

Intimacy:

"IN TO ME U SEE"

10-17-20

More than familiarity, I'm talking the closeness of a more personal and private nature. An intrinsic innermost nearness, like the essential part of being. An Intimate creature.

Awkward socially but only if you don't know "ME". Lets sit and build, and get the chills because the spirits are definitely something you can feel, an intimate quality that's REAL.

The maxim - you only "see in to me" if you learn to appreciate and understand my soul. This is axiomatic, which constitutes how we grow. Soulmates, this is how we know - True friendship. Like finishing ones sentence before the other one says it. Being intune, chemistry and universal energy, vibrating, all embodied in one body - unconditional LOVE.

"In To ME you see" - Intimacy means relationship, an invested engagement. Showing actions like the verb. The art of love means work, now lets go beyond the word. Are you afraid to be vulnerable? Fortunately for "ME" I'm free emotionally. I'll see wherever my Cellost wants to be - I'm talking bout Aura and presence. This is "ME" you meet in the physical reflection, aware and Intimately Conscious. "Iam" mentally present.

Maya Angelou said: "when people show you who they are believe them". But first you must "see" them for "who they really are", not the persona, a facade. The built in personality. Nah, I'm talking the reality - Character ability, their attributes. So sit with "ME" and listen, look into "ME" and envision. See my identity and its complexities, peculiar right? But distinctive and RARE!

"IAM"

- INFINITE
IMMORTAL
WARRIOR! -
