

Autumn's Fall
by Liv
Fall '13 / Spring '14

Jumped in leaf piles
When it was Autumn
Picked up dry leaves
Threw them high in the air

Blew big big bubbles
When it was Summer
Picked up a long wand
Dipped it in soap suds

Standing at the end of the road
When we lived in the green house
And I took pictures of you
In the brown coat

Creating iridescent globes
When we chased & then popped them
And I took pictures of you
In the purple swimsuit

Threw snowballs at legs
When it was Winter
Picked up cold snow
Ate it in the doorway

Jumped in rain puddles
Our last Autumn
Picked up red flowers
Surprised Daddy with them

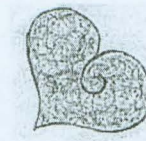

Climbing a snow pile like mountains
When we moved to the new house
And I took pictures of you
In the pink gloves

Meeting at the aquarium
When we looked at the penguins
And I took pictures of you
In grey sneakers

Pulled weeds in the sun
When it was Spring
Picked up a shovel
Pushed it down to the roots

Winters have passed
Other Springs sprung
No reason to dance any more
All the songs have been sung

Playing in the dirt making mud
When we walked to the garden
And I took pictures of you
In a flowered dress

Arriving soon will be Summer
Then Autumn will fall
I miss you so much
Of you no new pictures at all
