

Prisoner's Paradox

I have done evil but hold no evil in my heart

I have done heroic deeds but am no hero

I have passed on knowledge while ignorant myself

I have endured even though I am weak

I have showed kindness for uncharitable reasons

I have been cruel for kindness sake

I have seen God in hell and the Devil in Heaven

I have read to both learn and to unlearn

I have seen beauty in the ugly and the ugly in the beautiful

I have acted bravely out of cowardness and cowardly out of bravery
