea Ullman, Ext. 222.

Belly Dancing: Contact Celia Mees, Physics Dept.

Exercise Class (beginning in June): Contact Kathy McGuire, Athletic Office.

Tennis: This group is looking for an instructor. Anyone with information contact Lorraine McGrath, Ext. 405.

Women's Center Events

The Women's Center is an organization which was originally student-based, but is now trying to incorporate all university women. The center is located in the basement of Curtis Hall. The following events may be of interest to women employees.

Thursday, May 16, 12:30 p.m. Discussion on "Marriage and Its Alternatives."

Monday, May 13, 12:30 p.m. Women's Center business and idea generating meeting.

Thursday, May 9, 12:30 p.m. Discussion on "The Politics and Experience of Rape."

Tufts Records
Archives
Wessell