

Montevideo

Montevideo Convention of 1933 on the rights and duties of states stipulates the conditions for statehood including control of a territory, stable population, effective government and capacity to enter into relations with other states.

UN GA Resolution 1514 in 1960 stipulated that lack of preparedness for independence could not be used as a reason for delaying it.