CHARTER OF THE ORGANIZATION OF AMERICAN STATES*

IN THE NAME OF THEIR PEOPLES, THE STATES
REPRESENTED AT THE NINTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF AMERICAN STATES,

Convinced that the historic mission of America is to offer to man a land of liberty, and a favorable environment for the development of his personality and the realization of his just aspirations;

Conscious that that mission has already inspired numerous agreements, whose essential value lies in the desire of the American peoples to live together in peace, and, through their mutual understanding and respect for the sovereignty of each one, to provide for the betterment of all, in independence, in equality and under law;

Confident that the true significance of American solidarity and good neighborliness can only mean the consolidation on this continent, within the framework of democratic institutions, of a system of individual liberty and social justice based on respect for the essential rights of man;

Persuaded that their welfare and their contribution to the progress and the civilization of the world will increasingly require intensive continental cooperation;

Resolved to persevere in the noble undertaking that humanity has conferred upon the United Nations, whose principles and purposes they solemnly reaffirm;

Convinced that juridical organization is a necessary condition for security and peace founded on moral order and on justice; and

In accordance with Resolution IX of the Inter-American Conference on Problems of War and Peace, held at Mexico City,

HAVE AGREED upon the following

*This text went into force on February 27, 1970.

Within the United Nations, the Organization of American States is a regional agency.

- a) To strengthen the peace and security of the continent;
- b) To prevent possible causes of difficulties and to ensure the pacific settlement of disputes that may arise among the Member States;
- c) To provide for common action on the part of those States in the event of aggression;
- d) To seek the solution of political, juridical, and economic problems that may arise among them; and
- e) To promote, by cooperative action, their economic, social, and cultural development.

PRINCIPLES

Article 3

The American States reaffirm the following principles:

- a) International law is the standard of conduct of States in their reciprocal relations;

- c) Good faith shall govern the relations between States;
- d) The solidarity of the American States and the high aims which are sought through it require the political organization of those States on the basis of the effective exercise of representative democracy;
- e) The American States condemn war of aggression: victory does not give rights;
- f) An act of aggression against one American State is an act of aggression against all the other American States;
- g) Controversies of an international character arising between two or more American States shall be settled by peaceful procedures;
- h) Social justice and social security are bases of lasting peace;

Chapter III

MEMBERS

Article 4

All American States that ratify the present Charter are Members of the Organization.

Article 5

Any new political entity that arises from the union of several Member States and that, as such, ratifies the present Charter, shall become a Member of the Organization. The entry of the new political entity into the Organization shall result in the loss of membership of each one of the States which constitute it.

Article 6

Any other independent American State that desires to become a Member of the Organization should so indicate by means of a note addressed to the Secretary General, in which it declares that it is willing to sign and ratify the Charter of the Organization and to accept all the obligations inherent in membership, especially those relating to collective security expressly set forth in Articles 27 and 28 of the Charter.

Article 7

The General Assembly, upon the recommendation of the Permanent Council of the Organization, shall determine whether it is appropriate that the Secretary General be authorized to permit the applicant State to sign the Charter and to accept the deposit of the corresponding instrument of ratification. Both the recommendation of the Permanent Council and the decision of the General Assembly shall require the affirmative vote of two thirds of the Member States.

Article 8

The Permanent Council shall not make any recommendation nor shall the General Assembly take any decision with respect to a request for admission on the part of a political entity whose territory became subject, in whole or in part, prior to December 18, 1964, the date set by the First Special Inter-American Conference, to litigation or claim between an extracontinental country and one or more Member States of the Organization, until the dispute has been ended by some peaceful procedure.

Chapter IV

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF STATES

Article 9

States are juridically equal, enjoy equal rights and equal capacity to exercise these rights, and have equal duties. The rights of each State depend not upon its power to ensure the exercise thereof, but upon the mere fact of its existence as a person under international law.

Article 10

Every American State has the duty to respect the rights enjoyed by every other State in accordance with international law.

Article 11

The fundamental rights of States may not be impaired in any manner whatsoever.

Article 12

The political existence of the State is independent of recognition by other States. Even before being recognized, the State has the right to defend its integrity and independence, to provide for its preservation and prosperity, and consequently to organize itself as it sees fit, to legislate concerning its interest, to administer its services, and to determine the jurisdiction and competence of its courts. The exercise of these rights is limited only by the exercise of the rights of other States in accordance with international law.

Article 13

Recognition implies that the State granting it accepts the personality of the new State, with all the rights and duties that international law prescribes for the two States.

Article 14

The right of each State to protect itself and to live its own life does not authorize it to commit unjust acts against another State.

Article 15

The jurisdiction of States within the limits of their national territory is exercised equally over all the inhabitants, whether nationals or aliens.

Article 16

Each State has the right to develop its cultural, political, and economic life freely and naturally. In this free development, the State shall respect the rights of the individual and the principles of universal morality.

Article 17

Respect for and the faithful observance of treaties constitute standards for the development of peaceful relations among States. International treaties and agreements should be public.

Article 18

No State or group of States has the right to intervene, directly or indirectly, for any reason whatever, in the internal or external affairs of any other State. The foregoing principle prohibits not only armed force but also any other form of interference or attempted threat against the personality of the State or against its political, economic, and cultural elements.

Article 19

No State may use or encourage the use of coercive measures of an economic or political character in order to force the sovereign will of another State and obtain from it advantages of any kind.

Article 20

The territory of a State is inviolable; it may not be the object, even temporarily, of military occupation or of other measures of force taken by another State, directly or indirectly, on any grounds whatever. No territorial acquisitions or special advantages obtained either by force or by other means of coercion shall be recognized.

Article 21

The American States bind themselves in their international relations not to have recourse to the use of force, except in the case of self-defense in accordance with existing treaties or in fulfillment thereof.

Article 22

Measures adopted for the maintenance of peace and security in accordance with existing treaties do not constitute a violation of the principles set forth in Articles 18 and 20.

Chapter V

PACIFIC SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Article 23

All international disputes that may arise between American States shall be submitted to the peaceful procedures set forth in this Charter, before being referred to the Security Council of the United Nations.

Article 24

The following are peaceful procedures: direct negotiation, good offices, mediation, investigation and conciliation, judicial settlement, arbitration, and those which the parties to the dispute may especially agree upon at any time.

Article 25

In the event that a dispute arises between two or more American States which, in the opinion of one of them, cannot be settled through the usual diplomatic channels, the parties shall agree on some other peaceful procedure that will enable them to reach a solution.

Article 26

A special treaty will establish adequate procedures for the pacific settlement of disputes and will determine the appropriate means for their application, so that no dispute between American States shall fail of definitive settlement within a reasonable period.

Chapter VI

COLLECTIVE SECURITY

Article 27

Every act of aggression by a State against the territorial integrity or the inviolability of the territory or against the sovereignty or political independence of an American State shall be considered an act of aggression against the other American States.

Article 28

If the inviolability or the integrity of the territory or the sovereignty or political independence of any American State should be affected by an armed attack or by an act of aggression that is not an armed attack, or by an extracontinental conflict, or by a conflict between two or more American States, or by any other fact or situation that might endanger the peace of America, the American States, in furtherance of the principles of continental solidarity or collective self-defense, shall apply the measures and procedures established in the special treaties on the subject.

Chapter VII

ECONOMIC STANDARDS

Article 29

The Member States, inspired by the principles of inter-American solidarity and cooperation, pledge themselves to a united effort to ensure social justice in the Hemisphere and dynamic and balanced economic development for their peoples, as conditions essential to peace and security.

Article 30

The Member States pledge themselves to mobilize their own national human and material resources through suitable programs, and recognize the importance of operating within an efficient domestic structure, as fundamental conditions for their economic and social progress and for assuring effective inter-American cooperation.

Article 31

To accelerate their economic and social development, in accordance with their own methods and procedures and within the framework of the democratic principles and the institutions of the inter-American system, the Member States agree to dedicate every effort to achieve the following basic goals:

- a) Substantial and self-sustained increase in the per capita national product;
- b) Equitable distribution of national income;
- c) Adequate and equitable systems of taxation;
- d) Modernization of rural life and reforms leading to equitable and efficient land-tenure systems, increased agricultural productivity,

- e) Accelerated and diversified industrialization, especially of capital and intermediate goods;
- f) Stability in the domestic price levels, compatible with sustained economic development and the attainment of social justice;
- g) Fair wages, employment opportunities, and acceptable working conditions for all;
- h) Rapid eradication of illiteracy and expansion of educational opportunities for all;

- l) Urban conditions that offer the opportunity for a healthful, productive, and full life;
- m) Promotion of private initiative and investment in harmony with action in the public sector; and
- n) Expansion and diversification of exports.

Article 32

In order to attain the objectives set forth in this Chapter, the Member States agree to cooperate with one another, in the broadest spirit of inter-American solidarity, as far as their resources may permit and their laws may provide,

Article 33

To attain balanced and sustained development as soon as feasible, the Member States agree that the resources made available from time to time by each, in accordance with the preceding Article, should be provided under flexible conditions and in support of the national and multinational programs and efforts undertaken to meet the needs of the assisted country, giving special attention to the relatively less-developed countries.

They will seek, under similar conditions and for similar purposes, financial and technical cooperation from sources outside the Hemisphere and from international institutions.

Article 34

The Member States should make every effort to avoid policies, actions, or measures that have serious adverse effects on the economic or social development of another Member State.

Article 35

The Member States agree to join together in seeking a solution to urgent or critical problems that may arise whenever the economic development or stability of any Member State is seriously affected by conditions that cannot be remedied through the efforts of that State.

Article 36

The Member States shall extend among themselves the benefits of science and technology by encouraging the exchange and utilization of scientific and technical knowledge in accordance with existing treaties and national laws.

Article 37

The Member States, recognizing the close interdependence between foreign trade and economic and social development, should make individual and united efforts to bring about the following:

- a) Reduction or elimination, by importing countries, of tariff and non-tariff barriers that affect the exports of the Members of the Organization, except when such barriers are applied in order to diversify the economic structure, to speed up the development of the less-developed Member States, or to intensify their process of economic integration, or when they are related to national security or to the needs for economic balance;
- b) Maintenance of continuity in their economic and social development by means of:
 - i. Improved conditions for trade in basic commodities through international agreements, where appropriate; orderly marketing procedures that avoid the disruption of markets; and other measures designed to promote the expansion of markets, and to obtain dependable incomes for producers, adequate and dependable supplies for consumers, and stable prices that are both remunerative to producers and fair to consumers;
 - ii. Improved international financial cooperation and the adoption of other means for lessening the adverse impact of sharp fluctuations in export earnings experienced by the countries exporting basic commodities; and
 - iii. Diversification of exports and expansion of export opportunities for manufactured and semimanufactured products from the developing countries by promoting and strengthening national and multinational institutions and arrangements established for these purposes.

Article 38

The Member States reaffirm the principle that when the more-developed countries grant concessions in international trade agreements that lower or eliminate tariffs or other barriers to foreign trade so that they benefit the less-developed countries, they should not expect reciprocal concessions from those countries that are incompatible with their economic development, financial, and trade needs.

Article 39

The Member States, in order to accelerate their economic development, regional integration, and the expansion and improvement of the conditions of their commerce, shall promote improvement and coordination of transportation and communication in the developing countries and among the Member States.

Article 40

The Member States recognize that integration of the developing countries of the Hemisphere is one of the objectives of the inter-American system and, therefore, shall orient their efforts and take the necessary measures to accelerate the integration process, with a view to establishing a Latin American common market in the shortest possible time.

Article 41

In order to strengthen and accelerate integration in all its aspects, the Member States agree to give adequate priority to the preparation and carrying out of multinational projects and to their financing, as well as to encourage economic and financial institutions of the inter-American system to continue giving their broadest support to regional integration institutions and programs.

Article 42

The Member States agree that technical and financial cooperation that seeks to promote regional economic integration should be based on the principle of harmonious, balanced, and efficient development, with particular attention to the relatively less-developed countries, so that it may be a decisive factor that will enable them to promote, with their own efforts, the improved development of their infrastructure programs, new lines of production, and export diversification.

Chapter VIII

Article 44

The Member States recognize that, in order to facilitate the process of Latin American regional integration, it is necessary to harmonize the social legislation of the developing countries, especially in the labor and social security fields, so that the rights of the workers shall be equally protected, and they agree to make the greatest efforts possible to achieve this goal.

Chapter IX

GUATEMALA

None of the stipulations of the present Charter of the Organization of American States may be considered as an impediment to Guatemala's assertion of its rights over the territory of Belize by such means as at anytime it may deem advisable.^{1/}

PERU

With the reservation that the principles of inter-American solidarity and cooperation and essentially those set forth in the preamble and declarations of the Act of Chapultepec constitute standards for the mutual relations between the American States and juridical bases of the inter-American system.

UNITED STATES

That the Senate give its advice and consent to ratification of the Charter with the reservation that none of its provisions shall be considered as enlarging the powers of the Federal Government of the United States or limiting the powers of the several states of the Federal Union with respect to any matters recognized under the Constitution as being within the reserved powers of the several states,

- o - o - o - o -

1. With respect to this reservation, the General Secretariat consulted the signatory governments, in accordance with the procedure established by paragraph 2 of Resolution XXIX of the Eighth International Conference of American States, to ascertain whether they found it acceptable or not. At the request of the Government of Guatemala, this consultation was accompanied by a formal declaration of that Government to the effect that its reservation did not imply any alteration in the Charter of the Organization of American States, and that Guatemala is ready to act at all times within the bounds of international agreements to which it is a party. In view of this declaration, the States that previously did not find the reservation acceptable expressed their acceptance.

DECLARATIONS MADE AT THE TIME OF SIGNING THE PROTOCOL

ECUADOR

The Delegation of Ecuador, drawing its inspiration from the devotion of the people and the Government of Ecuador to peace and law, states for the record that the provisions approved with respect to peaceful settlement of disputes do not carry out the purpose of Resolution XIII of the Second Special Inter-American Conference, and that the Permanent Council has not been given sufficient powers to aid the Member States effectively in the peaceful settlement of their disputes.

The Delegation of Ecuador signs this Protocol of Amendment to the Charter of the Organization of American States in the understanding that none of its provisions in any way limits the right of the Member States to take their disputes, whatever their nature and the subject they deal with, to the Organization, so that it may assist the parties and recommend the suitable procedures for peaceful settlement thereof.

PANAMA

The Delegation of Panama, upon signing the Protocol of Amendment to the Charter of the Organization of American States, states that it does so in the understanding that none of its provisions limits or in any way impedes the right of Panama to bring before the Organization any conflict or dispute that may have arisen with another Member State to which a just solution has not been given within a reasonable period after applying, without positive results, any of the procedures for peaceful settlement set forth in Article 21 of the present Charter.

ARGENTINA

On signing the present Protocol, the Argentine Republic reiterates its firm conviction that the amendments introduced in the Charter of the OAS do not duly cover the requirements of the Organization, inasmuch as its basic instrument should contain, in addition to the organic economic, social, and cultural standards, the essential provisions that would make the security system of the Hemisphere effective.

INTER-AMERICAN TREATY OF RECIPROCAL ASSISTANCE

In the name of their Peoples, the Governments represented at the Inter-American Conference for the Maintenance of Continental Peace and Security, desirous of consolidating and strengthening their relations of friendship and good neighborliness, and

CONSIDERING: That Resolution VIII of the Inter-American Conference on Problems of War and Peace, which met in Mexico City, recommended the conclusion of a treaty to prevent and repel threats and acts of aggression against any of the countries of America;

That the High Contracting Parties reiterate their will to remain united in an inter-American system consistent with the purposes and principles of the United Nations, and reaffirm the existence of the agreement which they have concluded concerning those matters relating to the maintenance of international peace and security which are appropriate for regional action;

That the High Contracting Parties reaffirm their adherence to the principles of inter-American solidarity and cooperation, and especially to those set forth in the preamble and declarations of the Act of Chapultepec, all of which should be understood to be accepted as standards of their mutual relations and as the juridical basis of the Inter-American System;

That the American States propose, in order to improve the procedures for the pacific settlement of their controversies, to conclude the treaty concerning the "Inter-American Peace System" envisaged in Resolution IX and XXXIX of the Inter-American Conference on Problems of War and Peace;

That the obligation of mutual assistance and common defense of the American Republics is essentially related to their democratic ideals and to their will to cooperate permanently in the fulfillment of the principles and purposes of a policy of peace;

That the American regional community affirms as a manifest truth that juridical organization is a necessary prerequisite of security and peace, and that peace is founded on justice and moral order and, consequently, on the international recognition and protection of human rights and freedoms, on the indispensable well-being of the people, and on the effectiveness of democracy for the international realization of justice and security,

Have resolved, in conformity with the objectives stated above, to conclude the following Treaty, in order to assure peace, through adequate means, to provide for effective reciprocal assistance to meet armed attacks against any American State, and in order to deal with threats of aggression against any of them:

Article 1

The High Contracting Parties formally condemn war and undertake in their international relations not to resort to the threat or the use of force in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of the Charter of the United Nations or of this Treaty.

Article 2

As a consequence of the principle set forth in the preceding Article, the High Contracting Parties undertake to submit every controversy which may arise between them to methods of peaceful settlement and to endeavor to settle any such controversy among themselves by means of the procedures in force in the Inter-American System before referring it to the General Assembly or the Security Council of the United Nations.

Article 3

1. The High Contracting Parties agree that an armed attack by any State against an American State shall be considered as an attack against all the American States and, consequently, each one of the said Contracting Parties undertakes to assist in meeting the attack in the exercise of the inherent right of individual or collective self-defense recognized by Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations.

2. On the request of the State or States directly attacked and until the decision of the Organ of Consultation of the Inter-American System, each one of the Contracting Parties may determine the immediate measures which it may individually take in fulfillment of the obligation contained in the preceding paragraph and in accordance with the principle of continental solidarity. The Organ of Consultation shall meet without delay for the purpose of examining those measures and agreeing upon the measures of a collective character that should be taken.

3. The provisions of this Article shall be applied in case of any armed attack which takes place within the region described in Article 4 or within the territory of an American State. When the attack takes place outside of the said areas, the provisions of Article 6 shall be applied.

4. Measures of self-defense provided for under this Article may be taken until the Security Council of the United Nations has taken the measures necessary to maintain international peace and security.

Article 4

The region to which this Treaty refers is bounded as follows: beginning at the North Pole; thence due south to a point 74 degrees north latitude, 10 degrees west longitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point 47 degrees 30 minutes north latitude, 50 degrees west longitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point 35 degrees north latitude, 60 degrees west longitude; thence due south to a point in 20 degrees north latitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point 5 degrees north latitude, 24 degrees west longitude; thence due south to the South Pole; thence due north to a point 30 degrees south latitude, 90 degrees west longitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point on the Equator at 97 degrees west longitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point 15 degrees north latitude, 120 degrees west longitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point 50 degrees north latitude, 170 degrees east longitude; thence due north to a point in 54 degrees north latitude; thence by a rhumb line to a point 65 degrees 30 minutes north latitude, 168 degrees 58 minutes 5 seconds west longitude; thence due north to the North Pole.

Article 6

If the inviolability or the integrity of the territory or the sovereignty or political independence of any American State should be affected by an aggression which is not an armed attack or by an extra-continental or intra-continental conflict, or by any other fact or situation that might endanger the peace of America, the Organ of Consultation shall meet immediately in order to agree on the measures which must be taken in case of aggression to assist the victim of the aggression or, in any case, the measures which should be taken for the common defense and for the maintenance of the peace and security of the Continent.

Article 7

In the case of a conflict between two or more American States, without prejudice to the right of self-defense in conformity with Article 51 of the Charter of the United Nations, the High Contracting Parties, meeting in consultation shall call upon the contending States to suspend hostilities and restore matters to the statu quo ante bellum, and shall take in addition all other necessary measures to reestablish or maintain inter-American peace and security and for the solution of the conflict by peaceful means. The rejection of the pacifying action will be considered in the determination of the aggressor and in the application of the measures which the consultative meeting may agree upon.

RESERVATIONS MADE AT THE TIME OF SIGNING

Honduras

The Delegation of Honduras, in signing the present Treaty and in connection with Article 9, section (b), does so with the reservation that the boundary between Honduras and Nicaragua is definitely demarcated by the Joint Boundary Commission of nineteen hundred and nineteen hundred and one, starting from a point in the Gulf of Fonseca, in the Pacific Ocean, to Portillo de Teotecacinte and, from this point to the Atlantic, by the line that His Majesty the King of Spain's arbitral award established on the twenty-third of December of nineteen hundred and six.

