

Rules and Regulations of the Association for Self-Government of the Students of Jackson College.

I. LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

a. All absences must be recorded in the proctor's book and for all, except home visits, application must be made to the floor proctor and the President of Student Government.

b. Only in the case of home visits is the student to be held exempt from the control of Student Government.

II. CALLERS.

a. During term-time on week-day evenings, except those of the "All Around Club" meetings, students may receive callers. }

b. On Sunday during term-time callers may be received from 3 to 6 P.M.

c. Between Class Day and Commence-after chapel time until 10. P.M.

ment day, no undergraduates are permitted to receive calls.

III. CHAPERONAGE.

a. Students must not be away from the Hill unchaperoned after 8 o'clock.

b. All entertainments, excursions, and drives in the evening must be chaperoned.

c. No girl may dine with a man at a hotel or any public place at night, unchaperoned, after 6 o'clock, without permission from the Dean.

d. If, in any case, the chaperon be an unmarried woman, the Dean's approval is necessary.

IV. ENTERTAINING.

a. Visitors at the Halls are under Student Government rules and, without special permission, will not remain more than two nights in succession.

b. For entertaining in their own rooms the men of their immediate family, girls may obtain permission of the proctors.

c. Girls and their callers are requested not to monopolize the steps of Metcalf Hall or the piazzas of the other dormitories.

V. BOUNDS AND HOURS.

a. The boundaries of the Hill, as referred to in these rules, are Sawyer Ave., Curtis St. as far as Capen St., Talbot Ave., and College Ave., as far as the Post Office.

b. [Students must be in their own rooms and] quiet must be maintained after 10 P.M. This rule alone will be suspended during vacations and holidays. Any who have permission to attend evening entertainments are requested to be considerate of the rest of others on their return.