Commenting the Leaders (inspired by M.L.K.)

God given identities solidified without censorship —
as models of excellence shaped by culture.
Our perfect harmony is inveterate, constitute!
Foundations unmoved, unearthed to groove...
Virtues intertwine with civil liberties and social awareness.

The veracity of liberal artists magnifies the struggle;
the fight and war against odious racial inequality.
Adroit authors reject fate without acceptance — universal communities push actively... push harder!
Imbalances of irresponsible thinking penetrate prejudicial confines.

Lucid arguments become known as contrasting views are sown;
the reaping masses persuade the moderates.
Inactive individuals are empowered with discourse.
Threats of injustice entangle unbelievers connected to destiny.
Proactive soldiers in garments of equality, cherishing change.

Liberty perpetuated by boys who become men,
the ones called out of the protests without hatred.
Church goers who have forgot their power rejoice and suffer.
Convictions of Christians become public, once private.
Lovers of God and all things good, effectively integrating.

Jesuit desegregation on the hill ignites flames of charity and brotherhood.