Nicaragua

The Delegate of Nicaragua, in signing the present Treaty, and with respect to the reservation made by the Delegation of Honduras on signing it and to the provisions of Article 9 (b), does so with the reservation that the boundary between Nicaragua and Honduras from the point known by the name of Portillo de Teotecacinte to the Atlantic Ocean has not been definitely drawn, by virtue of the fact that the royal Award rendered by His Majesty the King of Spain on December twenty-third, nineteen hundred six, has been impugned and protested by Nicaragua as nonexistent, null, and void. Consequently, the signing of this Treaty by Nicaragua may not be alleged as acceptance of arbitral awards that Nicaragua has impugned or whose validity is not definite.

STATEMENT MADE ON SIGNING THE TREATY

Ecuador

The Republic of Ecuador signs the present Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance without reservations, because it understands that other instruments and the principles of international law do not bar the revision of treaties, either by agreement between the Parties or by the other pacific means consecrated by international law itself.

RESERVATIONS MADE AT THE

Guatemala

The present Treaty poses no impediment whatever to Guatemala's assertion of its rights over the Guatemalan territory of Belize by whatever means it considers most appropriate; a Treaty that may at any time be invoked by the Republic with respect to the aforesaid territory.¹

Honduras

With the reservation made at the time of signing.

Nicaragua

With the reservation made at the time of signing.

Ecuador

With the statement made on signing the Treaty.

Que el Consejo Directivo de la Unión Panamericana designe una Comisión de Expertos formada por cinco miembros para que redacte un anteproyecto de unificación de legislaciones sobre simplificación y uniformidad de poderes y personería jurídica de compañías extranjeras, si tal unificación es posible; y en caso contrario, para que aconseje el procedimiento más adecuado para reducir al mínimo posible los sistemas a que responden las distintas legislaciones sobre estas materias, así como también las reservas de que se hace uso en las convenciones al respecto.

Como conclusión de su informe, la Comisión hizo la siguiente recomendación:

"Las sociedades constituidas según las leyes de uno de los Estados Contratantes con sede en su territorio, que no tengan asiento, sucursal o representación social en otro de los Estados Contratantes, podrán, sin embargo, practicar en el territorio de éstos actos de comercio que no sean contrarios a sus leyes y comparecer en juicio como demandantes o como demandadas, con sujeción a las leyes del país."

Los suscritos, debidamente autorizados por sus respectivos Gobiernos, declaran que los principios formulados por la Comisión en la conclusión del informe arriba inserta, están en armonía con la doctrina establecida en la legislación de sus respectivos países.

El presente protocolo, en español, portugués, inglés y francés, con la fecha de hoy, será depositado en la Unión Panamericana y quedará abierto a la firma de los países que deseen hacer análoga declaración.

The Seventh International Conference of American States approved the following resolution (Number XLVIII):

"The Seventh International Conference of American States,
Resolves:

1. That the Governing Board of the Pan American Union shall appoint a Commission of five experts, to draft a project for simplification and uniformity of powers of attorney, and the juridical personality of foreign companies, if such uniformity is possible. If such uniformity is not possible, the Commission shall suggest the most adequate procedure for reducing to a minimum both the number of different systems of legislation on these subjects and the reservations made to the several conventions.
2. The report should be issued in 1934, and be given to the Governing Board of the Pan American Union in order that it may submit it to the consideration of all the Governments, members of the Pan American Union, for the purposes indicated."

In compliance with the foregoing resolution, the Governing Board at its session of November 7, 1934, appointed a Committee of Experts composed of the Ministers of Venezuela, Panama, and Haiti, and Mr. David E. Grant and Dr. E. Gil Borges. This Committee submitted to the Governing Board at the session of December 5, 1934, a report on the juridical personality of foreign companies in the countries of America. The conclusion of the report of the Committee was presented in the form of the following recommendation:

"Companies constituted in accordance with the laws of one of the Contracting States, and which have their seats in its territory, shall be able to exercise in the territories of the other Contracting States, notwithstanding that they do not have a permanent establishment, branch or agency in such territories, any commercial activity which is not contrary to the laws of such States and to enter all appearances in the courts as plaintiffs or defendants, provided they comply with the laws of the country in question."

The undersigned, being properly authorized by their respective Governments, declare that the principle formulated by the Committee of Experts in the foregoing conclusion to the report mentioned above, is in harmony with the doctrine established in the laws of their respective countries.

The present protocol, in Spanish, Portuguese, English and French, under the present date, shall be deposited in the Pan American Union and remain open for the signature of States which desire to make an analogous declaration.

The representatives of the States which desire to adhere with modifications to the principle enunciated in this declaration, may insert before their signatures the formula which they desire to sign.

"La Séptima Conferencia Internacional Americana, resuelve:

1. Que el Consejo Directivo de la Unión Panamericana designe una Comisión de Expertos formada por cinco miembros para que redacte un anteproyecto de unificación de legislaciones sobre simplificación y uniformidad de poderes y personería jurídica de compañías extranjeras, si tal unificación es posible; y en caso contrario, para que aconseje el procedimiento más adecuado para reducir al mínimo posible los sistemas a que responden las distintas legislaciones sobre estas materias, así como también las reservas de que se hace uso en las convenciones al respecto.

2. El informe será expedido en el año 1934 y remitido al Consejo Directivo para que éste lo someta a la consideración de todos los Gobiernos de la Unión Panamericana a los efectos preindicados."

La Comisión de Expertos designada por el Consejo Directivo de la Unión Panamericana de acuerdo con la resolución arriba transcrita redactó un proyecto sobre uniformidad del régimen legal de los poderes que se otorgan para obrar en países extranjeros, que fue sometido a los Gobiernos de las repúblicas americanas por el Consejo Directivo y revisado luego en conformidad con las observaciones de los Gobiernos miembros de la Unión Panamericana.

Varios de los Gobiernos de las repúblicas americanas han manifestado que están dispuestos a suscribir los principios de dicho proyecto y a darles expresión convencional, en los términos siguientes :

ARTICULO I

En los poderes que se otorgan en los países que forman la Unión Panamericana, destinados a obrar en el extranjero, se observarán las reglas siguientes:

1. Si el poder lo otorgare en su propio nombre una persona natural, el funcionario que autorice el acto (Notario, Registrador, Escribano, Juez o cualquier otro a quien la ley del respectivo país atribuyere tal función) dará fe de que conoce al otorgante y de que éste tiene capacidad legal para el otorgamiento.
2. Si el poder fuere otorgado en nombre de un tercero o fuere delegado o sustituído por el mandatario, el funcionario que autorice el acto, además de dar fe, respecto al representante que hace el otorgamiento del poder, delegación o sustitución, de los extremos indicados en el número anterior, la dará también de que él tiene efectivamente la representación en cuyo nombre procede, y de que esta representación es legítima según los documentos auténticos que al efecto se le exhibieren y los cuales mencionará específicamente, con expresión de sus fechas y de su origen o procedencia.
3. Si el poder fuere otorgado en nombre de una persona jurídica, además de la certificación a que se refieren los números anteriores, el funcionario que autorice el acto dará fe, respecto a la persona jurídica en cuyo nombre se hace el otorgamiento, de su debida constitución, de su sede, de su existencia legal actual y de que el acto para el cual se ha otorgado el poder está comprendido entre los que constituyen el objeto o actividad de ella. Esa declaración la basará el funcionario en los documentos que al efecto le fueren presentados, tales como escritura de constitución, estatutos, acuerdos de la Junta u organismo director de la persona jurídica y cualesquiera otros documentos justificativos de la personería que se confiere. Dichos documentos los mencionará el funcionario con expresión de sus fechas y su origen.

ARTICULO II

La fe que, conforme al artículo anterior, diere el funcionario que autorice el poder no podrá ser destruida sino mediante prueba en contrario producida por el que objetare su exactitud.

A este efecto no es menester la tacha por falsedad del documento cuando la objeción se fundare únicamente en la errónea apreciación o interpretación jurídica en que hubiere incurrido el funcionario en su certificación.

ARTICULO III

No es menester para la eficacia del poder que el mandatario manifieste en el propio acto su aceptación. Esta resultará del ejercicio mismo del poder.

ARTICULO IV

En los poderes especiales para ejercer actos de dominio que se otorguen en cualquiera de los países de la Unión Panamericana, para obrar en otro de ellos, será preciso que se determine concretamente el mandato a fin de que el apoderado tenga todas las facultades necesarias para el hábil cumplimiento del mismo, tanto en lo relativo a los bienes como a toda clase de gestiones ante los tribunales o autoridades administrativas a fin de defenderlos.

En los poderes generales para administrar bienes bastará expresar que se confieren con ese carácter para que el apoderado tenga toda clase de facultades administrativas, inclusive las necesarias para pleitos y procedimientos administrativos y judiciales referentes a la administración.

En los poderes generales para pleitos, cobranzas o procedimientos administrativos o judiciales, bastará que se diga que se otorgan con todas las facultades generales y las especiales que requieran cláusula especial, conforme a la ley, para que se entiendan conferidos sin limitación o restricción alguna.

La disposición de este artículo tendrá el carácter de regla especial que prevalecerá sobre las reglas generales que en cualquier otro sentido estableciere la legislación del respectivo país.

ARTICULO V

En cada uno de los países que componen la Unión Panamericana serán válidos legalmente los poderes otorgados en cualquier otro de ellos que se ajusten a las reglas formuladas en este Protocolo, siempre que estuvieren además legalizados de conformidad con las reglas especiales sobre legalización.

ARTICULO VI

Los poderes otorgados en país extranjero y en idioma extranjero podrán dentro del cuerpo del mismo instrumento ser traducidos al idioma del país donde estuvieren destinados a obrar. En tal caso la traducción así autorizada por el otorgante se tendrá por exacta en todas sus partes. Podrá también hacerse la traducción del poder en el país donde se ejercerá el mandato de acuerdo con el uso o la legislación del mismo.

ARTICULO VII

Los poderes otorgados en el país extranjero no requieren como formalidad previa a su ejercicio la de ser registrados o protocolizados en oficinas determinadas, sin perjuicio de que se practique el registro o la protocolización cuando así lo exija la ley como formalidad especial en determinados casos.

ARTICULO VIII

Cualquiera persona que de acuerdo con la ley pueda intervenir o hacerse parte en un procedimiento judicial o administrativo para la defensa de sus intereses, podrá ser representada por un gestor, a condición de que dicho gestor presente por escrito el poder legal necesario, o de que, mientras no se acredite debidamente la personería, el gestor preste fianza o caución a discreción del tribunal o de la autoridad administrativa que conozca del negocio, para responder de las costas o de los perjuicios que pueda causar la gestión.

ARTICULO IX

En los casos de poderes formalizados en cualquier país de la Unión Panamericana, con arreglo a las disposiciones que anteceden, para ser ejercidos en cualquiera de los otros países de la misma Unión, los notarios debidamente constituidos como tales conforme a las leyes del respectivo país, se estimarán capacitados para ejercer funciones y atribuciones equivalentes a las conferidas a los notarios por las leyes de (nombre del país), sin perjuicio, sin embargo, de la necesidad de protocolizar el instrumento en los casos a que se refiere el artículo VII.

ARTICULO X

Lo que en los artículos anteriores se dice respecto de los notarios, se aplicará igualmente a las autoridades y funcionarios que ejercen funciones notariales conforme a la legislación de sus respectivos países.

ARTICULO XI

El original del presente Protocolo, en español, portugués, inglés y francés, con la fecha de hoy, será depositado en la Unión Panamericana y quedará abierto a la firma de los Estados miembros de la Unión Panamericana.

ARTICULO XII

El presente Protocolo entrará en vigor respecto de cada una de las Altas Partes Contratantes desde la fecha de su firma por dicha Parte Contratante, quedará abierto a la firma de los Estados miembros de la Unión Panamericana, y permanecerá indefinidamente en vigor, pero cualquiera de las Partes puede terminar las obligaciones contraídas por el Protocolo tres meses después de haber notificado su intención a la Unión Panamericana.

No obstante lo estipulado en el párrafo anterior, cualquier Estado que lo deseé, puede firmar ad referendum el presente Protocolo, que en este caso no entrará en vigor respecto de dicho Estado sino después del depósito en la Unión Panamericana del instrumento de la ratificación conforme a su procedimiento constitucional.

ARTICULO XIII

Cualquier Estado que desee aprobar el presente Protocolo con algunas modificaciones podrá declarar antes de su firma la forma en que le dará aplicación.

EN FE DE LO CUAL, los infrascritos plenipotenciarios, después de haber depositado sus Plenos Poderes, que se han encontrado en buena y debida forma, firman y sellan este Protocolo en nombre de sus respectivos Gobiernos en las fechas indicadas junto a sus firmas.

PROTOCOL ON UNIFORMITY OF POWERS OF ATTORNEY WHICH ARE TO BE UTILIZED ABROAD

Opened for signature at the Pan American Union on February 17, 1940

The Seventh International Conference of American States
approved the following resolution (No. XLVIII):

"The Seventh International Conference of American States
resolves:

1. That the Governing Board of the Pan American Union shall appoint a Commission of five experts, to draft a project for simplification and uniformity of powers of attorney, and the juridical personality of foreign companies, if such uniformity is possible. If such uniformity is not possible, the Commission shall suggest the most adequate procedure for reducing to a minimum both the number of different systems of legislation on these subjects and the reservations made to the several conventions.

2. The report should be issued in 1934, and be given to the the Governing Board of the Pan American Union in order that it may submit it to the consideration of all the Governments, members of the Pan American Union, for the purposes indicated."

The committee of experts appointed by the Governing Board of the Pan American Union pursuant to the above resolution prepared a draft of uniform legislation governing powers of attorney to be utilized abroad, which was submitted by the Governing Board to the governments, members of the Pan American Union, and revised in accordance with the observations of the said governments.

A number of the governments of the American Republics have indicated that they are prepared to subscribe to the principles of the said draft, and to give them conventional expression, in the following terms:

ARTICLE I

Powers of attorney granted in the countries, comprising the Pan American Union, for utilization abroad, shall conform to the following rules:

1. If the power of attorney is executed by or on behalf of a natural person, the attesting official (notary, registrar, clerk of court, judge or any other official upon whom the law of the respective country confers such functions) shall certify from his own knowledge to the identity of the appearing party and to his legal capacity to execute the instrument.

2. If the power of attorney is executed in the name of a third person, or if it is delegated or if there is a substitution by the agent, the attesting official, in addition to certifying, in regard to the representative who executes the power of attorney, or delegates or makes a substitution, to the requirements mentioned in the foregoing paragraph, shall also certify that such representative has in fact the authority to represent the person in whose name he appears, and that this representation is legal according to such authentic documents as for this purpose are exhibited to said attesting official and which the latter shall mention specifically, giving their dates, and their origin or source.

3. If the power of attorney is executed in the name of a juridical person, in addition to the certification referred to in the foregoing paragraphs, the attesting official shall certify, with respect to the juridical person in whose name the power is executed, to its due organization, its home office, its present legal existence, and that the purposes for which the instrument is granted are within the scope of the objects or activities of the juridical person; which declarations shall be based on the documents which for that purpose are presented to the official, such as the instrument of organization, bylaws, resolutions of the board of directors or other governing body, and such other legal documents as shall substantiate the authority conferred. The attesting official shall specifically mention these documents, giving their dates and their origin.

ARTICLE II

The certification made by the attesting official pursuant to the provisions of the foregoing article, shall not be impugned except by proof to the contrary produced by the person challenging its accuracy.

For this purpose, it shall not be necessary to allege falsity of the document if the objection is founded only on an erroneous legal construction or interpretation made by the official in his certification.

ARTICLE III

It shall be unnecessary for the grantee of a power of attorney to signify therein his acceptance of the mandate; such acceptance being conclusively presumed by the grantee's acting under the power.

ARTICLE IV

Special powers of attorney to authorize acts of ownership granted in any of the countries of the Pan American Union, for use in another member country, must specify in concrete terms the nature of the powers conferred, to enable the grantee to exercise all the rights necessary for the proper execution of the power with respect to property as well as to the taking of all necessary steps before the tribunals or administrative authorities in defense thereof.

General powers of attorney for the administration of property shall be sufficient, if expressly granted with that general character, to empower the grantee to consummate all manner of administrative acts, including the prosecution and defense of law suits and administrative and judicial proceedings, in connection with the administration of the property.

General powers of attorney for lawsuits, collections or administrative or judicial proceedings, when so worded as to indicate that they confer all general powers and all such special powers as, according to the law, ordinarily require a special clause, shall be deemed to be granted without any limitation or restriction whatever.

The provisions of this article shall have the character of a special rule which shall prevail over such general rules to the contrary as the legislation of the respective country may establish.

ARTICLE V

Powers of attorney granted in any of the member countries of the Pan American Union, which are executed in conformity with the rules of this Protocol, shall be given full faith and credit, provided, however, that they are legalized in accordance with the special rules governing legalization.

ARTICLE VI

Powers of attorney granted abroad and in a foreign language may be translated into the language of the country of their destination and the translation incorporated as part of the text of the instrument thereof. In such case, the translation, so authorized by the grantor, shall be deemed accurate in every particular. The translation of the power of attorney may also be made in the country where the power is to be utilized, in accordance with the local usage or pertinent laws of such a country.

ARTICLE VII

Powers granted in a foreign country do not require as a prerequisite their registration or protocolization thereof in designated offices. However, this rule will not prevail when the registration or protocolization of such instruments is required by the law as a special formality in specific cases.

ARTICLE VIII

Any person who may, pursuant to the pertinent legislation, intervene or become a party in a judicial or administrative proceeding for the defense of his interests, may be represented by a volunteer, on condition, however, that such representative shall furnish the necessary legal authority in writing, or that, pending the due substantiation of his authority, such representative shall furnish bond, at the discretion of the competent tribunal or administrative authority, to respond for the costs or damages which his action may occasion.

ARTICLE IX

In the case of powers of attorney, executed in any of the countries of the Pan American Union in accordance with the foregoing provisions, to be utilized in any other member country of the Union, notaries duly commissioned as such under the laws of their respective countries shall be deemed to have authority to exercise functions and powers equivalent to those accorded to native notaries by the laws and regulations of (name of country), without prejudice, however, to the necessity of protocolization of the instrument in the cases referred to in Article VII.

ARTICLE X

What has been said in the foregoing articles with respect to notaries, shall apply with equal force to the authorities or officials that exercise notarial functions under the laws of their respective countries.

ARTICLE XI

The original of the present Protocol in Spanish, Portuguese, English and French, under the present date shall be deposited in the Pan American Union and opened for signature by the states, members of the Pan American Union.

ARTICLE XII

The present Protocol is operative as respects each High Contracting Party on the date of signature by such Party. It shall be open for signature on behalf of any of the states, members of the Pan American Union, and shall remain operative indefinitely, but any Party may terminate its own obligations hereunder three months after it has given to the Pan American Union notice of such intention.

Notwithstanding the stipulations of the foregoing paragraph any state desiring to do so may sign the present Protocol ad referendum, which Protocol in this case, shall not take effect, with respect to such state, until after the deposit of the instrument of ratification, in conformity with its constitutional procedure.

ARTICLE XIII

Any state desiring to approve the present Protocol with modifications may indicate, when signing the Protocol, the form in which the instrument will be given effect within its territory.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, having deposited their full powers found to be in due and proper form, sign this Protocol on behalf of their respective governments, and affix thereto their seals on the dates appearing opposite their signatures.

RESERVATIONS AND DECLARATIONS MADE AT THE TIME OF SIGNING

BOLIVIA

The Representative of Bolivia signs this Protocol with the following clarification regarding Article I, Section 2:

"For the correct application of Article I, Section 2 of the Protocol on Uniformity of Powers of Attorney in the territory of the Republic of Bolivia, it is necessary that the notary or official charged with the authentication of documents insert in the Powers of Attorney which are issued by delegation or by substitution the integral text of the original Powers of Attorney and of all those documents which prove the legal capacity of the person conferring the power."

COLOMBIA

The Plenipotentiary of Colombia signs the Protocol on Powers of Attorney ad referendum to approval by the National Congress, making the reservation that the Legislation of Colombia, in Article 2590 of the Civil Code, provides that notaries are responsible only for the formal part and not for the substance of the acts and contracts which they authenticate.

