

War of Race (inspired by Malcolm X)

Genuine Christianity resting not on popularity.

Progressing in the colored and distorted face of adversity.

Nonviolent, facing bitter opposition, the captor of indecision.

Destructive interests of enemies become null and void.

Wolves circle with their young, the militant and hostile.

Assailants deceived by false doctrines seek death —

with ancestral heritages giving them breath.

The preservation of the "somebody" becomes forsaken.

Who will forgive the brutal foe?

How will the defenseless ever come to know?

Red rivers of, continuously flow, over sands of time...

Worldviews manifest human solidarity,

from Mecca to Israel enlightenment is freed.

The Spiritual pilgrimage liberates the conscience.

One inclusive family, a tribe arises with intellectual assent.

Lovers of ritual and dance unite to sing with birds in hand.

The battlefield is "meaningful," covered with sincere intention.

Humanism has not been tossed aside — moral responsibility will not be denied.

Reflect on the explosions with peace or understanding in your mind.
