II. Griffin Media Group staff has written to and called 350 New York City local unions to request memos of opposition. The calls were completed on June 6th and the response was favorable.

III. A breakfast will be held on June 17th in New York City and major New York City leaders of organized labor have been asked to attend. Michael Griffin, a labor law expert and other consultants will explain the ramifications of the Smoking Restriction Proposal and how it will adversely affect members of organized labor. They will discuss additional measures that can be taken by New York City organized labor collectively (besides filing memos of opposition) that will make their opposition heard by:

- * the media
- * the public
- * the New York City Council

Measures that will be discussed include, but are not limited to:

- * lawsuits
- * grievance procedures
- * press conferences

IV. A packet of memos of opposition already received by The Griffin Media Group are attached.