MEXICO

The Government of the United Mexican States, in accepting the provisions of Article IV, makes the express declaration that aliens who are required, for the performance of certain acts, to enter into the agreement or waiver referred to in Section I of Article 27 of the Political Constitution of the United Mexican States, must grant a special power of attorney, expressly including as one of its provisions the agreement and waiver above mentioned. Section I of Article 27 of the Constitution reads as follows: "Only Mexicans by birth or by naturalization, and Mexican companies, have the right to acquire the ownership of lands, waters, and their appurtenances, or to obtain concessions for the exploitation of mines, waters, or mineral fuels in the Mexican Republic. The State may grant the same right to aliens, provided they enter into an agreement before the Secretariat of Foreign Relations to be considered as Mexicans with respect to such property, and not to invoke, therefore, the protection of their governments in any matter relating thereto; under the penalty, in the event they violate the agreement, of forfeiture to the nation of property they have acquired by reason thereof. Under no circumstances may foreigners acquire direct ownership of lands and waters within a zone of one hundred kilometers along the seashore."

PROTOCOLO SÔBRE UNIFORMIDADE DO REGIME LEGAL DAS PROCURAÇÕES

Aberto à assinatura na União Pan-Americanana em 17 de fevereiro de 1940

A Sétima Conférence Internacional Americana aprovou a seguinte resolução (Número XLVIII):

"A Sétima Conferência Internacional Americana, resolve:

1. Que o Conselho Diretor da União Pan-Americanana designe uma Comissão de Peritos formada por cinco membros, para que formule um anteprojeto de unificação de legislações sobre simplicação e uniformidade de procurações e personalidade jurídica de companhias estrangeiras, se tal unificação é possível, e em caso contrário, para que aconselhe o procedimento mais adequado para reduzir ao menor número possível os diversos sistemas legislativos sobre estas matérias, assim como também as reservas de que se faz uso nas convenções a esse respeito.

2. O relatório será emitido no ano de 1934 e remetido ao Conselho Diretor para que este o submeta à consideração de todos os Governos da União Pan-Americanana para os efeitos acima indicados."

A Comissão de Peritos designada pelo Conselho Diretor da União Pan-Americanana, de acordo com a resolução acima, redigiu um projeto sobre uniformidade do regime legal das procurações que se passam para ter efeito em países estrangeiros, que foi submetido aos Governos das repúblicas americanas pelo conselho Diretor e revisto em seguida, de conformidade com as observações dos Governos membros da União Pan-Americanana.

Diversos dos Governos das repúblicas americanas já se manifestaram dispostos a subscrever aos princípios do referido projeto e dar-lhes expressão convencional, nos seguintes termos:

ARTIGO I

Nas procurações que se outorgam nos países que formam a União Pan-Americana, destinadas a utilização no estrangeiro, observar-se-ão as seguintes regras:

1. Se a procuração fôr outorgada em seu próprio nome por uma pessoa natural, o funcionário que autorizar o ato (notário, registrador, escrivão, juiz, ou qualquer outro a quem a lei do respectivo país atribuir tal função) dará fé de que conhece o outorgante e de que êste tem capacidade legal para a outorga.

2. Se a procuração fôr outorgada em nome de um terceiro, ou fôr delegada ou substituída pelo mandatário, o funcionário que autorizar o ato, além de dar fé, a respeito do representante que faz a outorga de procuração, delegação ou substituição, dos requisitos indicados no número anterior, dá-la-á também de que êle tem efetivamente a representação em cujo nome procede, e de que esta representação é válida segundo os documentos autênticos que para êsse efeito lhe tenham sido exibidos e os quais mencionará especificamente, com declaração de sua data e de sua origem ou procedência.

3. Se a procuração fôr outorgada em nome de uma pessoa jurídica, além da certificação a que se referem os números anteriores, o funcionário que autorizar o ato dará fé, a respeito da pessoa jurídica em cujo nome se faz a outorga, de sua devida constituição, de sua sede, de sua existência legal atual e de que o ato para o qual foi outorgada a procuração está compreendido entre os que constituem o objetivo ou atividade dela. Esta declaração, o funcionário deverá basear nos documentos que para êsse efeito lhe forem apresentados, tais como escritura de constituição, estatutos, acôrdos da Junta ou organismo diretor da pessoa jurídica e quaisquer outros documentos justificativos da procuração que fôr outorgada. O funcionário mencionará os ditos documentos, declarando suas datas e origem.

ARTIGO II

A fé que, em conformidade com o artigo anterior, fôr dada pelo funcionário que autorizar a procuração não poderá ser destruida senão mediante prova em contrário produzida pelo que contestar a sua exatidão.

Para êste efeito não cabe a pecha de falsidade do documento quando a objeção se basear unicamente na errônea apreciação ou interpretação jurídica em que houver incorrido o funcionário em sua certificação.

ARTIGO III

Não é necessário para a eficácia da procuração que o mandatário declare no próprio ato a sua aceitação. Esta resultará do próprio exercício da procuração.

ARTIGO IV

Nas procurações especiais para exercer atos de domínio outorgadas em qualquer dos países da União Pan-Americana, para atuar em outro deles, será preciso que se determinem concretamente os poderes para que o procurador tenha todas as faculdades necessárias para o hábil desempenho dos mesmos, tanto no relativo aos bens, como toda a espécie de atuação ante os tribunais ou autoridades administrativas a fim de defendê-los.

Nas procurações gerais para administrar bens bastará declarar que se outorgam com esse caráter para que o procurador tenha todas as faculdades administrativas inclusive as necessárias para pleitos e processos administrativos e judiciais referentes à administração.

Nas procurações gerais para pleitos, cobranças ou processos administrativos ou judiciais bastará que se diga que se outorgam com todas as faculdades gerais e as especiais que requeiram cláusula especial, de conformidade com a lei, para que se entendam outorgadas sem limitação ou restrição alguma.

A disposição deste artigo terá o caráter de regra especial que prevalecerá sobre as regras gerais que em qualquer outro sentido forem estabelecidas pela legislação do respectivo país.

ARTIGO V

Em cada um dos países que compõem a União Pan-Americana serão válidas legalmente as procurações outorgadas em outro deles que se ajustarem às regras formuladas neste Protocolo sempre que estiverem além disso legalizadas de conformidade com as regras especiais sobre legalização.

ARTIGO VI

As procurações outorgadas em país estrangeiro e em idioma estrangeiro poderão dentro do corpo do mesmo instrumento ser traduzidas para o idioma do país em que se destinarem a ser executadas. Em tal caso a tradução assim autorizada pelo outorgante ter-se-á por exata em tódas as suas partes. Também poderá ser feita a tradução da procuração no país em que serão exercidos os poderes de acordo com o uso ou a legislação do mesmo.

ARTIGO VII

As procurações outorgadas em país estrangeiro não requerem como formalidade prévia ao seu exercício, o registro ou protocolização em repartições determinadas, sem prejuízo de que se faça o registro ou a protocolização quando assim o exigir a lei como formalidade especial em determinados casos.

ARTIGO VIII

Qualquer pessoa que de acordo com a lei puder intervir ou fazer-se parte em um processo judicial ou administrativo para a defesa de seus interesses, poderá ser representada por um procurador, contanto que o dito procurador apresente por escrito a procuração legal necessária, ou que, enquanto não se acredite devidamente a procuração, o procurador preste fiança ou caução à discreção do tribunal ou da autoridade administrativa que tomar conhecimento do negócio, para se responsabilizar pelas custas ou prejuízos que a atuação possa causar.

ARTIGO IX

Nos casos de procurações passadas em qualquer país da União Pan-Americana, de conformidade com as supra-citadas disposições, para serem executadas em qualquer dos outros países da mesma União, os notários, devidamente constituidos como tais de conformidade com as leis do respectivo país, ter-se-ão por capacitados para exercer funções e atribuições equivalentes às conferidas aos notários pelas leis de (nome do país), sem prejuízo, no entanto, da necessidade de protocolizar o instrumento nos casos a que se refere o artigo VII.

ARTIGO X

O que fica dito nos artigos anteriores a respeito dos notários, aplica-se igualmente às autoridades e funcionários que exerçam funções notariais conforme a legislação dos seus respectivos países.

ARTIGO XI

O original do presente Protocolo, em português, espanhol, inglês e francês, com a data de hoje, será depositado na União Pan-Americana e ficará aberto à assinatura dos Estados membros da União Pan-Americana.

ARTIGO XII

O presente Protocolo entrará em vigor, relativamente a cada Alta Parte Contratante, na data de sua assinatura pela dita Parte Contratante. PROTOCOLE SUR L'UNIFORMITE DES PROCURATIONS
DESTINEES A ETRE EMPLOYES A L'EXTERIEUR

Ouvert à la signature à l'Union Panaméricaine
le 17 février 1940

La Septième Conférence internationale des Etats Américains a approuvé le voeu suivant (N° XLVIII):

"La Septième Conférence internationale des Etats Américains exprime le voeu:

1. Que le Conseil Directeur de l'Union Panaméricaine désigne une Commission de cinq Experts chargée de rédiger un projet de texte pour la simplification et l'uniformisation des procurations et du statut juridique des sociétés étrangères, au cas où cette uniformisation serait possible. Dans le cas contraire, la Commission d'Experts devra proposer la méthode la plus propre à réduire au minimum le nombre des législations différant entre elles ainsi que les réserves susceptibles d'être faites aux conventions sur ces sujets.

2. La Commission fera son rapport en 1934, et ce rapport sera transmis au Conseil Directeur de l'Union Panaméricaine, afin que celui-ci puisse, aux fins indiquées ci-dessus, le soumettre à l'examen de tous les Etats membres de l'Union Panaméricaine."

La Commission d'Experts désignée par le Conseil Directeur de l'Union Panaméricaine conformément au voeu reproduit ci-dessus a préparé un projet de législation uniforme pour régir les procurations destinées à être employées à l'extérieur. Ce projet a été soumis par le Conseil Directeur aux Etats membres de l'Union Panaméricaine, et, par la suite, fut modifié d'après les observations desdits Etats.

Les Gouvernements d'un certain nombre de Républiques américaines ont fait savoir qu'ils étaient disposés à accepter les principes contenus dans le projet en question et à leur donner une expression conventionnelle dans les termes suivants:

ARTICLE I

Les procurations accordées dans les pays membres de l'Union Panaméricaine et destinées à être employées dans un pays étranger doivent se conformer aux règles suivantes:

1. Si la procuration est accordée soit par une personne naturelle, soit au nom de celle-ci, le fonctionnaire qui l'atteste (notaire, fonctionnaire de l'enregistrement, greffier, juge ou autre personne à qui la loi du pays attribue les fonctions en question) fait foi de ce qu'il connaît lui-même le mandant, et que celui-ci possède la capacité légale nécessaire à l'exécution de cet acte.
2. Si la procuration est accordée au nom d'un tiers, si elle est déléguée, ou s'il y a substitution par le mandataire, le fonctionnaire attestant, après avoir fait foi des conditions mentionnées à l'alinéa précédent relativement au mandataire qui exécute la procuration, ou opère la délégation ou la substitution, devra également faire foi de ce que celui-ci a bien un mandat de la personne au nom de laquelle il agit et que ce mandat est légitime d'après les documents authentiques à cette fin présentés audit fonctionnaire, lequel fera une mention expresse de ces documents, en en donnant les dates, l'origine ou la provenance.
3. Si la procuration est exécutée au nom d'une personne juridique, le fonctionnaire, après avoir attesté conformément aux dispositions des alinéas précédents, fait foi, relativement à la personne juridique au nom de laquelle la procuration est exécutée, de la constitution régulière de celle-ci, de son siège social, de son existence juridique actuelle et du fait que les actes pour lesquels le mandat est accordé sont compris parmi les fins ou les activités pour lesquelles ladite personne juridique est autorisée. Ces déclarations sont appuyées par les documents présentés à cet effet au fonctionnaire, tels que l'acte de constitution, les statuts, les décisions du conseil des directeurs ou de l'organisme directeur, ou tous autres documents juridiques propres à établir l'autorité conférée. Le fonctionnaire attestant fait une mention expresse de ces documents, en en donnant les dates et l'origine.

L'attestation faite par le fonctionnaire en conformité des dispositions de l'article précédent ne peut être attaquée qu'au moyen de preuves au contraire fournies par la personne désirant en contester l'exactitude.

Il n'est pas nécessaire, dans ce but, d'alléguer la fausseté du document si l'objection n'est fondée que sur l'inexactitude de l'interprétation juridique faite par le fonctionnaire dans son attestation.

ARTICLE III

Le mandataire n'est pas tenu de signifier dans la procuration qu'il accepte le mandat; l'exercice par le mandataire des pouvoirs accordés par la procuration constitue la preuve irréfutable de cette acceptation.

ARTICLE IV

Les procurations destinées spécialement à autoriser des actes de propriétaire, et accordées dans les pays membres de l'Union Panaméricaine doivent indiquer d'une manière précise l'étendue des pouvoirs conférés, de façon à permettre au mandataire d'exercer tous les droits nécessaires à l'exercice des pouvoirs requis, relativement aux biens ainsi qu'aux recours à exercer auprès des tribunaux et des autorités administratives pour la protection desdits biens.

Les procurations générales pour l'administration des biens, à condition qu'elles soient accordées expressément dans cette forme générale, suffisent pour donner au mandataire tous les pouvoirs nécessaires à la consommation de tous genres d'actes d'administration, y compris la poursuite ou la défense devant les tribunaux, et les procédures administratives ou judiciaires relatives à l'administration des biens en question.

Les procurations générales autorisant le mandataire à agir en justice, à opérer des encaissements ou à intervenir dans les procédures administratives ou judiciaires sont considérées comme ayant été accordées sans réserves et sans restrictions, pourvu qu'elles soient rédigées de manière à indiquer qu'elles confèrent tous les pouvoirs généraux, et tous les pouvoirs spéciaux qui, en vertu de la législation applicable, demandent une clause spéciale.

Les dispositions du présent article constituent une règle spéciale qui doit l'emporter sur toute règle générale au contraire que pourra établir la législation du pays en question.

ARTICLE V

Les procurations accordées dans un des pays membres de l'Union Panaméricaine et exécutées en conformité des règles du présent Protocole sont reconnues comme valides à condition qu'elles soient légalisées suivant les règles spéciales applicables à la légalisation.

ARTICLE VI

Les procurations accordées dans un pays étranger et rédigées dans une langue étrangère peuvent être traduites dans la langue du pays où elles doivent servir, et cette traduction peut faire partie des procurations en question. Dans ce cas, la traduction autorisée par le mandat est considérée comme étant exacte dans tous ses détails. La procuration peut également être traduite dans le pays où elle est destinée à être employée, sous réserve des usages du lieu et des lois applicables du pays en question.

ARTICLE VII

Les procurations accordées dans un pays étranger ne sont pas tenues, comme condition préalable à leur utilisation, d'être enregistrées ou dressées suivant protocole dans certains bureaux déterminés. Toutefois, cette règle ne s'applique pas dans le cas où la loi prescrit comme formalité spéciale que de tels actes soient, dans certains cas, dressés suivant protocole.

ARTICLE VIII

Toute personne qui, suivant la loi applicable, peut intervenir ou se constituer partie dans une procédure judiciaire ou administrative pour la défense de ses intérêts, peut se faire représenter par un gérant, à condition que ce gérant fournisse la preuve légale écrite de son mandat, ou que, en attendant que son autorité soit dûment établie, il fournisse une garantie ou une caution, à la discrétion du tribunal compétent ou de l'autorité administrative compétente, pour répondre des frais ou dommages que pourrait occasionner son action.

ARTICLE IX

Pour les procurations dressées dans un des pays membres de l'Union Panaméricaine conformément aux dispositions qui précèdent, et destinées à être employées dans un autre pays membre de l'Union Panaméricaine, tout notaire dûment autorisé à cet effet par la loi de son propre pays est considéré comme possédant l'autorité nécessaire pour exercer les fonctions et pouvoirs correspondants à ceux accordés aux notaires par les lois et règlements de (nom du pays), sans préjudice de l'obligation de dresser cet acte suivant protocole dans les cas visés à l'article VII.

ARTICLE X

Les dispositions des articles précédents relatives aux notaires s'appliquent également aux autorités et aux fonctionnaires qui, en vertu des lois de leurs pays respectifs, exercent les fonctions de notaire.

ARTICLE XI

L'original du présent Protocole, rédigé en espagnol, en portugais, en anglais et en français, et portant la date d'aujourd'hui, sera déposé dans les archives de l'Union Panaméricaine, et ouvert à la signature des Etats membres de l'Union Panaméricaine.

ARTICLE XII

Le présent Protocole entrera en vigueur pour chaque Haute Partie Contractante, à la date de la signature de ladite Partie. Il restera ouvert à la signature de tous les Etats membres de l'Union Panaméricaine, et demeurera en vigueur indéfiniment. Toute Partie pourra, cependant, mettre fin à son engagement relativement à ce Protocole trois mois après avoir notifié son intention à cet effet à l'Union Panaméricaine.

Nonobstant les dispositions de l'alinéa précédent, tout Etat aura la faculté de signer le présent Protocole AD REFERENDUM; et dans ce cas le Protocole n'entrera en vigueur, vis-à-vis de cet Etat, qu'après le dépôt de l'instrument de ratification, fait conformément à sa procédure constitutionnelle.

ARTICLE XIII

Tout Etat désirant approuver le présent Protocole avec modifications pourra indiquer, lors de sa signature, la forme dans laquelle cet acte devra s'appliquer dans son territoire.

EN FOI DE QUOI les soussignés plénipotentiaires, ayant déposé leurs pleins pouvoirs, lesquels ont été trouvés en bonne et due forme, ont signé le présent Protocole au nom de leurs Gouvernements respectifs, et ont apposé leurs sceaux à la date figurant en regard de leur signatures.

La première partie de l'article 27 de la Constitution stipule ce qui suit: "Seuls les Mexicains de naissance ou par naturalisation et les sociétés mexicaines ont le droit en République mexicaine, d'acquérir des terres, eaux et leurs accessoires ou d'obtenir des concessions pour l'exploitation de mines, d'eaux ou de combustibles minéraux. L'Etat pourra concéder ce droit aux étrangers, sous la condition qu'ils conviennent, devant le Secrétariat des Relations Extérieures, d'être traités comme les nationaux à l'égard desdits biens et de renoncer, en conséquence, à la protection de leurs gouvernements en ce qui a trait à ces biens, sous peine, en cas de violation de cet engagement, de perdre au profit de la nation les biens acquis grâce à lui. En aucun cas, ne pourra un étranger devenir propriétaire direct de terres ou d'eaux situées dans un secteur de cent kilomètres des frontières ni de cinquante kilomètres du littoral."

Article IX. LAS ALTAS PARTES CONTRATANTES, deseosas de procurar a todos los países signatarios el conocimiento, la protección y conservación de los monumentos muebles precolombinos, coloniales y de la época de la emancipación y de la república que existen en cada una de ellas, mediante medidas de cooperación, han resuelto celebrar una convención, y, al efecto, han convenido en los artículos siguientes:

ARTICULO 1. - Para los efectos de este tratado se consideran monumentos muebles:

- a) De la época precolombina: las armas de guerra o utensilios de labor, las obras de alfarería, los tejidos, las joyas y amuletos, los grabados, diseños y códices, los quipos, los trajes, los adornos de toda índole, y en general todo objeto mueble que por su naturaleza o su procedencia muestren que provienen de algún inmueble que auténticamente pertenece a aquella época histórica.
- b) De la época colonial: las armas de guerra y los utensilios de trabajo, los trajes, las medallas, monedas, amuletos y joyas, los diseños, pinturas, grabados, planos y cartas geográficas, los códices, y todo libro raro por su escasez, forma y contenido, los objetos de orfebrería, de porcelana, marfil, carey y los de encaje, y en general todas las piezas recordatorias que tengan valor histórico o artístico.
- c) De la época de la emancipación y la república: los mencionados en el inciso anterior que correspondan a esta época.
- d) De todas las épocas: 1) las bibliotecas oficiales y de instituciones, las bibliotecas particulares valiosas tomadas en su conjunto, los archivos nacionales y las colecciones de manuscritos, oficiales y particulares de alta significación histórica; 2) como riqueza mueble natural, los especímenes zoológicos de especies bellas y raras que están amenazadas de exterminación o de desaparición natural y cuya conservación sea necesaria para el estudio de la fauna.

ARTICULO 2.- Para que estos monumentos muebles puedan ser importados a algunas de las repúblicas signatarias, las aduanas exigirán al importador los documentos oficiales que autoricen la exportación de país de origen, cuando ésta sea Parte en este tratado.

ARTICULO 3.- Los países de origen establecerán la necesidad de un permiso ineludible de exportación para todos los monumentos muebles y que sólo concederán en el caso de que queden en el país otros ejemplos iguales o de valor semejante al que trata de exportarse.

