Per your request for a review of new members of Congress and the U.S. Senate from California, our relationships with these people can be characterized as follows:

1. U.S. Senate

A) Dianne Feinstein

I have known Feinstein well since she was Mayor by virtue of my former position as Deputy CAO for San Francisco in 1983. Since that time, we have had a regular ongoing contact.

B) Barbara Boxer

Boxer is someone I have known since she first worked as an aide to then-Congressmember John Burton and have had regular contact with her during her ten years in the House of Representatives. She is also especially close to some of the unions that we represent.

2. U.S. House of Representatives

Democrats:

A) Dan Hamburg

Hamburg is not anyone I know very well although he and I talked half a dozen times during his campaign and I was able to raise approximately $6,000 for his election. He is close to some of the unions we represent in the Eureka area and I believe he can be helpful.

Joseph D. Pasqualini
Legislative Advocate

Lisa E. Larcabal
Administrative Assistant

TCAL0449121

B) Lynn Woolsey

I do not know her personally, but we raised approximately $5,000 for her campaign and a number of our unions, notably Plumbers Local #38, have established a good relationship with her.

C) Anna Eshoo

Eshoo is someone I have known reasonably well. She has established a close relationship with two of our clients despite her record as an environmentalist.

D) Xavier Becerra

Becerra is a highly intelligent young Hispanic from Los Angeles who we dealt with on solar tax credit matters and comes from a background of organized labor (father is a member of the laborers' union). We have good access with him and could easily talk with him.

E) Lucille Roybal-Allard

As an Assembly Member, we established a very close personal as well as institutional ties with Lucille. She never once voted against our position.

F) Bob Filner

Filner visited my office in Sacramento during the primary. We were able to raise approximately $6,000 for his election which was a bit of an upset in San Diego in the Democratic Primary. He had a strong reputation among organized labor in his capacity as a member of the San Diego City Council, and we have clients who are also close to him.

Republicans:

A) Bill Baker

Baker is normally someone who votes against most of my issues concerning organized labor, but he is someone I have known since 1969 when he formerly represented the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association and I was Secretary/Treasurer of the Local Central Labor Council, AFL-CIO. We have a very good personal and friendly relationship.

B) Ed Royce

Royce is someone who is a strong anti-smoking advocate, and genuinely agonized over his vote on the privacy legislation because of his strong philosophical roots supportive of an almost-libertarian philosophy. He and I have had occasional personal conversations on political philosophy and I retain a good relationship with him.

Bob, I have not had contact with Vic Fazio concerning a meeting of the new members of Congress and the Tobacco Institute. Hopefully I will have some response for you no later than November 24.
