

One Second of a Moment

It only takes one second to make a choice, and learn that the world isn't as forgiving as you thought it was.
See... my seconds have been lined in blood.

From: fights, to sights unpleasant...

Nights where my ego tells me with one line, I could be destined

But for every second in my 15 minutes of fame;

It only took one second to cause me shame!

I choose not... to let anger steal a spot in my mind
Cause see, my grind is predicated on the mastery of my time.

So now, for each second that ticks...

A criminal thinking error loses its grip.

It only takes a couple of hard years to pick from the Orchard that is me.

The fruit is my soul, my limbs are the tree.

I re-paint...

Some<sup>thing</sup> I learned years ago:

It only takes one second to change the meaning of FREE!!!
