The Fletcher School, established in 1933, is the oldest school in the United States devoted exclusively to the graduate study of international affairs. The Fletcher School aims to provide high-quality, interdisciplinary instruction and research in the fields of law, diplomacy, economics, history, politics, business, and regional studies. In an effort to provide to a wider audience the innovative research done by The Fletcher School's faculty, students, and graduates, The Fletcher Forum of World Affairs publishes a list of recent publications by the Fletcher community in each issue.
