Dear Mr. Gray:

The League of United Latin American Citizens, LULAC, is strongly opposed to any efforts to increase excise taxes as a means to reduce the federal deficit. As the budget deficit debate intensifies, we hope you will stand in strong opposition to this regressive tax.

As you will see from the attached brochure, prominent Hispanic leaders and organizations oppose excise taxes, including Sergio Banuelos, Sr., of the U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Ruben Diaz of the Latino Peace Officers Association, and Oscar Moran of LULAC. Many of your colleagues in Congress have also expressed their disdain for this form of taxation, including Rep. Richard Gephardt (D-MO), Rep. Dick Cheney (R-WY) and Sen. Bill Bradley (D-NJ).

As the nation's oldest and largest Hispanic membership organization, and as members of this country's growing Hispanic community, we hope you will join us in opposing the imposition of an increase in excise taxes on products such as beer, wine, gasoline, cigarettes and airline tickets.

Sincerely,

Joseph M. Trevino
