MEMORANDUM

TO: Hurst Marshall
FROM: Bill Trisler
SUBJECT: Indiana Clean Indoor Air Bill - HB-1135

Our legislative counsel, Terrence Pehler has requested that I submit a request for Robert Klotz (Law Enforcement Consultant) to come to Indiana and testify on Public Smoking Restrictions and its impact on law enforcement.

Hurst, as of this date, we have approximately two more weeks before the hearing will be scheduled for HB-1135. We have committments for the following coalitions to testify against this bill. Namely:

- o Chamber of Commerce, City of Indianapolis
- o IMA - Ed Roberts
- o Bowling Alley Proprietors
- o Indiana Restaurant Association
- o Farm Bureau
- o AFL-CIO - Casper Alessia
- o Indianapolis Convention Center - Mr. Dean Philips

Terry of course, will be testifying and is with great hope that Mr. Klotz will be available. If so, it may be likely that some of the above-mentioned coalitions may be deleted.

I hope our counsel and I can learn of this hearing date soon. Once I have this date, I will immediately call the T.I. office.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