ARTICULO 4.- Los Estados Partes en este tratado consideran que los que tienen algunos de los objetos declarados monumentos muebles sólo gozarán de su usufructo que no es trasmisible sino dentro del país, y se comprometen a legislar en este sentido.

ARTICULO 5.- Las aduanas del país al que se pretendan importar monumentos muebles procedentes de un Estado signatario sin la autorización necesaria, decomisarán éstos y los devolverán al gobierno del país de donde procedan para la correspondiente sanción por la exportación ilícita.

ARTICULO 6.- Al tener conocimiento cualquiera de los gobiernos signatarios de una exportación ilícita de su propio país, posterior al presente tratado, podrá dirigirse al gobierno del país donde se ha llevado el monumento para que este gobierno proceda a devolverlo al solicitante.

ARTICULO 7.- Los gobiernos signatarios instruirán a sus respectivos representantes diplomáticos para que, en el caso de que adquieriesen, por donación o compra, un monumento mueble, pongan el hecho en conocimiento del Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores del país donde residen para que éste determine si es o no exportable.

ARTICULO 8.- Los gobiernos signatarios declaran que los monumentos muebles no pueden ser botín de guerra.

ARTICULO 9.- Este tratado no anula ni modifica ningún tratado, convención o acuerdo que exista entre los gobiernos signatarios o entre éstos y estados no signatarios.

ARTICULO 10.- El original del presente convenio, en español, portugués, inglés y francés, con la fecha de hoy, será depositado en la Unión Panamericana y quedará abierto a la firma de cualquiera de los Estados miembros de la Unión Panamericana.

ARTICULO 11.- Los instrumentos de ratificación de este convenio serán transmitidos para su depósito a la Unión Panamericana, la cual notificará el hecho del depósito a los signatarios.

ARTICULO 12.- Este convenio entrará en vigor entre los Estados que ratifiquen desde la fecha del depósito de los instrumentos de ratificación.

ARTICULO 13.- El presente convenio permanecerá en vigor indefinidamente, pero cualquiera de las Partes puede denunciarlo y la denuncia terminará sus obligaciones conforme al convenio, después de tres meses de la notificación de la denuncia a la Unión Panamericana.

TREATY ON THE PROTECTION OF MOVABLE PROPERTY OF HISTORIC VALUE

The High Contracting Parties, desirous of securing, by means of cooperation, for all the Signatory States the knowledge, protection, and preservation of movable monuments of the pre-Columbian and Colonial periods and of the epoch of emancipation and the republic, which exist in each of them have resolved to celebrate a convention, and to this end have agreed on the following articles:

ARTICLE 1. - For the purpose of this Treaty, the following shall be considered as movable monuments:

- a) Of the pre-Columbian period: arms of war and implements of labor, pottery, woven fabrics, jewels and amulets, engravings, drawings and codices, quipus, costumes, adornments of all sorts, and in general all movable objects which by their nature or origin show that they are separated from some immovable monument which belongs authentically to that period of history.
- b) Of the Colonial period: arms of war and implements of labor, costumes, medals, coins, amulets and jewels, drawings, paintings, plans and geographical charts, codices, and rare books, objects of gold and silver, porcelain, ivory, tortoise-shell, and lace, and, in general association articles having historic or artistic value.
- c) Of the period of emancipation and the republic: objects included in the above paragraph which belong to this period.
- d) Of all periods: 1) Official and institutional libraries, private libraries valuable as a whole, national archives and collections of manuscripts, both official and private, having a high historic significance; 2) as natural movable wealth, zoological specimens of beautiful and rare species threatened with extermination or natural extinction and whose preservation may be necessary to the study of the fauna.

ARTICLE 2. - In order that these movable monuments may be imported into any of the signatory countries, custom houses shall require from the importer the official documents authorizing exportation from the country of origin, when his country is a party to this treaty.

ARTICLE 3. - The countries of origin shall so arrange that an obligatory permit will be necessary for the exportation of any movable monument, which permit shall be granted only in case other identical specimens or those having a value similar to the one to be exported are still in the country.

ARTICLE 4. The signatory countries understand that those who have objects declared to be movable monuments, can only enjoy the usufruct, which is transferable only within the same country, and they undertake to legislate to that effect.

ARTICLE 5. - The custom houses of the country into which the importation of movable monuments from a signatory country is attempted without the necessary authorization shall confiscate them and return them to the Government of the country of origin for the appropriate penalty for illegal exportation.

ARTICLE 6. - When any Signatory Government receives knowledge of an illicit exportation from its own country subsequent to the present Treaty, it may address itself to the Government of the country to which the monument has been taken in order that the latter may proceed to return it to the applicant.

ARTICLE 7. - The Signatory Governments shall instruct their respective diplomatic representatives to the effect that, in case they acquire, by donation or purchase, any movable monument, they shall make the fact known to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the country in which they reside to the end that the latter may determine whether or not it is exportable.

ARTICLE 8. - The Signatory Governments declare that movable monuments may not be treated as spoils of war.

ARTICLE 9. - This Treaty does not annul or modify any treaty, convention or agreement which may exist between signatory governments or between them and other States not signatories.

ARTICLE 10. - The original of the present Convention, in Spanish, Portuguese, English, and French, under the present date shall be deposited in the Pan American Union and opened to the signature of any of the States members of the Pan American Union.

ARTICLE 11.- The instruments of ratification of this Convention shall be sent for deposit to the Pan American Union, which shall notify the other signatories of the deposit.

ARTICLE 12.- The Convention shall go into effect between the States which have ratified it from the date of the deposit of the instruments of ratification.

ARTICLE 13.- The present Convention shall remain in force indefinitely, but any of the contracting parties may denounce it and the denunciation shall end its obligations under the Convention after three months from the date that the Pan American Union has been notified of the denunciation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned plenipotentiaries, after having deposited their full powers found to be in due and proper form, sign this treaty on behalf of their respective governments, and affix thereto their seals, on the dates appearing opposite their signatures.

COSTA RICA Y NICARAGUA

Suscrito en la Unión Panamericana, Washington, D. C. el 21 de febrero de 1949

Los Gobiernos de las Repúblicas de Costa Rica y Nicaragua, después de haber tomado las medidas indispensables para dar fiel y cabal cumplimiento a todas y cada una de las disposiciones contenidas en la Resolución del Organo Provisional de Consulta aprobada el 24 de diciembre de 1948, cuyo texto de resolución aparece como anexo del presente Pacto de Amistad y que los Gobiernos que lo suscriben acogen en todas sus partes, reiterando su inquebrantable determinación de continuar tomando todas las medidas necesarias en forma irrestricta para dar cabal y fiel cumplimiento a todas y cada una de las disposiciones y recomendaciones contenidas en la resolución citada; deseando poner fin a la situación creada entre los dos Estados, a la vez que reafirmar solemnemente su voluntad de mantener entre ellos la más estrecha amistad y de fortalecer los vínculos fraternales que han caracterizado históricamente sus relaciones; y teniendo además en consideración el ofrecimiento que les hizo el Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, actuando como Organo Provisional de Consulta, de sus gestiones para lograr este propósito, han resuelto celebrar el presente Pacto de Amistad en presencia del Presidente y de los otros Miembros del Honorable Consejo. Para este fin, el Excelentísimo señor Presidente del Gobierno de Costa Rica, Don José Figueres, y el Excelentísimo señor Presidente de Nicaragua, Dr. Víctor M. Román y Reyes, han tenido a bien designar los siguientes Plenipotenciarios:

Por la República de Costa Rica: El Excelentísimo Señor Embajador Don Mario A. Esquivel, Representante de Costa Rica en el Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos;

Por la República de Nicaragua: El Excelentísimo Señor Embajador Dr. Guillermo Sevilla Sacasa, Representante de Nicaragua en el Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos;

Quienes, después de exhibidos los respectivos Plenos Poderes, hallados en buena y debida forma, acuerdan suscribir el presente Pacto.

I

Los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y Nicaragua coinciden en afirmar que los hechos que fueron puestos en conocimiento del Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, constituido en Organo Provisional de Consulta, no deberán quebrantar la fraternal amistad de los dos pueblos, demostrada en su historia común y basada en la solidaridad que vincula a las naciones del Hemisferio.

* Costa Rica depositó su instrumento de ratificación el 20 de junio de 1949 y Nicaragua el 15 de julio de 1949.

II

Los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y Nicaragua se comprometen a prevenir en lo futuro la repetición de hechos de esa naturaleza, mediante la constante aplicación por los dos Gobiernos de medidas efectivas para resguardo de los principios de no intervención y de solidaridad continental, así como para el fiel cumplimiento de los tratados, convenciones y demás instrumentos interamericanos, destinados a asegurar la paz y la buena vecindad.

III

Los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y Nicaragua reconocen la obligación que existe para cada uno de ellos, de acuerdo con el Tratado Interamericano de Asistencia Recíproca de Río de Janeiro y con el Artículo 20 de la Carta de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, de someter las controversias que entre ellos surjan a los métodos de solución pacífica de los conflictos internacionales.

Para cumplir este elevado propósito, ambos Gobiernos convienen en aplicar el Tratado Americano de Soluciones Pacíficas, conocido con el nombre de Pacto de Bogotá, al que dan plena validez, para las controversias entre ellos, aún antes de que dicho Tratado sea formalmente ratificado y de que llegue, en consecuencia, a entrar en pleno vigor entre todas las Repúblicas Americanas.

IV

Los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y Nicaragua convienen asimismo en llegar a un acuerdo entre ellos sobre la mejor manera de llevar a la práctica, en los casos contemplados por la Convención sobre Derechos y Deberes de los Estados en caso de Luchas Civiles, las disposiciones de esa Convención para que ella pueda ser aplicada inmediatamente que surja una situación de este género en la forma prevista por el acuerdo, principalmente respecto a las medidas de control y vigilancia fronteriza, así como cualquier otra medida tendiente a evitar la organización o existencia de cualquier movimiento revolucionario contra el Gobierno de cualquiera de las dos Partes en el territorio de la otra.

V

Los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y Nicaragua reconocen y aplauden la actuación del Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos constituido en Órgano Provisional de Consulta, que ha culminado con el presente Pacto que reafirma las fraternales relaciones entre Costa Rica y Nicaragua.

VI

El Presente Pacto será ratificado y entrará en vigor cuando las ratificaciones sean depositadas en la Unión Panamericana, la cual comunicará cada depósito al otro Estado Signatario. Dicha notificación se considerará como canje de ratificaciones.

EN FE DE LO CUAL, los Plenipotenciarios arriba mencionados firman y sellan el presente Pacto en la Unión Panamericana, en presencia del Presidente y de los otros Miembros del Honorable Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, en la Ciudad de Washington, D. ANEXO
RESOLUCION DEL CONSEJO
DE LA ORGANIZACION DE LOS ESTADOS AMERICANOS, ACTUANDO COMO ORGANO PROVISIONAL DE CONSULTA, APROBADA EN LA SESION DEL 24 DE DICIEMBRE DE 1948.

El Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, actuando como Organo Provisional de Consulta, después de haber examinado cuidadosamente el detallado informe de la Comisión que estuvo en Costa Rica y en Nicaragua con el fin de investigar los hechos y antecedentes de la situación creada entre esas Repúblicas hermanas,

RESUELVE:

I. Solicitar de los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y Nicaragua que, en cumplimiento del Tratado Interamericano de Asistencia Recíproca, le dén plenas garantías al Organo Provisional de Consulta de que se abstendrán inmediatamente de todo género de actos hostiles entre ellos.

II. Manifestar respetuosamente al Gobierno de Nicaragua que, a la luz de los datos recogidos por el Comité de Información especialmente designado al efecto, ese Gobierno pudo y debió haber tomado oportunamente las medidas adecuadas con el objeto de impedir: a) el desarrollo, en territorio nicaragüense, de actividades destinadas a derrocar el actual régimen de Costa Rica; y b) la salida del territorio nicaragüense de elementos revolucionarios que cruzaron la frontera y se encuentran hoy prisioneros o luchando contra el Gobierno de Costa Rica.

III. Manifestar respetuosamente al Gobierno de Costa Rica que puede y debe tomar las medidas adecuadas para que no existan en su territorio grupos de nacionales o extranjeros militarmente organizados, con el deliberado propósito de conspirar contra la seguridad de Nicaragua y de otras Repúblicas hermanas y de prepararse a luchar contra sus Gobiernos.

IV. Solicitar muy atentamente a ambos Gobiernos que por todos los medios a su alcance, observen lealmente los principios y normas de no intervención y solidaridad contenidos en los diversos instrumentos interamericanos suscritos por ellos.

V. Continuar en consulta hasta tanto se reciban de los Gobiernos de Costa Rica y de Nicaragua, las claras seguridades de que, como ciertamente están resueltos a hacerlo, se ceñirán estrictamente a tan elevados principios y normas que constituyen la base jurídica de la convivencia americana.

VI. Recomendar a todos los Gobiernos de América que colaboren activamente al mejor cumplimiento de los principios en que se inspira esta Resolución.

VII. Informar a todos los Estados Miembros de la Organización de los pasos tomados en este caso, para su superior conocimiento.

ACUERDO ENTRE LOS GOBIERNOS
DE LAS REPUBLICAS DE COSTA RICA Y NICARAGUA EN
CUMPLIMIENTO DEL ARTICULO IV DEL PACTO DE AMISTAD, SUSCRITO EL 21 DE FEBRERO DE 1949

Suscrito en la Unión Panamericana, Washington, D. C. el 9 de enero de 1956

Los Gobiernos de las Repúblicas de Costa Rica y Nicaragua, reafirmando su deseo de mantener entre ellos la más estrecha amistad como corresponde a dos Pueblos hermanos y vecinos, y de evitar en lo futuro toda diferencia que interfiera con sus fraternales relaciones; deseando dar cumplimiento a lo estipulado en el Artículo IV del Pacto de Amistad de 21 de Febrero de 1949, sobre la mejor manera de llevar a la práctica por medio de un Acuerdo Bilateral las disposiciones de la Convención sobre Deberes y Derechos de los Estados en caso de Luchas Civiles; reconociendo la eficaz labor pacificadora del Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos actuando provisionalmente como Órgano de Consulta, que en su Resolución II de 24 de Febrero de 1955 hace un llamamiento a los dos Gobiernos para la suscripción del referido Acuerdo, han resuelto celebrar éste en la presencia del Presidente y los otros Miembros del Honorable Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos. Para este fin, el Excelentísimo Señor Presidente de Costa Rica, Don José Figueres, y el Excelentísimo Señor Presidente de Nicaragua, General Anastasio Somoza, han tenido a bien designar los siguientes Plenipotenciarios:

Por la República de Costa Rica: El Excelentísimo Señor Embajador Licenciado Fernando Fournier, Representante de Costa Rica en el Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos;

Por la República de Nicaragua: El Excelentísimo Señor Embajador Doctor Guillermo Sevilla Sacasa, Representante de Nicaragua en el Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos;

Quienes, después de exhibidos los respectivos Plenos Poderes, hallados en buena y debida forma, convienen en suscribir el presente ACUERDO:

I

Ambas Partes, dentro del espíritu que debe animar a los integrantes de la familia centroamericana de naciones, colaborarán al máximo de sus posibilidades para llevar a cabo aquellas empresas y realizaciones que requieran el esfuerzo común de ambos Estados y sean de beneficio mutuo y en especial para facilitar y expeditar el tránsito en la Carretera Interamericana, así como en el Río San Juan, dentro de los términos del Tratado de 15 de Abril de 1858 y su interpretación arbitral de 22 de Marzo de 1888, y facilitar también los servicios de transporte que puedan efectuar al territorio de una Parte las empresas que ostentan la nacionalidad de la otra.

* Costa Rica depositó su instrumento de ratificación el 4 de octubre de 1957 y Nicaragua el 25 de mayo de 1960.

II

Ambas Partes organizarán, dentro de sus posibilidades y con el mayor esfuerzo, la vigilancia de su frontera común como medio de evitar que del territorio de una de las Partes puedan introducirse ilegalmente al de la otra, ya sea armas o grupos armados. Las autoridades de ambos Gobiernos, y en especial las fronterizas, se intercambiarán en la forma más amplia posible cualquier información que llegue a su conocimiento y que permita evitar tales hechos.

Cada Parte se compromete a tomar las medidas necesarias para evitar que en su territorio se promuevan o lleven a cabo movimientos revolucionarios contra la otra Parte.

Cada Parte se compromete a tomar toda clase de medidas para evitar que cualquier persona, nacional o extranjera, desde algún lugar bajo su jurisdicción, participe o ayude en cualquier empresa subversiva, actos terroristas o atentados contra el Jefe de Estado de la otra Parte, los otros miembros de los Supremos Poderes, las altas autoridades civiles o militares, candidatos a esas posiciones y sus familiares inmediatos, existan o no relaciones entre los dos Gobiernos.

La contribución, suministro o provisión de armas, material de guerra o equipo, el entrenamiento, enlistamiento, organización o transporte de personas, o la obtención o suministro de dinero con los fines antes indicados, además de cualesquier otros hechos similares, serán considerados como participación para los efectos del Artículo anterior.

Ambas Partes convienen en aplicar, en relación con los asilados, los Artículos I, II, III, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX y X de la Convención sobre Asilo Territorial, suscrita en la Décima Conferencia Interamericana, que a la letra dicen:

“Artículo I. Todo Estado tiene derecho, en ejercicio de su soberanía, a admitir dentro de su territorio a las personas que juzgue conveniente, sin que por el ejercicio de este derecho ningún otro Estado pueda hacer reclamo alguno.”

“Artículo II. El respeto que según el Derecho Internacional se debe a la jurisdicción de cada Estado sobre los habitantes de su territorio se debe igualmente, sin ninguna restricción, a la que tiene sobre las personas que ingresan con procedencia de un Estado en donde sean perseguidas por sus creencias, opiniones o filiación política o por actos que puedan ser considerados como delitos políticos.

Cualquier violación de soberanía consistente en actos de un gobierno o de sus agentes contra la vida o la seguridad de una persona, ejecutados en el territorio de otro Estado, no puede considerarse atenuada por el hecho de que la persecución haya comenzado fuera de sus fronteras u obedezca a móviles políticos o a razones de Estado.”

“Artículo III. Ningún Estado está obligado a entregar a otro Estado o a expulsar de su territorio a personas perseguidas por motivos o delitos políticos.”

"Artículo V. El hecho de que el ingreso de una persona a la jurisdicción territorial de un Estado se haya realizado subrepticiamente o irregularmente no afecta las estipulaciones de esta Convención."

"Artículo VI. Sin perjuicio de lo dispuesto en los Artículos siguientes, ningún Estado está obligado a establecer en su legislación o en sus disposiciones o actos administrativos aplicables a extranjeros distinción alguna motivada por el solo hecho de que se trate de asilados o refugiados políticos."

"Artículo VII. La libertad de expresión del pensamiento que el derecho interno reconoce a todos los habitantes de un Estado no puede ser motivo de reclamación por otro Estado basándose en conceptos que contra éste o su gobierno expresen públicamente los asilados o refugiados, salvo el caso de que esos conceptos constituyan propaganda sistemática por medio de la cual se incite al empleo de la fuerza o de la violencia contra el gobierno del Estado reclamante."

"Artículo VIII. Ningún Estado tiene el derecho de pedir a otro Estado que coarte a los asilados o refugiados políticos la libertad de reunión o asociación que la legislación interna de éste reconoce a todos los extranjeros dentro de su territorio, a menos que tales reuniones o asociaciones tengan por objeto promover el empleo de la fuerza o la violencia contra el gobierno del Estado solicitante."

"Artículo IX. A requerimiento del Estado interesado, el que ha concedido el refugio o asilo procederá a la vigilancia o a la internación, hasta una distancia prudencial de sus fronteras, de aquellos refugiados o asilados políticos que fueren notoriamente dirigentes de un movimiento subversivo, así como de aquéllos de quienes haya pruebas de que se disponen a incorporarse a él.

La determinación de la distancia prudencial de las fronteras para los efectos de la internación dependerá del criterio de las autoridades del Estado requerido.

Los gastos de toda índole que demande la internación de asilados o refugiados políticos serán por cuenta del Estado que la solicite.

"Artículo X. Los internados políticos, a que se refiere el Artículo anterior, darán aviso al gobierno del Estado en que se encuentran siempre que resuelvan salir del territorio. La salida les será concedida, bajo la condición de que no se dirigirán al país de su procedencia, y dando aviso al gobierno interesado."

VI

No será procedente la extradición cuando el delito fuere político o cuando, aunque común, fuere conexo con el político, según la calificación del Estado requerido, salvo que consistiere en homicidio u otro atentado personal contra el Jefe del Estado o cualquier otro de los miembros de los Poderes Públicos.

