ADMISSION

TO THE

REGULAR COLLEGE COURSE.

APPLICANTS for admission must produce certificates of their good moral character. If they come from other Colleges, certificates also of their regular dismissal therefrom are required.

For admission to the Freshman Class, an examination must be well sustained in the following studies :

Latin. — Andrews' Latin Reader ; Virgil's Bucolics, and 6 books of the Æneid ; Cæsar's Commentaries, or Sallust ; Cicero's Select Orations, (Folsom's or Johnson's Edition ;) Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, including Prosody ; Arnold's Latin Prose Composition, to the Dative.

Greek. — Felton's or Jacob's Greek Reader, (or, 4 books of Homer's Iliad, with 3 books of Xenophon's Anabasis ;) Sophocles', Crosby's, or Kühner's Greek Grammar, including Prosody ; Arnold's Greek Prose Composition, to the Moods ; Writing of Greek Accents.

Mathematics. — Arithmetic ; Day's Algebra, to Involution.

History. — Modern Geography ; Mitchell's Ancient Atlas ; Goodrich's History of the United States.

N. B. — For the Text-Books here mentioned, such other Text-Books as as truly equivalents will be accepted. The same remark may be made in reference to the Course of College Studies.

For admission to an advanced class, an examination must be well sustained, both in these studies, and in the studies through which such class shall have already passed.

No person can be admitted after the beginning of the Senior Year.

Examinations for admission will be held on the day after the Commencement, and on the Tuesday preceding the beginning of the Fall Term. The examinations will begin at 8 o'clock, A. M. on each of these days.

On his admission, every candidate must give a bond of $200, with two sureties, to pay all his College Bills. To be admitted to an advanced standing, he must also pay, or secure the payment of, one half of the tuition which shall have accrued in the previous years and terms of the Regular Course, unless he comes from another College: provided, that, if he be admitted at the beginning of the Senior Year, the tuition of the Junior Year shall be the only arrears required of him.

PARTIAL COURSES OF STUDY.

Persons who do not enter for a College Degree, and who produce certificates of their good moral character, may be received to such studies, in any class, as they shall, on examination, be found qualified to pursue with profit; and they may continue therein at their pleasure, on condition of obeying the laws of the College, and paying one-third more than the regular tuition for the number of Terms they remain.
