Dear Mr. Degenhardt:

Your interest in advertising in our forthcoming Year-End Wrap-Up edition is sincerely and deeply appreciated.

This special informative edition will review the important events of this past year, as well as current happenings, with special coverage of the new I. B. T. General President William McCarty, and a revealing economic report.

For more than fifty years, the Trade Union Courier has been publishing in the great tradition of newspaperdom. This means fair, objective, impartial coverage of all the news, fit to print concerning the relations between free labor and free Management.

Your advertising participation in this important Wrap Up edition should be a must and will identify your firm as a Strong Friend and a Strong Ally of Labor. Your quick response will be most appreciated, will ease our 'before deadline burden', and will assure your company ad of a prominent placement.