VII

Cada Parte se compromete a no designar a personas asiladas en su territorio para ocupar puestos de carácter político o militar.

VIII

Cada Parte se compromete a no otorgar en forma alguna ayuda de ningún género a quienquiera que intente de cualquier manera alterar el orden público en el territorio de la otra Parte.

IX

Cada Parte se compromete a prohibir que dentro de su jurisdicción se efectúe, por personas o entidades no oficiales, cualquier tráfico o comercio de armas, equipo o municiones de guerra.

X

Ambas Partes convienen en que cualquier material de los citados en el Artículo anterior que fuere localizado en la jurisdicción de una de las Partes, con violación de lo dispuesto en dicho Artículo, deberá ser de inmediato decomisado por esa Parte e impedida su exportación.

XI

Ambas Partes concuerdan en que toda referencia que se haga en el presente Acuerdo o en la Convención Interamericana sobre Deberes y Derechos de los Estados en Caso de Luchas Civiles, a "armas o material de guerra", incluye a aviones militares, y también a los de carácter civil cuando existan razones para creer que van ser usados con el fin de iniciar o ayudar a una lucha civil en territorio de una de las Partes. Asimismo concuerdan en que las referencias hechas en la Convención Interamericana sobre Deberes y Derechos de los Estados en Caso de Luchas Civiles, a la expresión "buques" o "embarcación", incluye también a las naves aéreas de cualquier tipo, ya sean militares o civiles.

XII

Ambas Partes convienen en designar, dentro de treinta días a partir de la fecha en que entre en vigor el presente Acuerdo, dos Comités Fronterizos, uno con jurisdicción desde la vaguada del Río Pizote—que desagua en el Lago de Nicaragua y que sirve de límite a los Departamentos de Rivas y Río San Juan, fronterizos con Costa Rica—hasta el mar Caribe, y el otro desde la vaguada de ese mismo Río hasta el Océano Pacífico. Estos Comités estarán integrados por cuatro oficiales de las fuerzas armadas de las Partes, y designados en número de dos por cada una de ellas. Las Partes procurarán reponer cualquier vacante en los Comités dentro de los treinta días siguientes a la fecha en que se produzca. Los miembros de los Comités residirán, mientras duren sus funciones, en la zona bajo su jurisdicción.

XIII

Los Comités Fronterizos tendrán como función coordinar la vigilancia conjunta de la frontera común e investigar cualquier hecho que pueda perturbar la armonía que debe existir entre las autoridades y habitantes de ambas Partes, procurando evitar que tales hechos ocurran y tratando de solucionarlos amistosamente cuando se presenten, sin perjuicio de que puedan ser tratados por negociación directa entre los Gobiernos de las Partes o ser referidos a la Comisión de Investigación y Conciliación que ambos Gobiernos han constituido de conformidad con el Tratado Americano de Soluciones Pacíficas (Pacto de Bogotá).

XIV

El presente Acuerdo será depositado en la Unión Panamericana, la cual enviará copia certificada auténtica a los Gobiernos Signatarios, a los demás

Gobiernos de los Estados Miembros de la Organización de los Estados Americanos y al Secretario General de las Naciones Unidas.

XV

El presente Acuerdo será ratificado y entrará en vigor cuando las ratificaciones sean depositadas en la Unión Panamericana, la cual comunicará cada depósito al otro Gobierno Signatario. Dicha notificación se considerará como canje de ratificaciones.

EN FE DE LO CUAL, los Plenipotenciarios arriba mencionados firman y sellan el presente Acuerdo en la Unión Panamericana, en presencia del Presidente y de los otros Miembros del Honorable Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, en la ciudad de Washington, D.C., el día 9 de Enero de 1956.

Suscrito en la Unión Panamericana, Washington, D.C. el 21 de julio de 1957

El día 5 de julio de 1957 el Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos actuando provisionalmente como Órgano de Consulta aprobó una Resolución que registra, con beneplácito, la voluntaria y simultánea aceptación, por parte de los Gobiernos de Honduras y de Nicaragua, del procedimiento de solución pacífica que tuvieron a bien suscribir y cuyas disposiciones figuran en la citada Resolución.

De conformidad con esa misma Resolución, las Partes, habiéndose obligado a aplicar el Tratado Americano de Soluciones Pacíficas -"Pacto de Bogotá"- y a utilizar procedimientos consignados en dicho Pacto, convienen en seguir las siguientes normas de procedimiento:

del señor Canciller de Honduras sobre la posición de su Gobierno al acudir a la Corte Internacional de Justicia

Honduras lleva a la Corte Internacional de Justicia su demanda contra Nicaragua para que el Laudo de S.M. el Rey de España emitido el 23 de diciembre de 1906 sea ejecutado, fundándose en la vigencia e intangibilidad del Laudo. Honduras ha venido sosteniendo y sostiene que el incumplimiento de dicho fallo arbitral por parte de Nicaragua constituye, dentro del Artículo 36 del Estatuto de la Corte Internacional de Justicia y de las normas del Derecho Internacional, la violación de una obligación internacional.

La anterior referencia a la posición de Honduras en esta instancia, tiene sólo un carácter general y no constituye en modo alguno una definición ni limitación de la materia que será sometida a la Corte, ni tampoco una fórmula que restrinja en modo alguno el ejercicio del derecho que Honduras sostendrá en el juicio ante la Corte.

DECLARACION

del señor Canciller de Nicaragua sobre la posición de su Gobierno al comparecer ante la Corte Internacional de Justicia

Nicaragua, al comparecer ante la Corte Internacional de Justicia contestará la demanda de Honduras invocando las razones, acciones y hechos y oponiendo las excepciones que tenga a bien para impugnar la validez del Laudo del 23 de diciembre de 1906 y su fuerza obligatoria; así como todos aquellos derechos que a su interés convenga. Nicaragua ha sostenido y sostiene que sus límites con Honduras siguen en la misma situación jurídica que antes de dictarse el referido Laudo.

La anterior referencia a la posición de Nicaragua en esta instancia, tiene sólo un carácter general y no constituye en modo alguno una definición ni limitación de la materia que será sometida a la Corte ni tampoco una fórmula que restrinja en modo alguno el ejercicio del derecho que Nicaragua sostendrá ante la Corte.

ACUERDO ENTRE LOS GOBIERNOS DE LAS REPUBLICAS DE HONDURAS Y NICARAGUA SOBRE ASILO TERRITORIAL *

Suscrito en la Unión Panamericana, Washington, D.C. el 26 de febrero de 1959

Los Gobiernos de las Repúblicas de Honduras y Nicaragua, reafirmando su deseo de mantener entre ellos relaciones pacíficas como corresponde a dos pueblos hermanos y vecinos, y de evitar en el presente y en el futuro toda diferencia que interfiera en sus fraternales vinculaciones; deseando prevenir en forma efectiva que dentro de sus respectivos territorios se organicen movimientos subversivos por parte de nacionales del otro país, sean emigrados políticos o no, residentes permanentes o temporales, transeúntes o por personas de terceras nacionalidades; reconociendo la eficaz labor pacificadora del Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, han resuelto celebrar el presente Acuerdo que estipula las medidas que ambos Gobiernos habrán de poner en práctica para impedir la organización de cualquier movimiento revolucionario contra el Gobierno de cualquiera de las dos Partes en el territorio de la otra, complementando así, en la medida y forma que las necesidades del caso particular lo requieran, la Convención sobre Deberes y Derechos de los Estados en Caso de Luchas Civiles, principalmente respecto a las medidas de control y vigilancia fronteriza. Para este fin, el Excelentísimo señor Presidente de la República de Honduras, Doctor Ramón Villeda Morales, y el Excelentísimo señor Presidente de la República de Nicaragua, Ingeniero Luis A. Somoza D., han tenido a bien designar los siguientes Plenipotenciarios:

Quienes, después de exhibidos los respectivos Plenos Poderes, hallados en buena y debida forma, suscriben dicho Acuerdo en los siguientes términos:

Artículo I

Artículo II

Cada una de las Partes se compromete a tomar las medidas necesarias para evitar que en su territorio se promuevan o lleven a cabo movimientos revolucionarios contra la otra Parte.

* Nicaragua depositó su instrumento de ratificación el 28 de mayo de 1959.

Cada una de las Partes se compromete a tomar toda clase de medidas para evitar que cualquier persona, nacional o extranjera, desde algún lugar bajo su jurisdicción, participe o ayude en cualquier empresa subversiva contra la otra Parte.

Artículo III

La contribución, suministro o provisión de armas, material de guerra o equipo, la instalación y funcionamiento de radiodifusoras o cualquier otro medio de difusión o propaganda que inciten a la rebelión o actos subversivos, el entrenamiento, enlistamiento, organización o transporte de personas o la obtención o suministro de dinero con los fines antes indicados, además de cualesquiera otros hechos similares, serán considerados como participación para los efectos del Artículo anterior.

Artículo IV

Cada una de las Partes se compromete a expulsar de su territorio a los asilados o refugiados políticos y a cualquier extranjero cuya expulsión solicite la otra Parte, por violar las normas internacionales del derecho de asilo o infringir las disposiciones de este Acuerdo.

Artículo V

A requerimiento de la Parte interesada, la que ha concedido el refugio o asilo procederá a la vigilancia o a la internación en la cabecera departamental más distante de la frontera, de aquellos refugiados o asilados políticos que fueren notoriamente dirigentes de un movimiento subversivo, así como de aquellos extranjeros que participen en la organización de dicho movimiento, o que se disponen a incorporarse a él.

Aquellos extranjeros que habiendo sido internados por sus actividades subversivas visitaren o se transladaren a otros lugares más cercanos de la frontera, podrán ser expulsados a solicitud de la Parte afectada.

Artículo VI

Cada una de las Partes se compromete a no designar o nombrar a personas asiladas o refugiadas en su territorio para ocupar puestos o desempeñar funciones de carácter político o militar.

Artículo VII

Cada una de las Partes se compromete a no otorgar en forma alguna ayuda de ningún género a quienquiera que intente de cualquier manera alterar el orden público en el territorio de la otra Parte.

Para los efectos de este Artículo se entenderá como ayuda de la Parte la que preste cualquier funcionario de su Gobierno, cuando una vez comprobada la complicidad de tal funcionario, no se le impusieren a éste las sanciones del caso.

Artículo VIII

Asimismo convienen en que las referencias hechas en la Convención Interamericana sobre Deberes y Derechos de los Estados en Caso de Luchas Civiles, a la expresión "buques" o "embarcación", incluye también a las naves aéreas de cualquier tipo, ya sean militares o civiles.

Artículo XII

Cuando se usa el término "extranjeros" en este Acuerdo, se refiere a nacionales de la otra Parte, sean emigrados políticos o no, residentes permanentes o temporales, transeúntes, y a personas de terceras nacionalidades.

Artículo XIII

De toda comunicación que se cruzare entre las Partes en relación a la ejecución de este Acuerdo se enviará copia a la Unión Panamericana.

Artículo XIV

Ambas Partes expresamente declaran que su propósito al firmar este Acuerdo no ha sido otro - como se deja dicho en el Preámbulo - que el de evitar en el presente y en el futuro toda diferencia que interfiera en sus fraternales vinculaciones y que tenga como causa las actividades clandestinas que realicen nacionales del otro país, sean emigrados políticos o no, residentes permanentes o temporales, transeúntes o personas de terceras nacionalidades. En consecuencia, ambas Partes convienen en que siendo estos los fines exclusivos del Acuerdo, no podrá invocarse su existencia como prueba o evidencia en forma alguna, ni podrá aplicarse ni utilizarse nada de su contenido para otros fines que no sean los indicados.

Artículo XV

El presente Acuerdo será depositado en la Unión Panamericana, la cual enviará copia certificada auténtica a los Gobiernos signatarios, a los demás Gobiernos de los Estados Miembros de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, al Secretario General de las Naciones Unidas y al Secretario General de la Organización de los Estados Centroamericanos.

Artículo XVI

El presente Acuerdo será ratificado y entrará en vigor cuando las ratificaciones sean depositadas en la Unión Panamericana.

EN FE DE LO CUAL los Plenipotenciarios arriba mencionados firman el presente Acuerdo en la Unión Panamericana, en presencia del Presidente y miembros del Consejo de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, del Presidente y miembros de la Comisión Interamericana de Paz y del Secretario General de la Organización de los Estados Americanos, en la Ciudad de Washington, D.C., Estados Unidos de América, a los veintiseis días del mes de febrero de mil novecientos cincuenta y nueve.

INTER-AMERICAN CONVENTION ON FACILITATION OF INTERNATIONAL WATERBORNE TRANSPORTATION
(CONVENTION OF MAR DEL PLATA)

The Contracting States, inspired by the Charter of Punta del Este and by the Declaration of San José on the Principles on the Development, Administration and Operation of Ports in the Americas, and with a view to facilitating international waterborne transportation in the Western Hemisphere by reducing to a minimum the formalities, documentary requirements and procedures for the entry and clearance of vessels and the treatment of their passengers, crews, cargo and baggage, have agreed as follows:

Article 1

Each Contracting State agrees to adopt all practicable measures, through the issuance of special regulations or otherwise, to facilitate and expedite waterborne transportation between the territories of the Contracting States, and to prevent unnecessary delays to vessels, passengers, crews, cargo and baggage in the administration of the laws relating to immigration, public health, customs, and other provisions relative to arrivals and departures of vessels.

Article 2

Each Contracting State undertakes, so far as it may find practicable, to establish appropriate procedures and legal provisions on immigration, public health, customs and other matters relative to arrivals and departures of vessels, in accordance with the standards and recommended practices which may be established from time to time, pursuant to this Convention. Nothing in this Convention shall be construed as preventing the establishment of customs-free ports or free zones.

Article 3

Each Contracting State undertakes to collaborate in securing the highest practicable degree of uniformity in appropriate procedures and legal provisions in relation to the entry and clearance of vessels and the treatment of passengers, crews, cargo and baggage in all matters in which such uniformity will facilitate and improve international waterborne transportation.

Article 4

(a) To these ends, the Inter-American Port and Harbor Conference of the Organization of American States shall, from time to time, when necessary, adopt and amend inter-American standards and recommended practices dealing with all matters relating to formalities, requirements and procedures relevant to the efficient and economic entry and clearance of vessels, and the expeditious and appropriate treatment of their passengers, crews, cargo and baggage.

(b) A Group of Experts from the governments of the Contracting States, established within the Permanent Technical Committee on Ports, attached to the Inter-American Economic and Social Council, shall, from time to time, when necessary, study and propose standards and recommended practices through the Committee to the Inter-American Port and Harbor Conference.

(a) The adoption by the Inter-American Port and Harbor Conference of the standards and recommended practices and amendments thereto, as provided in paragraph (a) of Article 4 hereof shall require the affirmative vote of two thirds of the accredited delegations of the Contracting States present at the Conference.

(b) The standards and recommended practices adopted, and any amendment thereto, shall enter into force three months after submission to the Contracting States, unless the date of the entry into force is extended by the Conference or unless, in the meantime, a majority of the Contracting States notify their disapproval to the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States.

(c) The standards and recommended practices, and amendments thereto, shall constitute an Annex to the present Convention upon their entry into force, subject to the provisions of Article 6.

(d) The General Secretariat shall notify each of the Contracting States of the date of entry into force of the standards and recommended practices and of any amendment thereto.

Article 6

(a) Any State which finds it impracticable to comply with any inter-American standard or to bring its own regulations or practices into full accord with any such standard after amendment of the latter, or which deems it necessary to adopt regulations or practices differing from those established by an inter-American standard, shall give immediate notification to the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States of the differences between its own regulations or practices and those established by the inter-American standard.

(b) In the case of amendments to inter-American standards, any Contracting State which does not make the appropriate amendments to its own regulations or practices shall give notice to the General Secretariat within sixty days of the adoption of the amendment to the inter-American standard, or indicate the action which it proposes to take.

(c) In any such case, the General Secretariat shall notify all other States of the difference which exists between one or more features of an inter-American standard and the corresponding national practice of that State.

Article 7

The present Convention shall be open for signature or adherence by the member states of the Organization of American States or any other state to which an invitation to sign or adhere has been transmitted at the direction of the Council of the Organization of American States.

The instruments of ratification and instruments of adherence shall be deposited with the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States, which shall notify each of the governments of the signatory States and each of the governments of the adhering States of the said deposit.

Article 9

The present Convention shall come into force on the thirtieth day following the date of deposit of the eleventh instrument of ratification or adherence with the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States. For each State ratifying or adhering to the Convention after the deposit of the eleventh instrument of ratification or adherence, the Convention shall enter into force on the thirtieth day after deposit by such State of its instrument of ratification or adherence.

Article 10

The task of providing continuity in the implementation of this Convention, including periodic review of the standards and recommended practices, shall be entrusted to the Permanent Technical Committee on Ports. On its own initiative, or at the suggestion of a Contracting State, the Committee shall direct the Group of Experts to which reference is made in paragraph (b) of Article 4 hereof to study the desirability and feasibility of any proposed amendment to the Annex referred to in paragraph (c) of Article 5 and make recommendations thereon. Should the consideration and study of any amendments to this Convention be of interest to the Inter-American Travel Congresses or the Pan American Highway Congresses, they shall be consulted.

Article 11

The adoption of any amendment to this Convention shall require the affirmative vote in an Inter-American Port and Harbor Conference of two thirds of the accredited delegations of the Contracting States present and shall then come into force in respect of States which have ratified such amendment in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures 30 days after there has been deposited in the General Secretariat of the Organization of American States the number of ratifications specified for this purpose by the Conference.

Cada Estado Contratante concorda em adotar, mediante a promulgação de regulamentos especiais ou por outros meios, todas as medidas para facilitar e acelerar os serviços de transporte aquático entre os territórios dos Estados Contratantes, e evitar todo atraso desnecessário de navios, de seus passageiros, tripulação, carga e bagagem, na aplicação das leis de imigração, saúde, alfândega e outras disposições concernentes à entrada e saída de navios.

Artigo 2

Cada Estado Contratante se compromete a adotar, na medida do possível, os adequados procedimentos e disposições legais sobre imigração, saúde, alfândega e demais matérias relativas à entrada e saída de navios, de acordo com as normas que se estabeleçam ou práticas que se recomendem, de tempos em tempos, nos termos do presente Convênio. Nenhum dispositivo deste Convênio será interpretado no sentido de impedir o estabelecimento de portos livres ou zonas francas.

Artigo 3

Cada Estado Contratante se compromete a colaborar a fim de conseguir o maior grau possível de uniformidade nos procedimentos e disposições legais relativos à entrada e saída de navios, bem como no tratamento de seus passageiros, tripulação, carga e bagagem, em tudo quanto essa uniformidade facilite e melhore o transporte aquático internacional.

a. Para esse fim, a Conferência Portuária Interamericana da Organização dos Estados Americanos adotará e modificará, de tempos em tempos, quando for necessário, as normas interamericanas e as práticas recomendadas com respeito às formalidades, requisitos e trâmites pertinentes para uma eficaz e econômica entrada e saída de navios, e para o adequado e expeditivo tratamento de seus passageiros, tripulação, carga e bagagem.

b. Um grupo de técnicos dos Governos dos Estados Contratantes, criado na Comissão Técnica Permanente de Portos articulada ao Conselho Interamericano Econômico e Social, estudará e proporá à consideração da Conferência Portuária Interamericana, de tempos em tempos, quando for necessário e por intermédio da Comissão, as normas e práticas recomendadas.

a. Para a adoção, pela Conferência Portuária Interamericana, das normas e das práticas recomendadas, ou emendas às mesmas, a que se refere o parágrafo (a) do Artigo 4, exigir-se-á o voto de dois terços das Delegações acreditadas dos Estados Contratantes que assistam à Conferência.

b. As normas e as práticas recomendadas, que hajam sido aprovadas, e toda emenda às mesmas, entrarão em vigor três meses depois de ser transmitidas aos Estados Contratantes, salvo se esse período for prorrogado pela Conferência ou se, nesse interim, a maioria dos Estados Contratantes der conhecimento de seu desacordo à Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos.

c. As normas e práticas recomendadas e as emendas às mesmas constituirão um Anexo do presente Convênio, após sua entrada em vigor, sujeitas ao disposto no Artigo 6.

d. A Secretaria Geral notificará os Estados Contratantes da data de entrada em vigor das normas e das práticas recomendadas e das emendas às mesmas.

a. Qualquer Estado Contratante que considere impossível cumprir uma norma interamericana, ou ajustar inteiramente seus regulamentos ou práticas a tal norma, quando esta tenha sido modificada, ou que considere necessário adotar regulamentos ou práticas que difiram dos estabelecidos por norma interamericana, notificará imediatamente a Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos as diferenças existentes entre seu próprio regulamento ou prática e o estabelecido pela norma interamericana.

b. Quando se tratar de emendas às normas interamericanas, qualquer Estado Contratante que não proceder às modificações correspondentes em seus próprios regulamentos ou práticas, disso dará ciência à Secretaria Geral dentro de sessenta dias contados da data da aprovação da emenda à norma interamericana, ou indicará as medidas que se propõe tomar.

c. Em todos os casos, a Secretaria Geral notificará os demais Estados Contratantes a respeito das diferenças existentes, em um ou mais aspectos, entre a norma interamericana e o regulamento ou prática correspondente do Estado em questão.

