PUBLICATIONS BY THE FLETCHER COMMUNITY —

The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, established in 1933, is the oldest school of international affairs in the United States devoted exclusively to graduate study. The fundamental mission of the Fletcher School is to provide high quality and multidisciplinary teaching and research in the fields of law, diplomacy, economics, history, politics, business and regional studies. As a service to our readership, and in an effort to provide a wider audience for the innovative work being done by our faculty, students and recent graduates, The Fletcher Forum has decided to include a listing of recent publications by the Fletcher community. The following is a partial listing:

Leila Fawaz, Professor of Diplomacy, is the author of An Occasion for War: Civil Conflict in Lebanon and Damascus in 1860, published by University of California Press, Berkeley, 1996.

Hurst Hannum, Professor of International Law, is the co-author of International Human Rights Law: Problems of Law, Policy, and Practice, 1995.

Andrew C. Hess, Professor of Diplomacy and Academic Dean, is the author of "Peace and Political Reform in the Gulf: The Private Sector," in Journal of International Affairs, Vol. 49, Summer 1995. He recently published "Central Asian Energy: Old Geopolitics and New Technology," in Geopolitics of Energy, November 1996.

Laurent L. Jacque, Professor of International Finance and Banking, is the author of Management and Control of Foreign Exchange Risk, published by Kluwer Academic Publishers, 1996. He is also the author of "The Changing Personality of U.S.-Japanese Joint Ventures: A Value Chain Mapping Paradigm," in The International Trade Journal, Vol. IX, Spring 1995; and co-author of "Control Modes in International Service Operations: The Propensity to Franchise," in Management Science, Vol. 41, July 1995.

Michael W. Klein, Associate Professor of International Economics, is the author of the recent article "Timing is All: Elections and the Duration of United States Business Cycles," in Journal of Money, Credit and Banking, Vol. 28, February 1996. He has also published the case study: "Can This Currency Be Saved? The Decline of the Dollar," in CaseNet Finance and Economic Case Studies, South-Western Publishing Company, 1996.

W. Russell Neuman, Professor of International Communications and Director of the Edward R. Murrow Center, is the author of The Gordian Knot: Political Gridlock on the Information Highway, 1995.
