Set
2/13/96

The Honorable L.F. Payne
United State House of Representatives
2412 Rayburn HOB
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Representative Payne:

Thank you for taking the time to meet with Dr. Alexander Spears, Dewey Tedder and me on March 5th. You were generous with your time and attention, and we benefitted greatly from our discussion with you regarding the many important issues with which the tobacco industry is presently confronted. This will confirm my indication to you that Lorillard stands ready to be of whatever reasonable assistance we can to aid you in your endeavors.

We will take the liberty of keeping in touch with you and your staff from time-to-time throughout the remainder of the 104th Congress as particular subjects of mutual interest warrant.

Regards and Best Wishes,

Arthur J. Stevens