Artigo 7

O presente Convênio ficará aberto à assinatura ou adesão dos Estados membros da Organização dos Estados Americanos ou de qualquer outro Estado que houver sido convidado a assinar ou aderir por indicação do Conselho da Organização dos Estados Americanos.

Artigo 8

a. O instrumento original do presente Convênio, cujos textos em português, espanhol, francês e inglês são igualmente autênticos, será depositado na Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos, que enviará cópias autenticadas aos governos dos Estados signatários, para fins de ratificação.

b. Este Convênio será ratificado pelos Estados signatários de acordo com as respectivas normas constitucionais. Os instrumentos de ratificação e os de adesão serão depositados na Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos, que notificará do referido depósito os governos dos Estados signatários e os governos dos Estados aderentes.

Artigo 9

O presente Convênio entrará em vigor no trigésimo dia após a data em que fôr depositado na Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos o décimo-primeiro instrumento de ratificação ou de adesão. Em relação a cada Estado que ratificar o Convênio ou aderir ao mesmo depois do depósito do décimo-primeiro instrumento de ratificação ou de adesão, o Convênio entrará em vigor no trigésimo dia após haver o referido Estado depositado o respectivo instrumento de ratificação ou de adesão.

Artigo 10

A Comissão Técnica Permanente de Portos se encarregará de dar continuidade ao cumprimento deste Convênio, inclusive da revisão periódica das normas e das práticas recomendadas. A Comissão, por iniciativa própria ou por recomendação de um Estado Contratante, convidará o grupo de técnicos a que se refere o parágrafo (b) do Artigo 4, a estudar a conveniência e a exeqüibilidade de qualquer projeto de emenda ao Anexo mencionado no parágrafo (c) do Artigo 5, e a fazer recomendações a respeito. Se o exame e estudo de qualquer dessas emendas interessar aos Congressos Interamericanos de Turismo ou aos Congressos Pan-Americanos de Estradas de Rodagem, êstes serão consultados.

Artigo 11

A adoção de qualquer emenda ao presente Convênio exigirá o voto, na Conferência Portuária Interamericana, de dois terços das Delegações dos Estados Contratantes, acreditadas e presentes, e entrará em vigor, em relação aos Estados que a tenham ratificado de acordo com as respectivas normas constitucionais, trinta dias após ser depositado, na Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos, o número de ratificações que, para esse fim, determinar a referida Conferência.

a. O presente Convênio poderá ser denunciado por qualquer dos Estados Contratantes, em qualquer momento, depois de decorridos quatro anos contados da data em que o Convênio entrar em vigor para esse Estado.

b. A denúncia se fará mediante uma notificação, por escrito, dirigida à Secretaria Geral da Organização dos Estados Americanos, que informará os demais Estados Contratantes a respeito de qualquer denúncia que receber e da data do recebimento da mesma.

c. A denúncia entrará em vigor após o decurso de um ano ou prazo maior que se determinar na notificação, depois do seu recebimento pela Secretaria Geral da Organização.

EM TESTEMUNHO DO QUE, os Plenipotenciários abaixo-assinados, devidamente autorizados por seus respectivos governos, firmam o presente Convênio. Feito em Mar del Plata, aos sete dias do mês de junho de mil novecentos e sessenta e três.

CONVENTION INTERAMERICAINE
VISANT A FACILITER LES TRANSPORTS INTERNATIONAUX
PAR NAVIGATION MARITIME OU INTERIEURE
(CONVENTION DE MAR DEL PLATA)

Afin de faciliter les services de transport internationaux par voies maritime et fluviale dans l'Hémisphère occidental, en réduisant à un minimum les formalités, les prescriptions en matière de documents et les procédures d'entrée et de congé des bâtiments et de traitement des passagers, de l'équipage, de la cargaison et des bagages, les Etats contractants, s'inspirant de la Charte de Punta del Este et de la Déclaration de San José sur le développement, l'administration et les opérations des ports des Amériques, sont convenus de conclure la Convention ci-après:

Chaque Etat contractant s'engage à adopter, par la promulgation de règlements spéciaux ou de toute autre manière, toutes mesures tendant à faciliter et à accélérer les services de transport par eau entre les territoires des Etats contractants, ainsi qu'à éviter des retards inutiles aux navires, à leurs passagers, équipage, cargaison et bagages, spécialement en ce qui concerne l'application des lois relatives à l'immigration, à la quarantaine, aux douanes, et aux autres dispositions applicables à la réception et au congé des bâtiments.

Article 2

Chaque Etat contractant s'engage à établir, dans la mesure du possible, les règlements et dispositions légales concernant l'immigration, la santé, les douanes, et toutes autres matières relatives à la réception et au congé des navires, conformément aux normes qui pourraient être établies ou aux pratiques qui seraient recommandées, de temps à autre, en application de la présente Convention. Aucune disposition de la présente Convention ne pourra être interprétée comme empêchant la création de ports francs ou de zones franches.

Article 3

Chaque Etat contractant s'engage à prêter son concours pour atteindre le plus haut degré réalisable d'uniformité dans les procédures et dispositions légales relatives à la réception et au congé des bâtiments, ainsi qu'en ce qui concerne le traitement des passagers, de l'équipage, de la cargaison et des bagages, dans tous les domaines où une telle uniformité facilitera et améliorera le transport international par eau.

a. A cet effet, la Conférence interaméricaine des Ports de l'Organisation des Etats Américains adoptera, et les modifiera de temps à autre selon les nécessités, les normes interaméricaines et les pratiques recommandées concernant les formalités, les dispositions et les procédures nécessaires en vue d'assurer, dans des conditions efficaces et économiques, l'entrée et le congé des bâtiments, ainsi qu'un traitement rapide et convenable des passagers, de l'équipage, de la cargaison et des bagages.

b. Un groupe d'experts des Gouvernements des Etats contractants, créé au sein du Comité technique permanent des Ports rattaché au Conseil économique et social interaméricain, étudiera et proposera les normes et les pratiques recommandées par les soins du Comité, de temps à autre et selon les nécessités, à la Conférence interaméricaine des Ports.

a. L'adoption des normes et pratiques recommandées, et des amendements qui y seraient apportés par la Conférence interaméricaine des Ports, selon l'Article 4, paragraphe a., devra recueillir les suffrages des deux tiers des Délégations accréditées des Etats contractants, assistant à la Conférence.

b. Les normes et pratiques recommandées qui auraient été approuvées, et tout amendement qui y serait apporté, prendront effet trois mois après leur soumission aux Etats contractants, ou à la fin de toute période plus longue que pourrait prescrire la Conférence, à moins que, dans l'intervalle, une majorité d'Etats contractants ne fasse connaître son avis contraire au Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américaines.

c. Les normes et les pratiques recommandées, et leurs amendements, constitueront une Annexe à la présente Convention après son entrée en vigueur, et seront soumis aux dispositions de l'Article 6.

d. Le Secrétariat général notifiera à chacun des Etats contractants la date d'entrée en vigueur des normes et des pratiques recommandées, et de leurs amendements.

Article 6

a. L'Etat contractant qui juge impossible de se conformer en tous points à une norme interaméricaine, ou de mettre ses propres règlements ou pratiques en complet accord avec une telle norme lorsque celle-ci aura été modifiée, ou qui estime nécessaire d'adopter des règles ou des pratiques différant sur un point quelconque de ce qu'établit une des normes interaméricaines, notifiera immédiatement au Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américains les différences existant entre ses propres règlements ou pratiques et ce qu'établit la norme interaméricaine.

b. S'il s'agit d'amendements à des normes interaméricaines, tout Etat contractant qui n'apportera pas à ses propres règlements ou pratiques les modifications correspondantes, en avisera le Secrétariat général dans les soixante jours qui suivront l'adoption de l'amendement, ou indiquera les mesures qu'il se propose de prendre à cet égard.

c. Dans tous les cas, le Secrétariat général notifiera à tous les autres Etats les différences existant sur un ou plusieurs points, entre la norme interaméricaine et la règle ou pratique correspondante en usage dans l'Etat en question.

Article 7

La présente Convention sera ouverte à la signature ou à l'adhésion des Etats membres de l'Organisation des Etats Américains, ou de tout autre Etat qui, sur l'indication du Conseil de l'Organisation des Etats Américains, aurait été invité à la signer ou à y adhérer.

Article 8

a. L'instrument original de la présente Convention, dont les textes en langues anglaise, espagnole, française et portugaise font également foi, sera déposé auprès du Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américains, qui en transmettra des copies certifiées conformes aux gouvernements aux fins de ratification.

b. Cette Convention sera ratifiée par les Etats signataires conformément à leurs procédures constitutionnelles respectives. Les instruments de ratification et les instruments d'adhésion seront déposés auprès du Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américains, qui notifiera ce dépôt à chacun des gouvernements des Etats signataires et à chacun des gouvernements des Etats adhérents.

Article 9

La présente Convention entrera en vigueur le treizième jour après la date du dépôt du onzième instrument de ratification ou d'adhésion auprès du Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américains. Pour chaque Etat ratifiant la Convention ou y adhérant après le dépôt du onzième instrument de ratification ou d'adhésion, la Convention entrera en vigueur le treizième jour après le dépôt par ledit Etat de son instrument de ratification ou d'adhésion.

Article 10

Le Comité technique permanent des Ports se chargera d'assurer la continuité de la mise en œuvre de la présente Convention, et de procéder notamment à un examen périodique des normes et des pratiques recommandées. Sur sa propre initiative ou sur la demande d'un Etat contractant, le Comité invitera le Groupe d'Experts prévu au paragraphe b. de l'Article 4 à étudier l'opportunité et la possibilité de tout projet d'amendement à apporter à l'Annexe mentionnée au paragraphe c. de l'Article 5, et à formuler des recommandations à cet égard. Si l'incidence de l'étude de tout amendement est susceptible d'intéresser les Congrès interaméricains du Tourisme ou les Congrès panaméricains des Routes, ceux-ci seront consultés.

Article 11

Pour être adopté, tout projet d'amendement à la présente Convention doit être approuvé par les deux tiers des délégations des Etats contractants accréditées à la Conférence interaméricaine des Ports et y assistant; il entre alors en vigueur à l'égard des Etats qui l'ont ratifié conformément à leurs procédures constitutionnelles, trente jours après le dépôt auprès du Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américains, du nombre d'instruments de ratification que cette Conférence aura fixé à cet effet.

a. La présente Convention pourra être dénoncée en tout temps par un des Etats contractants, après que quatre ans se seront écoulés à partir de la date où cette Convention sera entrée en vigueur dans ce même Etat.

b. La dénonciation se fera par une notification écrite adressée au Secrétariat général de l'Organisation des Etats Américains, qui informera tous les autres Etats contractants au sujet de toute dénonciation reçue par lui et de la date de réception de celle-ci.

c. La dénonciation prendra effet après une année, ou après un délai plus long qui serait déterminé dans la notification, à dater du jour où elle aurait été reçue par le Secrétariat général de l'Organisation.

EN FOI DE QUOI les Plénipotentiaires soussignés, dûment autorisés par leurs Gouvernements respectifs, signent la présente Convention.
Fait à Mar del Plata, le sept juin neuf cent soixante-trois.

Los Gobiernos Americanos deseosos de proteger y conservar en su medio ambiente natural, ejemplares de todas las especies y géneros de su flora y su fauna indígenas, incluyendo las aves migratorias, en número suficiente y en regiones lo bastante vastas para evitar su extinción por cualquier medio al alcance del hombre; y

Deseosos de proteger y conservar los paisajes de incomparable belleza, las formaciones geológicas extraordinarias, las regiones y los objetos naturales de interés estético o valor histórico o científico, y los lugares donde existen condiciones primitivas dentro de los casos a que esta Convención se refiere; y

Deseosos de concertar una convención sobre la protección de la flora, la fauna, y las bellezas escénicas naturales dentro de los propósitos arriba enunciados, han convenido en los siguientes Artículos:

ARTICULO I

Definición de los términos y expresiones empleados en esta Convención.

1. Se entenderá por PARQUES NACIONALES:

Las regiones establecidas para la protección y conservación de las bellezas escénicas naturales y de la flora y la fauna de importancia nacional, de las que el público pueda disfrutar mejor al ser puestas bajo la vigilancia oficial.

2. Se entenderá por RESERVAS NACIONALES:

Las regiones establecidas para la conservación y utilización, bajo vigilancia oficial, de las riquezas naturales, en las cuales se dará a la flora y la fauna toda protección que sea compatible con los fines para los que son creadas estas reservas.

3. Se entenderá por MONUMENTOS NATURALES:

Las regiones, los objetos o las especies vivas de animales o plantas de interés estético o valor histórico o científico, a los cuales se les da protección absoluta. Los Monumentos Naturales se crean con el fin de conservar un objeto específico o una especie determinada de flora o fauna declarando una región, un objeto o una especie aislada, monumento natural inviolable excepto para realizar investigaciones científicas debidamente autorizadas, o inspecciones gubernamentales.

4. Se entenderá por RESERVAS DE REGIONES VIRGENES:

Una región administrada por los poderes públicos, donde existen condiciones primitivas naturales de flora, fauna, vivienda y comunicaciones, con ausencia de caminos para el tráfico de motores y vedada a toda explotación comercial.

5. Se entenderá por AVES MIGRATORIAS:

Las aves pertenecientes a determinadas especies, todos los individuos de las cuales o algunos de ellos, cruzan, en cualquier estación del año, las fronteras de los países de América. Algunas especies de las siguientes familias de aves pueden citarse como ejemplos de aves migratorias: Charadriidae, Scolopacidae, Caprimulgidae, Hirundinidae.

ARTICULO II

1. Los Gobiernos Contratantes estudiarán inmediatamente la posibilidad de crear, dentro del territorio de sus respectivos países, los parques nacionales, las reservas nacionales, los monumentos naturales, y las reservas de regiones vírgenes definidos en el artículo precedente. En todos aquellos casos en que dicha creación sea factible se comenzará la misma tan pronto como sea conveniente después de entrar en vigor la presente Convención.

2. Si en algún país la creación de parques o reservas nacionales, monumentos naturales o reservas de regiones vírgenes no fuera factible en la actualidad, se seleccionarán a la brevedad posible los sitios, objetos o especies vivas de animales o plantas, según sea el caso, que se transformarán en parques o reservas nacionales, monumentos naturales o reservas de regiones vírgenes tan pronto como a juicio de las autoridades del país, lo permitan las circunstancias.

3. Los Gobiernos Contratantes notificarán a la Unión Panamericana de la creación de parques nacionales, reservas nacionales, monumentos naturales y reservas de regiones vírgenes, y de la legislación y los sistemas administrativos adoptados a este respecto.

ARTICULO III

Los Gobiernos Contratantes convienen en que los límites de los parques nacionales no serán alterados ni enajenada parte alguna de ellos sino por acción de la autoridad legislativa competente. Las riquezas existentes en ellos no se explotarán con fines comerciales.

Los Gobiernos Contratantes convienen en prohibir la caza, la matanza y la captura de especímenes de la fauna y la destrucción y recolección de ejemplares de la flora en los parques nacionales, excepto cuando se haga por las autoridades del parque o por orden o bajo la vigilancia de las mismas, o para investigaciones científicas debidamente autorizadas.

Los Gobiernos Contratantes convienen además en proveer los parques nacionales de las facilidades necesarias para el solaz y la educación del público, de acuerdo con los fines que persigue esta Convención.

ARTICULO IV

Los Gobiernos Contratantes acuerdan mantener las reservas de regiones vírgenes inviolables en tanto sea factible, excepto para la investigación científica debidamente autorizada y para inspección gubernamental, o para otros fines que estén de acuerdo con los propósitos para los cuales la reserva ha sido creada.

ARTICULO V

1. Los Gobiernos Contratantes convienen en adoptar o en recomendar a sus respectivos cuerpos legislativos competentes, la adopción de leyes y reglamentos que aseguren la protección y conservación de la flora y fauna dentro de sus respectivos territorios y fuera de los parques y reservas nacionales, monumentos naturales y de las reservas de regiones vírgenes mencionados en el Artículo II. Dichas reglamentaciones contendrán disposiciones que permitan la caza o recolección de ejemplares de fauna y flora para estudios e investigaciones científicos por individuos y organismos debidamente autorizados.

2. Los Gobiernos Contratantes convienen en adoptar o en recomendar a sus respectivos cuerpos legislativos la adopción de leyes que aseguren la protección y conservación de los paisajes, las formaciones geológicas extraordinarias, y las regiones y los objetos naturales de interés estético o valor histórico o científico.

ARTICULO VI

Los Gobiernos Contratantes convienen en cooperar los unos con los otros para promover los propósitos de esta Convención. Con este objeto prestarán la ayuda necesaria, que sea compatible con su legislación nacional, a los hombres de ciencia de las Repúblicas americanas que se dedican a las investigaciones y exploraciones; podrán, cuando las circunstancias lo justifiquen, celebrar convenios los unos con los otros o con instituciones científicas de las Américas que tiendan a aumentar la eficacia de su colaboración; y pondrán a la disposición de todas las Repúblicas, por igual, ya sea por medio de su publicación o de cualquiera otra manera, los conocimientos científicos que lleguen a obtenerse por medio de esas labores de cooperación.

ARTICULO VII

Los Gobiernos Contratantes adoptarán las medidas apropiadas para la protección de las aves migratorias de valor económico o de interés estético o para evitar la extinción que amenace a una especie determinada. Se adoptarán medidas que permitan, hasta donde los respectivos gobiernos lo crean conveniente, utilizar razonablemente las aves migratorias, tanto en el deporte como en la alimentación, el comercio, la industria y para estudios e investigaciones científicos.

ARTICULO VIII

La protección de las especies mencionadas en el Anexo a esta Convención es de urgencia e importancia especial. Las especies allí incluidas serán protegidas tanto como sea posible y sólo las autoridades competentes del país podrán autorizar la caza, matanza, captura o recolección de ejemplares de dichas especies. Estos permisos podrán concederse solamente en circunstancias especiales cuando sean necesarios para la realización de estudios científicos o cuando sean indispensables en la administración de la región en que dicho animal o planta se encuentre.

ARTICULO IX

Cada uno de los Gobiernos Contratantes tomará las medidas necesarias para la vigilancia y reglamentación de las importaciones, exportaciones y tránsito de especies protegidas de flora o fauna, o parte alguna de las mismas, por los medios siguientes:

1. Concesión de certificados que autoricen la exportación o tránsito de especies protegidas de flora o fauna, o de sus productos.

CONVENTION ON NATURE PROTECTION AND WILD LIFE PRESERVATION IN THE

PREAMBLE

The governments of the American Republics, wishing to protect and preserve in their natural habitat representatives of all species and genera of their native flora and fauna, including migratory birds, in sufficient numbers and over areas extensive enough to assure them from becoming extinct through any agency within man's control; and

Wishing to protect and preserve scenery of extraordinary beauty, unusual and striking geologic formations, regions and natural objects of aesthetic, historic or scientific value, and areas characterized by primitive conditions in those cases covered by this Convention; and

Wishing to conclude a convention on the protection of nature and the preservation of flora and fauna to effectuate the foregoing purposes, have agreed upon the following articles:

ARTICLE I

Description of terms used in the wording of this Convention.

1. The expression NATIONAL PARKS shall denote:

Areas established for the protection and preservation of superlative scenery, flora and fauna of national significance which the general public may enjoy and from which it may benefit when placed under public control.

2. The expression NATIONAL RESERVES shall denote:

Regions established for conservation and utilization of natural resources under government control, on which protection of animal and plant life will be afforded in so far as this may be consistent with the primary purpose of such reserves.

3. The expression NATURE MONUMENTS shall denote:

Regions, objects, or living species of flora or fauna of aesthetic, historic or scientific interest to which strict protection is given. The purpose of nature monuments is the protection of a specific object, or a species of flora or fauna, by setting aside an area, an object, or a single species, as an inviolate nature monument, except for duly authorized scientific investigations or government inspection.

