APPLICANTS for admission must produce certificates of good moral character. If they come from other Colleges, certificates also of their regular dismissal are required.

For admission to the Freshman Class, an examination must be well sustained in the following Studies:—

Latin.—Andrews' Latin Reader; Virgil's Bucolics, and six books of the Æneid; Cæsar's Commentaries; Cicero's Select Orations, Folsom's Edition; Andrews and Stoddard's Latin Grammar, including Prosody; Arnold's Latin Prose Composition.

Greek.—Felton's or Jacobs' Greek Reader, or four books of Homer's Iliad, with three books of Xenophon's Anabasis; Sophocles', Crosby's, or Kühner's Greek Grammar, including Prosody; Arnold's Greek Prose Composition; writing Greek with Accents.

Mathematics.—Chase's Arithmetic; Sherwin's Algebra, to Involution; Hill's First Lessons in Geometry.

Geography and History.—Modern Geography; Mitchell's Ancient Atlas; Goodrich's History of the United States.

N. B.—For the Text Books here mentioned, such other Text Books as are equivalents, will be accepted. The same remark may be made in reference to the Course of College Studies.

For admission to an advanced Class, an examination must be well sustained, both in these studies, and in the studies through which such Class has passed.

No person will be admitted after the beginning of the Senior year.

Examinations for admission will be held on the day after Commencement, and on the Tuesday preceding the beginning of the Fall Term. The examination will begin at 8 o'clock, A. M., on each of these days.

N. B.—No Applicant will be examined, except upon the condition that he will join his class immediately, if admitted.

On admission, every candidate must secure, by a bond of $200, with two signers, the payment of all his College Bills. To be admitted to advanced standing, he must also pay one half of the tuition which has accrued in the previous Terms of the Regular Course, unless he comes from another College; provided, that if he be admitted at the beginning of the Senior year, the tuition of the Junior year shall be the only arrears required of him.

No Student who has been dismissed shall be admitted again, unless he pays the whole tuition of the interval; and, in the regular course of study, tuition will be charged for no period less than a year.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

The Degree of Master of Arts is conferred on every Bachelor of Arts of three years' standing, or more,—who in the interval, has sustained a good moral character,—on application to the President, one week, at least, before Commencement.

The fee, including the Diploma, is five dollars, payable in advance.

EXPENSES.

Tuition,.....	$35.00 per year.
Room-rent,.....	15.00 “
Use of Library,.....	1.00 “
Board, not including washing and fuel.....	2.50 per week.

The price of board is placed as low as the state of the market from time to time permits. Other expenses vary with the economy of each student. Bills for board are payable monthly. College charges for each Term,—except the Second Term of the Senior year, the bills for which must be settled at least one day before Commencement,—are payable at the beginning of the succeeding Term.

PUBLIC COLLEGE EXERCISES.

A Public Examination of all the Classes will be held, during not less than four days, twice a year. There will also be, in the Second Term of each year, a Public Exhibition, for which parts will be assigned to members of the Junior Class, according to their general Scale of Merit.

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES.

All resident Students and resident Officers of Instruction, are required to attend Morning Prayers, and the Reading of the Scriptures, in the Chapel.

All Students are required to attend Public Worship on Sundays, in the Chapel, except those of legal age, who on their application to the President, in writing — and minors, who on the application of their parents or guardians, have been permitted to attend the public services of any other denomination of Christians, having a place of worship in Medford or Somerville, — such worship being that in which they have been educated, or which from conscientious motives they are desirous of attending.

PECUNIARY ASSISTANCE.

In accordance with a requisition of the State, three Scholarships have been established. The income of each—fifty dollars—is awarded to meritorious Students needing assistance.

A fund of a thousand dollars has been donated to the College, the income of which is loaned to students who desire assistance in this manner, in sums not exceeding thirty dollars. When repaid, these sums will be added to the fund itself. These awards are made by the Board of Trustees, on the recommendation of the Faculty.

The pay of the Monitor is twenty dollars a year; that of the Bellingringer, forty dollars.

Applications for the above must be made to the Faculty on or before the first day of June; and, if the applicant be a minor, must be sanctioned by the parent or guardian.

No one need apply who has not made satisfactory progress, or who has come under any grave College censure.

PRIZES.

In the Second Term of the Academical year, prizes are assigned from the Goddard Prize Fund. They will be distributed the present year as follows:—

A Prize of "Motley's Dutch Republic," (3 vols.) and "Motley's New Netherlands," (2 vols.), for the best Dissertation, by a member of the Senior Class, on the following subject:—"The Influence of Wealth upon Civilization."

A Prize of "Müller and Donaldson's History of the Literature of Ancient Greece," (3 vols.), for the best Greek Prose Composition, by a member of the Junior Class, on the following subject:—"De Fato Homerico."
