

MEMORANDUM

June 11, 1993

TO: Sam Chilcote
FROM: Bob McAdam
SUBJECT: Conversation with Jay Poole

In a conversation I just had with Jay Poole, he mentioned that during his meeting in New York yesterday, Buffy mentioned that she had talked with Wendell Ford about putting 24 cents in the reconciliation bill as a means of getting us out of health care.

I don't know whether this is old news or not, but Poole's attitude was that this might solve most of our problems.

This is the same old stuff.
PM has been advocating this from the beginning.
I have no reason to believe Sen
Ford has changed his belief that this cannot be done.
Andy is checking further.