4. The expression STRICT WILDERNESS RESERVES shall denote:

A region under public control characterized by primitive conditions of flora, fauna, transportation and habitation wherein there is no provision for the passage of motorized transportation and all commercial developments are excluded.

5. The expression MIGRATORY BIRDS shall denote:

Birds of those species, all or some of whose individual members, may at any season cross any of the boundaries between the American countries. Some of the species of the following families are examples of birds characterized as migratory: Charadriidae, Scolopacidae, Caprimulgidae, Hirundinidae.

ARTICLE II

1. The Contracting Governments will explore at once the possibility of establishing in their territories national parks, national reserves, nature monuments, and strict wilderness reserves as defined in the preceding article. In all cases where such establishment is feasible, the creation thereof shall be begun as soon as possible after the effective date of the present Convention.

2. If in any country the establishment of national parks, national reserves, nature monuments, or strict wilderness reserves is found to be impractical at present, suitable areas, objects or living species of fauna or flora, as the case may be, shall be selected as early as possible to be transformed into national parks, national reserves, nature monuments or strict wilderness reserves as soon as, in the opinion of the authorities concerned, circumstances will permit.

3. The Contracting Governments shall notify the Pan American Union of the establishment of any national parks, national reserves, nature monuments, or strict wilderness reserves, and of the legislation, including the methods of administrative control, adopted in connection therewith.

ARTICLE III

The Contracting Governments agree that the boundaries of national parks shall not be altered, or any portion thereof be capable of alienation, except by the competent legislative authority. The resources of these reserves shall not be subject to exploitation for commercial profit.

The Contracting Governments agree to prohibit hunting, killing and capturing of members of the fauna and destruction or collection of representatives of the flora in national parks except by or under the direction or control of the park authorities, or for duly authorized scientific investigations.

The Contracting Governments further agree to provide facilities for public recreation and education in national parks consistent with the purposes of this Convention.

ARTICLE IV

The Contracting Governments agree to maintain the strict wilderness reserves inviolate, as far as practicable, except for duly authorized scientific investigations or government inspection, or such uses as are consistent with the purposes for which the area was established.

ARTICLE V

1. The Contracting Governments agree to adopt, or to propose such adoption to their respective appropriate law-making bodies, suitable laws and regulations for the protection and preservation of flora and fauna within their national boundaries, but not included in the national parks, national reserves, nature monuments, or strict wilderness reserves referred to in Article II hereof. Such regulations shall contain proper provisions for the taking of specimens of flora and fauna for scientific study and investigation by properly accredited individuals and agencies.

2. The Contracting Governments agree to adopt, or to recommend that their respective legislatures adopt, laws which will assure the protection and preservation of the natural scenery, striking geological formations, and regions and natural objects of aesthetic interest or historic or scientific value.

ARTICLE VI

The Contracting Governments agree to cooperate among themselves in promoting the objectives of the present Convention. To this end they will lend proper assistance, consistent with national laws, to scientists of the American Republics engaged in research and field study; they may, when circumstances warrant, enter into agreements with one another or with scientific institutions of the Americas in order to increase the effectiveness of this collaboration; and they shall make available to all the American Republics equally through publication or otherwise the scientific knowledge resulting from such cooperative effort.

ARTICLE VII

The Contracting Governments shall adopt appropriate measures for the protection of migratory birds of economic or aesthetic value or to prevent the threatened extinction of any given species. Adequate measures shall be adopted which will permit, in so far as the respective governments may see fit, a rational utilization of migratory birds for the purpose of sports as well as for food, commerce, and industry, and for scientific study and investigation.

ARTICLE VIII

The protection of the species mentioned in the Annex to the present Convention, is declared to be of special urgency and importance. Species included therein shall be protected as completely as possible, and their hunting, killing, capturing, or taking, shall be allowed only with the permission of the appropriate government authorities in the country. Such permission shall be granted only under special circumstances, in order to further scientific purposes, or when essential for the administration of the area in which the animal or plant is found.

ARTICLE IX

Each Contracting Government shall take the necessary measures to control and regulate the importation, exportation and transit of protected fauna or flora or any part thereof by the following means:

1. The issuing of certificates authorizing the exportation or transit of protected species of flora or fauna, or parts thereof.

2. The prohibition of the importation of any species of fauna or flora or any part thereof protected by the country of origin unless accompanied by a certificate of lawful exportation as provided for in Paragraph 1 of this Article.

ARTICLE X

1. The terms of this convention shall in no way be interpreted as replacing international agreement previously entered into by one or more of the High Contracting Powers.

2. The Pan American Union shall notify the Contracting Parties of any information relevant to the purposes of the present Convention communicated to it by any national museums or by any organizations, national or international, established within their jurisdiction and interested in the purposes of the Convention.

4. Any ratification received after the date of the entry into force of the Convention, shall take effect three months after the date of its deposit with the Pan American Union.

ARTICLE XII

1. Any Contracting Government may at any time denounce the present Convention by a notification in writing addressed to the Pan American Union. Such denunciation shall take effect one year after the date of the receipt of the notification by the Pan American Union, provided, however, that no denunciation shall take effect until the expiration of five years from the date of the entry into force of this Convention.

2. If, as the result of simultaneous or successive denunciations, the number of Contracting Governments is reduced to less than three, the Convention shall cease to be in force from the date on which the last of such denunciations takes effect in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

3. The Pan American Union shall notify all of the American Governments of any denunciations and the date on which they take effect.

4. Should the Convention cease to be in force under the provisions of Paragraph 2 of this article, the Pan American Union shall notify all of the American Governments, indicating the date on which this will become effective.

RESERVATION MADE AT THE TIME OF SIGNING

The Representative of Argentina signs the present Convention with the following reservation:

Existing resources in national parks may only be exploited for commercial purposes in those regions which, despite their lack of the characteristics necessary to be considered national parks, have been incorporated into the system solely to maintain a uniformity of action in those areas, and when such exploitation will not be contrary to the general purpose of the law which established them, and the exploitation is sufficient to maintain the principle of regional development according to the needs of each country.

Esta disposición no obsta á la obligación que establezcan las leyes nacionales, de fabricar en el país objetos que sean materia de privilegio.

Art. 4. Los agentes consulares de la nación á que pertenezcan ó donde se hallen establecidos los propietarios de patentes, dibujos, modelos ó marcas, serán considerados como representantes legítimos de dichos propietarios, para cumplir las formalidades y condiciones exigidas con el objeto de dar curso á la solicitud y obtener el registro de las referidas patentes, dibujos, modelos ó marcas, en el país donde se intente hacerlos valer.

Art. 5. Se considera país de origen aquel en que el concesionario tiene su principal establecimiento ó su domicilio.

Art. 1. Os cidadãos de cada um dos Estados signatários gozarão nos outros das mesmas regalias concedidas aos nacionais, quanto às marcas de comércio ou de fábrica, aos modelos e desenhos industriais e às patentes de invenção.

No serán un obstáculo para la entrega las obligaciones civiles que el acusado tenga contraídas en el país de refugio.

Art. 5. La extradición acordada no autoriza el enjuiciamiento y castigo del individuo entregado, por delito distinto del que hubiese servido de fundamento á la demanda respectiva, á no ser que tenga conexión con el que la motivó y se funde en las mismas pruebas de la demanda.

Esta estipulación no se aplica á los crímenes ó delitos cometidos con posterioridad á la extradición.

Art. 6. Si otro ó otros Estados, en virtud de estipulaciones de tratados, solicitan la entrega de un mismo individuo por motivo de diferentes delitos, se atenderá, en primer lugar, al pedido de aquel en cuyo territorio, á juicio del Estado requerido, se haya cometido la infracción más grave. Si los delitos fueran estimados de la misma gravedad, se dará preferencia al Estado que tenga prioridad en el pedido de extradición; y si todos los pedidos tuvieran la misma fecha, el país requerido determinará el orden de la entrega.

Art. 7. Las demandas de extradición serán presentadas por medio de los Agentes Diplomáticos ó Consulares respectivos; y á falta de éstos, directamente de Gobierno á Gobierno; é irán acompañadas de los siguientes documentos:

ditions stipulated by the present Treaty, but no Government shall be bound to grant the extradition of its own citizens, reserving to itself the right to surrender them when in its judgment it is proper to do so.

Art. 4. If the person whose extradition is demanded is subject to penal proceedings, or is detained for having committed an offence in the country where he has sought refuge, his delivery shall be delayed until the end of the proceedings, or until he has served his sentence.

Civil obligations contracted by the accused in the country of refuge shall not be an obstacle to his delivery.

Art. 5. Extradition, when granted, does not authorize the trial and punishment, of the party surrendered, for a crime different from the one that may have served as ground for the corresponding demand; unless it has connection therewith and is founded upon the same proof as that of the demand.

This stipulation is not applicable to crimes or felonies committed after extradition.

Art. 6. If another State or States, by virtue of stipulations in treaties, demand the surrender of the same individual by reason of different felonies, preference shall be given to the demand of the State in whose territory the greatest offence has been committed in the judgment of the State upon which the requisition has been made. If the felonies should be considered of the same degree, preference shall be given to the State that may have priority in the demand for extradition, and if all the demands bear the same date, the country upon which the demand is made shall determine the order of surrender.

Art. 7. The requests for extradition shall be presented by the respective diplomatic or consular agents; and, in the absence of these, directly by one Government to another; and they shall be accompanied by the following documents:

I. In regard to alleged delinquents, a legalized copy of the penal law ap-

Art. 3. Em caso algum a nacionalidade da pessoa acusada poderá impedir sua entrega nas condições estipuladas por este Tratado; mas nenhum Governo estará obrigado a conceder a extradição de seus próprios cidadãos, podendo fazê-lo quando julgar apropriado.

Art. 4. Se a pessoa cuja extradição é pedida está sujeita a processo penal, ou se encontra detida por ter cometido algum delito no país em que se homiziou, sua entrega deverá ser adiada até a conclusão do processo, ou até que haja cumprido a sentença que lhe foi imposta.

Não constituirão obstáculo para a entrega as obrigações civis que o acusado tenha contraído no país de asilo.

Art. 5. A extradição concedida não autoriza o julgamento e punição do indivíduo entregue, por crime diferente do que o que tiver servido de base ao pedido de extradição, a não ser que tenha relação com o que motivou esse pedido, e se funde nas mesmas provas que o fundamentaram.

Esta estipulação não se aplica aos crimes ou delitos cometidos posteriormente à extradição.

Art. 6. Se outro ou outros Estados, em virtude de estipulações de tratados, solicitarem a entrega de um mesmo indivíduo por motivo de diferentes delitos, será atendido, em primeiro lugar, o pedido daquele em cujo território, a juízo do Estado que recebeu o pedido de extradição, tenha sido cometida a infração mais grave. Se os delitos forem considerados da mesma gravidade, darse-á preferência ao Estado que tenha prioridade no pedido de extradição; e se todos os pedidos tiverem a mesma data, o país a que tenha sido feito o pedido decidirá sobre a ordem de entrega.

Art. 7. Os pedidos de extradição serão apresentados por intermédio dos respectivos agentes diplomáticos ou consulares; e, à falta destes, diqualifiés d'anarchisme par la législation du pays requérant et par celle du pays requis.

Art. 3. Dans aucun cas, la nationalité de la personne accusée ne pourra empêcher sa remise dans les conditions stipulées par le présent Traité, mais aucun Gouvernement ne sera obligé d'accorder l'extradition de ses propres citoyens; il pourra les livrer quand, à son avis, il sera convenable de le faire.

Art. 4. Si la personne dont l'extradition est sollicitée était l'objet de poursuites pénales ou était arrêtée pour avoir commis un délit dans les pays où elle s'était réfugiée, sa remise devra être différée, jusqu'à la conclusion du procès, ou jusqu'à ce qu'elle ait purgé sa condamnation.

Les obligations civiles que l'accusé aurait contractées dans le pays de refuge ne seront pas un obstacle pour la remise.

Art. 5. L'extradition accordée n'autorise pas le jugement et le châtiment de l'individu remis, pour un délit distinct de celui qui aurait servi de base à la demande respective, à moins que ce délit n'ait une connexion avec celui qui motiva ladite demande et qu'il soit fondé sur les mêmes preuves que celle-ci.

Cette stipulation ne s'applique pas aux crimes ou délits commis postérieurement à l'extradition.

Art. 6. Los certificados de estudios preparatorios ó superiores, expedidos en cualquiera de los países que celebran esta Convención, en favor de nacionales de uno de ellos, producirán en todos los demás países contratantes los mismos efectos que les atribuyere la ley de las Repúblicas de donde emanen, siempre que haya reciprocidad y no resulten ventajas superiores á las reconocidas por la legislación del país en que se quiera hacer uso de esos certificados.

Art. 2. Art. 2. TRAITÉ
D'ARBITRAGE OBLIGATOIRE¹

Les soussignés, Délégués de la République Argentine, de Bolivie, de la République Dominicaine, du Guatemala, du Salvador, des États-Unis Mexicains, du Paraguay, du Pérou, et de l'Uruguay, représentés à la Seconde Conférence Internationale Américaine réalisée dans la ville de Mexico, et dûment autorisés par leurs Gouvernements respectifs, ont convenu ce qui suit:

Art. 1. Les Hautes Parties Contractantes s'obligent à soumettre à l'arbitrage tous les litiges qui existent ou existeront entre elles et qui ne pourraient se résoudre par la voie diplomatique dans le cas où, suivant l'appréciation d'une des nations intéressées, lesdits conflits n'affecteraient ni l'indépendance ni l'honneur national.

Art. 2. Les litiges qui concernent les priviléges diplomatiques, les limites, les droits de navigation et leur validité, l'interprétation et l'accomplissement des traités, ne seront pas considérés comme compromettant l'indépendance et l'honneur nationaux.

Art. 3. En vertu de la faculté reconnue dans l'art 26 de la Convention pour le règlement pacifique des conflits internationaux, signée à La Haye le 29 juillet 1899, les Hautes Parties Contractantes ont convenu de soumettre à la décision de la Cour Permanente d'Arbitrage établie par ladite Convention, tous les conflits auxquels se rapporte le présent Traité, à moins que l'une des Parties préfère qu'une juridiction spéciale soit établie.

ceptos de la referida Convención, tanto en lo relativo á la organización del Tribunal Arbitral, como respecto á los procedimientos á que éste haya de sujetarse.

Art. 4. Siempre que por cualquier motivo deba organizarse una jurisdicción especial, ya sea porque así lo quiera alguna de las Partes, ya porque no llegue á abrirse á ellas la Corte Permanente de Arbitraje de La Haya, se establecerá, al firmarse el compromiso, el procedimiento que se haya de seguir. El Tribunal determinará la fecha y lugar de sus sesiones, el idioma de que haya de hacerse uso, y estará en todo evento investido de la facultad de resolver todas las cuestiones relativas á su propia jurisdicción y aun las que se refieren al procedimiento en los puntos no previstos en el compromiso.

Art. 5. Si al organizarse la jurisdicción especial no hubiere conformidad de las Altas Partes Contratantes para designar el árbitro, el Tribunal se compondrá de tres jueces. Cada Estado nombrará un árbitro y éstos designarán el tercero. Si no pueden ponerse de acuerdo sobre esta designación, la hará el Jefe de un tercer Estado, que indicarán los árbitros nombrados por las Partes. No poniéndose de acuerdo para este último nombramiento, cada una de las Partes designará una Potencia diferente, y la elección del tercero será hecha por las dos Potencias así designadas.

Art. 6. Las Altas Partes Contratantes estipulan que, en caso de desentimiento grave ó de conflicto entre dos ó más de ellas, que haga inminente la guerra, se recurra, en tanto que las circunstancias lo permitan, á los buenos oficios ó á la mediación de una ó más de las Potencias amigas.

The Court shall determine the date and place of its sessions and the language to be used, and shall in every case be invested with the authority to decide all questions relating to its own jurisdiction and even those referring to the procedure of points not considered in the arbitration agreement.

Art. 5. If upon organizing a special Tribunal the High Contracting Parties should not agree upon the designation of the arbitrator, the Tribunal shall consist of three judges. Each State shall appoint an arbitrator who will designate an umpire. Should the arbitrators fail to agree on this appointee, it shall be made by the Government of a third State, to be designated by the arbitrators appointed by the parties. If no agreement is reached with regard to this last appointment, each of the parties shall name a different Power and the election of the third arbitrator shall be made by the two Powers so designated.

Art. 6. The High Contracting Parties hereby stipulate that, in case of a serious disagreement or conflict between two or more of them, which may render war imminent, they will have recourse, as far as circumstances allow, to the good offices or the mediation of one or more friendly Powers.

Toda vez que por qualquer motivo se haja de organizar uma jurisdição especial, já porque assim o queira uma das Partes e já porque não esteja aberta para elas a Corte Permanente de Arbitragem de Haia, se estabelecerá, ao assinar o compromisso, o processo a seguir. O Tribunal decidirá a data e lugar de suas sessões, o idioma que tenha de ser usado e será em qualquer caso investido de atribuições para resolver todas as questões relativas à sua própria jurisdição, e bem assim as que se referirem ao processo nos pontos não previstos no compromisso.

Art. 5. Se, ao instituir a jurisdição especial, as Altas Partes Contratantes não tiverem ficado de acordo sobre a escolha do árbitro, o Tribunal compor-se-á de três juízes. Cada Estado nomeará um árbitro e êstes designarão o terceiro. Se não puderem pôr-se de acordo sobre esta designação, os árbitros nomeados pelas Partes indicarão o chefe de um terceiro Estado que indicará o terceiro árbitro. Se não se puserem de acordo sobre esta última nomeação, cada uma das Partes designará uma Potência diferente e a eleição do terceiro será feita pelas duas Potências assim designadas.

Art. 6. As Altas Partes Contratantes estipulam que, em caso de sério desacordo ou de conflito entre duas ou mais delas, que torne iminente a guerra, se recorra, tanto quanto o permitam as circunstâncias, aos bons ofícios ou à mediação de uma ou mais das Potências amigas.

Art. 7. Independentemente deste recurso, as Altas Partes Contratantes

En cas de recours à la Cour Permanente de La Haye, les Hautes Parties Contractantes acceptent les conditions de la susdite Convention relatives tant à l'organisation du Tribunal Arbitral qu'à la procédure qu'il faut y observer.

Art. 4. Dans le cas où, pour un motif quelconque, on établirait une juridiction spéciale, soit parce que ainsi le désire l'une des Parties, soit parce que la Cour Permanente de La Haye ne serait pas ouverte pour elles, en signant le compromis les Parties indiqueront la voie à suivre. Le Tribunal déterminera la date, le lieu de ses sessions, la langue dont il sera fait usage; et il sera à toute éventualité investi de la faculté de résoudre toutes les questions relatives à sa propre juridiction et aussi celles qui se rapportent à la procédure sur les points non prévus dans le compromis.

Art. 5. Si, en organisant la juridiction spéciale, les Hautes Parties Contractantes n'étaient pas d'accord sur le choix de l'arbitre le Tribunal serait formé de trois juges. Chaque État nommera un arbitre, et ceux-ci désigneront le troisième. S'ils ne peuvent se mettre d'accord sur ce choix, les arbitres nommés par les Parties désigneront le Chef d'un troisième État qui nommera le tiers-arbitre. Si elles ne peuvent s'entendre sur le choix d'un Chef d'État, chaque Partie désignera une Puissance différente, et l'élection du troisième arbitre sera faite par les deux Puissances ainsi désignées.

Art. 6. Les Hautes Puissances Contractantes, en cas de dissensément grave, ou de conflit entre deux ou plusieurs d'entre elles, qui rende la guerre imminente, conviennent d'avoir recours, en tant que les circonstances le permettront, aux bons offices ou à la médiation d'une ou de plusieurs Puissances amies.

Art. 7. Indépendamment de ce recours, les Hautes Puissances Con-ofrezcan, espontáneamente, en tanto que las circunstancias se presten á ello, sus buenos oficios ó su mediación á los Estados en conflicto.

El derecho de ofrecer los buenos oficios ó la mediación pertenece á las Potencias extrañas al conflicto, aun durante el curso de las hostilidades.

El ejercicio de este derecho no podrá considerarse jamás por una ó por otra de las Partes Contendientes como un acto poco amistoso.

Art. 8. El oficio de mediador consiste en conciliar las pretensiones opuestas y en apaciguar los resentimientos que puedan haberse producido entre las Naciones en conflicto.

