

"Fairy Tail" ?

By Alex Ross

When I wake up out of my sleep
I write down the message my mind reports

Now that I'm no longer asleep
Which message should I keep.

Are these thoughts deep
Why do she treat me like a creep.

Is she a puzzle that I must complete

Is she only interested in our speech

I listen to words piece by piece

Is there a hidden message that people speak

What happens to happy endings
What happens to happily ever after?

Do the guy get the girl
Do the girl get the picket fence

OR is the hard core reality,

Simply

Fairy tails don't really exist