Art. 9. Las funciones del mediador cesan desde el momento en que se ha comprobado, ya por una de las Partes contendientes, ya por el mediador mismo, que los medios de conciliación propuestas por éste no son aceptados.

Art. 10. Los buenos oficios y la mediación, ya que á ellos se recurra por las Partes en conflicto ó por iniciativa de las Potencias extrañas á él, no tienen otro carácter que el de consejo, y nunca el de fuerza obligatoria.

Art. 11. La aceptación de la mediación no puede producir el efecto, salvo convenio en contrario, de interrumpir, retardar ó embarazar la movilización ó otras medidas preparatorias de la guerra. Si la mediación tuviere lugar, rotas ya las hostilidades, no se interrumpe por ello, salvo pacto en contrario, el curso de las operaciones militares.

Art. 12. En los casos de diferencias graves que amenacen comprometer la paz, y siempre que las Potencias interesadas no puedan ponerse de acuerdo para escoger ó aceptar como mediadora á una Potencia amiga, se recomienda á los Estados en

Powers, strangers to the dispute should, on their own initiative, as far as circumstances will allow, offer their good offices or mediation to the States at variance.

The right to offer the Good Offices or Mediation belongs to Powers who are strangers to the conflict, even during the course of hostilities.

The exercise of this right shall never be regarded by either of the contending parties as an unfriendly act.

Art. 8. The part of the mediator consists in reconciling the opposing claims and appeasing the feelings of resentment which may have arisen between the States at variance.

Art. 9. The functions of the mediator are at an end when once it is declared, either by one of the parties to the dispute or by the mediator himself, that the methods of conciliation proposed by him are not accepted.

Art. 10. Good Offices and Mediation, whether at the request of the parties at variance or upon the initiative of Powers, who are strangers to the dispute, have exclusively the character of advice, and never have binding force.

Art. 11. The acceptance of mediation cannot, unless there be an agreement to the contrary, have the effect of interrupting, delaying or hindering mobilization, or other measures of preparation for war. If mediation occurs after the commencement of hostilities, it causes no interruption to the military operations in progress, unless there be an agreement to the contrary.

Art. 12. In case of a serious difference endangering peace, and whenever the interested Powers cannot agree in electing or accepting as mediator a friendly Power, it is to be recommended to the States in dispute the election of a Power to whom they tes consideram útil que uma ou mais Potências, estranhas ao conflito, ofereçam espontâneamente, tanto quanto as circunstâncias o permitam, seus bons ofícios ou sua mediação aos Estados em conflito.

O direito de oferecer os bons ofícios ou a mediação pertence às Potências estranhas ao conflito, mesmo durante o curso das hostilidades.

O exercício deste direito não poderá jamais ser considerado por uma ou por outra das Partes Contendoras como um ato pouco amistoso.

Art. 8. O papel de mediador consiste em conciliar as pretensões opostas, e em apaziguar os ressentimentos que se possam ter produzido entre as Nações em conflito.

Art. 9. As funções de mediador cessam a partir do momento em que tenha sido comprovado, seja por uma das Partes Contendoras ou pelo próprio mediador, que os meios de conciliação propostos por este não são aceitos.

Art. 10. Os bons ofícios e a mediação, quer a elas recorram as Partes em conflito, quer por iniciativa das Potências estranhas ao mesmo, não têm outro caráter senão o de conselho, e nunca o de força obrigatória.

Art. 11. A aceitação da mediação não pode produzir o efeito, salvo acôrdo em contrário, de interromper, retardar ou embaraçar a mobilização ou outras medidas preparatórias da guerra. Se a mediação se efetuar quando já tiverem começado as hostilidades, ela não interrompe o curso das operações militares, a menos que haja pacto em contrário.

Art. 12. Nos casos de diferenças graves que ameacem comprometer a paz, e sempre que as Potências interessadas não possam entrar em acôrdo para escolher ou aceitar uma Potência amiga como mediadora, recomenda-se aos Estados em conflito a eleição de uma Potência à qual

L'exercice de ce droit ne peut jamais être considéré par l'une ou l'autre des Parties en litige comme un acte peu amical.

Art. 8. Le rôle de médiateur consiste à concilier les prépositions opposées et à apaiser les ressentiments qui peuvent s'être produits entre les États en conflit.

Art. 9. Les fonctions du médiateur cessent du moment où il est constaté, soit par l'une des Parties en litige, soit par le médiateur lui-même, que les moyens de conciliation proposés par lui ne sont pas acceptés.

Art. 10. Les bons offices et la médiation, soit sur le recours des Parties en conflict, soit sur l'initiative des Puissances étrangères au conflit, ont exclusivement le caractère de conseil et n'ont jamais force obligatoire.

Art. 11. L'acceptation de la médiation ne peut avoir pour effet, sauf convention contraire, d'interrompre, de retarder, ou d'entraver la mobilisation et autres mesures préparatoires à la guerre. Si elle intervient après l'ouverture des hostilités, elle n'interrompt pas, sauf convention contraire, les opérations militaires en cours.

Art. 12. En cas de différend grave, qui menace de compromettre la paix, et dans le cas où les Puissances intéressées ne pourraient se mettre d'accord pour choisir ou accepter comme médiatrice une Puissance amie, il est recommandé aux Etats en conflit le choix d'une Puissance désignée par

Mientras dura este mandato, cuyo término, salvo estipulación en contrario, no puede exceder de treinta días, los Estados contendientes cesarán toda relación directa con motivo del conflicto, el cual se considerará como exclusivamente deferido á las Potencias mediadoras.

Si esas Potencias amigas no lograren proponer, de común acuerdo, una solución que fuere aceptable por las que se hallen en conflicto, designarán á una tercera, á la cual quedará confiada la mediación.

Esta tercera Potencia, en caso de ruptura efectiva de las relaciones pacíficas, tendrá en todo tiempo el encargo de aprovechar cualquiera ocasión para procurar el restablecimiento de la paz.

Art. 13. En las controversias de carácter internacional, provenientes de divergencia de apreciación de hechos, las Repúblicas signatarias juzgan útil que las Partes que no hayan podido ponerse de acuerdo por la vía diplomática, instituyan, en tanto que las circunstancias lo permitan, una Comisión Internacional de Investigación, encargada de facilitar la solución de esos litigios, esclareciendo, por medio de un examen imparcial y concienzudo, las cuestiones de hecho.

Art. 14. Las Comisiones Internacionales de Investigación se constituyen por convenio especial de las Partes en litigio. El convenio precisará los hechos que han de ser materia de examen, así como la extensión de los poderes de los Comisionados, y arreglará el procedimiento á que deben éstos sujetarse. La investigación se llevará a término contradictoriamente; y la forma y los plazos que deben en ella observarse, si no se fijaren en el convenio,

For the period of this mandate, the term of which, unless otherwise stipulated, cannot exceed thirty days, the contending Powers shall cease all direct communication on the subject of the dispute, which is regarded as referred exclusively to the mediating Powers.

If these friendly Powers do not succeed in agreeing on a solution that would be acceptable to those in conflict, they shall designate a third that is to act as mediator.

This third Power, in case of a definite rupture of pacific relations, shall at all times be charged with the task of taking advantage of any opportunity to restore peace.

Art. 13. In controversies of an international nature arising from a difference of opinion on points of fact, the signatory Powers consider it useful that the parties who have not been able to come to an agreement by means of diplomacy, should, so far as circumstances allow, institute an International Commission of Inquiry, to facilitate a solution of those differences, elucidating the facts by means of an impartial and conscientious investigation.

Art. 14. The International Commissions of Inquiry are constituted by special agreement. The agreement defines the facts to be examined, and the extent of the Commissioner's powers, and settles the procedure to which they must limit themselves. On the inquiry both sides shall be heard, and the form and periods to be observed, if not stipulated by the Enquanto durar êste mandato, cujo término, salvo estipulação em contrário, não pode exceder de trinta dias, os Estados contendores cessarão toda relação direta a respeito do conflito, que se considerará como exclusivamente confiado às Potências mediadoras.

Se essas Potências amigas não conseguirem propor, de comum acôrdo, uma solução que seja aceitável para as que se achem em conflito, designarão uma terceira Potência, à qual ficará confiada a mediação.

Essa terceira Potência, em caso de ruptura efetiva das relações pacíficas, terá em todo o tempo o encargo de aproveitar qualquer ocasião para procurar o estabelecimento da paz.

Art. 13. Nas controvérsias de caráter internacional, provenientes da divergência na apreciação dos fatos, as Repúblicas signatárias julgam útil que as Partes que não tenham podido pôr-se de acôrdo pela via diplomática, instituam, tanto quanto as circunstâncias o permitam, uma Comissão Internacional de Investigação, encarregada de facilitar a solução desses litígios, esclarecendo, por meio de um exame imparcial e conscientioso, as questões de fato.

Art. 14. As Comissões Internacionais de Investigação serão formadas por convênio especial das Partes em litígio. O convênio especificará os fatos que deverão constituir matéria de exame, bem como a extensão dos poderes dos Comissários, e regulamentará o procedimento a que devem êstes sujeitar-se. A investigação será levada a efeito contraditóriamente; e a forma e os prazos a observar, caso não sejam fixados pelo convênio, serão determinados pela própria Comissão.

Pendant la durée de ce mandat, dont le terme, sauf stipulation contraire, ne peut excéder trente jours, les États en litige cessent tout rapport direct au sujet du conflit, lequel est considéré comme déféré exclusivement aux Puissances média-trices.

Si les Puissances amies n'arrivent à obtenir, d'un commun accord, une solution acceptable pour celles qui sont en conflit, elles en choisirraient une troisième, à laquelle serait confiée la médiation.

Cette troisième Puissance, en cas de rupture effective des relations pacifiques, aura en tout temps la mission de profiter de toute occasion pour rétablir la paix.

Art. 13. Dans les litiges d'ordre international provenant d'une divergence d'appréciation sur des points de fait, les Républiques signataires jugent utile que les Parties qui n'auraient pu se mettre d'accord par la voie diplomatique instituent, en tant que les circonstances le permettront, une Commission Internationale d'Enquête chargée de faciliter la solution de litiges en éclaircissant par un examen impartial et conscientieux les questions de fait.

Art. 14. Les Commissions Internationales d'Enquête sont constituées par convention spéciale entre les Parties en litige. La Convention précisera les faits à examiner, l'étendue des pouvoirs des commissaires, et elle réglera la procédure que ceux-ci doivent suivre. L'enquête aura lieu contradictoirement. La forme et les délais à observer, en tant qu'ils ne sont pas fixés par la Convention d'Enquête, sont déterminés par la Commission elle-même.

Art. 15. Las Comisiones Internacionales de Investigación se constituirán, salvo estipulación en contrario, de la misma manera que el Tribunal de Arbitraje.

Art. 16. Es obligación de las Potencias en litigio, ministrar, en la más amplia medida que juzguen posible, á la Comisión Internacional de Investigación, todos los medios y facilidades necesarios para el conocimiento completo y la exacta apreciación de los hechos controvertidos.

Art. 17. Las Comisiones mencionadas se limitarán á averiguar la verdad de los hechos sin emitir más apreciaciones que las meramente técnicas.

Art. 18. La Comisión Internacional de Investigación presentará á las Potencias que la hayan constituido, su informe firmado por todos los miembros de la Comisión. Este informe, limitado á la investigación de los hechos, no tiene en lo absoluto el carácter de sentencia arbitral, y deja á las Partes contendientes en entera libertad de darle el valor que estimen justo.

Art. 19. La constitución de Comisiones de Investigación podrá incluirse en los compromisos de arbitraje, como procedimiento previo, á fin de fijar los hechos que han de ser materia del juicio.

Art. 20. El presente Tratado no deroga los anteriores existentes entre dos ó más de las Partes Contratantes, en cuanto dén mayor extensión al arbitraje obligatorio. Tampoco altera las estipulaciones sobre arbitraje, relativas á cuestiones determinadas que han surgido ya, ni el curso de los juicios arbitrales que se siguen con motivo de éstas.

Art. 15. The International Commissions of Inquiry are constituted, unless otherwise stipulated, in the same manner as the Tribunal of Arbitration.

Art. 16. The Powers in dispute engage to supply the International Commission of Inquiry, as fully as they may deem possible, with all means and facilities necessary to enable it to be completely acquainted with and to accurately understand the facts in question.

Art. 17. The above mentioned Commissions shall limit themselves to ascertain the truth of the facts alleged, without entering into any other appreciations than those merely technical.

Art. 18. The International Commission of Inquiry shall present its report to the Powers which have constituted it, signed by all its members. This report, limited to the investigation of facts, has in no manner the character of an arbitral award, and it leaves the contending parties at liberty to give it the value they may deem proper.

Art. 19. The constitution of Commissions of Inquiry may be included in the Arbitration Bonds, as a previous proceeding, to the end of determining the facts which are to be the subject of the Inquiry.

Art. 20. The present Treaty does not abrogate any previous existing ones, between two or more of the Contracting Parties, in so far as they give greater extension to compulsory Arbitration. Art. 17. As Comissões mencionadas limitar-se-ão a averiguar a verdade dos fatos, sem emitir outras apreciações a não ser as de caráter rigorosamente técnicos.

Art. 18. A Comissão Internacional de Investigação apresentará às Potências que a tenham constituído, um relatório assinado por todos os membros que a compõem. Este relatório, limitado à constatação dos fatos, não tem absolutamente o caráter de sentença arbitral, e deixa as Partes litigiosas em completa liberdade de dar ao dito relatório o valor que considerem justo.

Art. 19. A constituição de Comissões de Investigação poderá fazer parte, como procedimento prévio, dos compromissos de arbitragem, a fim de fixar os fatos que devem servir de base ao julgamento.

Art. 20. Este Tratado não substitui os já existentes entre duas ou mais das Partes Contratantes naquilo em que dêem maior extensão à arbitragem obrigatória. Também não altera as estipulações sobre arbitragem, relativas a questões determinadas que já tenham surgido, nem o curso das decisões arbitrais que esteja sendo seguido em referência a estas questões.

Art. 17. Les Commissions susmentionnées se limiteront à la recherche de la vérité sur les points de fait, sans émettre d'autres appréciations que celles d'un caractère absolument technique.

Art. 18. La Commission Internationale d'Enquête présentera aux Puissances qui l'ont constituée, son rapport signé par tous les membres de la Commission. Ce rapport, limité à la constatation des faits, n'a nullement le caractère de sentence arbitrale. Il laisse aux Puissances en litige une liberté entière pour la suite à donner à cette constatation.

Art. 19. La constitution des Commissions d'Enquête pourra avoir lieu dans le compromis relatif à l'arbitrage comme procédure préalable, afin de fixer les faits qui doivent servir de base au jugement.

Art. 20. Le présent Traité ne change rien à ceux qui existent déjà entre deux ou plusieurs des Parties Contractantes en tant qu'ils donnent une plus grande extension à l'arbitrage obligatoire. Il ne nullifie pas, non plus, les stipulations sur l'arbitrage relatives à des questions déterminées actuellement pendantes, pas plus qu'il n'altère les procédures arbitrales en cours à l'occasion des questions.

PRELIMINARY NOTE

The purpose of this compilation is to make available, in a single convenient source, all texts of inter-American agreements in the related fields of asylum and extradition. A list of the parties follows the text of each treaty and convention.

This work is being issued simultaneously in Spanish and English. Since in a few cases no English version existed it was necessary to make our own translations—which, needless to say, have no official character.

Other texts available are listed at the beginning of each agreement.

Their Excellencies the Presidents of the Argentine Republic, Bolivia, Paraguay, Peru and Uruguay have agreed to a Treaty on International Penal Law, through their respective Plenipotentiaries, assembled in Congress, in the City of Montevideo, on the initiative of the Government of the Eastern Republic of Uruguay and of the Argentine Republic, represented by:

/Here follow the names of the Plenipotentiaries/

Who, after the presentation of their full powers, which were found in good form, and after conferences and discussions of the matter, have agreed to the following stipulations:

TITLE I. ON JURISDICTION

Article 1. Crimes and offenses shall be subject to trial by the courts and punished according to the laws of the country where the offense was committed, regardless of the nationality of the agent, or of the victim or wronged party.

Article 2. Such violations of criminal law as are perpetrated in a State, but exclusively affect rights and interests guaranteed by the laws of another State, shall fall under the jurisdiction of the State affected by them, and shall be punished according to its laws.

Article 3. When an offense affects different States, the jurisdiction of the State in whose territory the offender is caught shall prevail.

If the offender should seek shelter in a State different from the ones affected by his action, the jurisdiction of the State which first requests the extradition shall prevail.

* Revised by the Treaty on International Penal Law signed at Montevideo, March 19, 1940, at the Second South American Congress on Private International Law.

Article 4. In the cases referred to in the preceding article, if there is only one offender there shall be only one trial, and the penalty to be imposed shall be the severest one imposed by the penal laws of the different States concerned.

If the penalty ascertained to be the severest one should be one not permitted in the State in which the trial takes place, the severest penalty which is permitted shall be imposed.

The court shall, in all cases, apply to the executive power in order that due notice of the initiation of the proceedings may be given through it to the interested States.

Article 5. Each one of the contracting States shall have the power to expel from its territory, under its own laws, offenders who have taken shelter therein, if after notice to the State against which the refugee committed an extraditable offense no action shall have been taken by such State.

Article 6. Acts done in the territory of a State, which are not punishable according to its laws, but are punishable in another country, in which they produce injurious results, shall not be made the subject of judicial action in the latter, unless the offender is found within its territory.

The same rule shall also apply to those offenses which do not admit of extradition.

Article 7. In the trial and punishment of offenses committed by a member of a legation, the rules of public international law shall be observed.

Article 8. Crimes committed on the high seas, or on neutral waters, on board either a man-of-war or a merchant vessel, shall be tried and punished according to the laws of the State to which the flag of the vessel belongs.

Article 9. Crimes and offenses committed on board a man-of-war when in the waters of a foreign nation shall be tried and punished according to the laws of the State to which the vessel belongs.

The same rule shall be applicable to offenses committed outside the vessels by members of the crew thereof, or by persons employed on board the same, if the said crimes or offenses infringe principally the law or rules of discipline in force upon the vessel.

But when the crimes or offenses herein referred to, committed outside the vessel, were so committed by persons not belonging to the ship's company, then the jurisdiction to try the offenders shall belong to the State in whose territorial waters the vessel may happen to find itself.

Article 10. Crimes and offenses committed on board a man-of-war or on board a merchant vessel, under the circumstances mentioned in Article 2, shall be tried and punished as provided by that article.

Article 11. Crimes and offenses committed on board a merchant vessel shall be tried and punished according to the laws of the State in whose territorial waters the offense was committed.

Article 12. For purposes of jurisdiction, territorial waters are declared to be those comprised in a belt five miles wide running along the coast, either of the mainland or of the islands which form part of the territory of each State.

Article 13. Acts of piracy, as defined by public international law, shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the State under whose power the offenders may happen to fall.

Article 14. Criminal prosecution shall be governed by the laws of the State having jurisdiction to punish the offense.

TITLE II. ON ASYLUM

Article 15. No offender who has taken refuge in the territory of a State shall be surrendered to the authorities of any other State except in compliance with the rules governing extradition.

Article 16. Political refugees shall be afforded an inviolable asylum; but it is the duty of the nation of refuge to prevent asylees of this kind from committing within its territory any acts which may endanger the public peace of the nation against which the offense was committed.

Article 17. Such persons as may be charged with non-political offenses and seek refuge in a legation, shall be surrendered to the local authorities by the head of the said legation, at the request of the Ministry of Foreign Relations, or of his own motion.

Said asylum shall be respected with regard to political offenders, but the head of the legation shall be bound to give immediate notice to the government of the State to which he is accredited; and the said government shall have the power to demand that the offender be sent away from the national territory in the shortest possible time.

The head of the legation shall, in his turn, have the right to require proper guarantees for the exit of the refugee without any injury to the inviolability of his person.

The same rule shall be applicable to the refugees on board a man-of-war anchored in the territorial waters of the State.

Article 18. The provisions of Article 15 shall not be applicable to deserters from vessels of war while in the territorial waters of a State.

Said deserters, whatever their nationality may be, shall be surrendered by the local authorities, upon proper identification, whenever the legation, or if there is no legation, the consular officer of the country concerned may request it.

TITLE III. EXTRADITION

Article 19. The signatory States shall be bound to deliver up to another such offenders as have taken refuge within its territory, whenever the following circumstances shall concur, namely:

1. That the nation which claims the offender has competent jurisdiction to take cognizance of and punish the offense with which the refugee is charged.

2. That the kind and gravity of the offense are such as to justify extradition.

3. That the nation which demands the extradition has presented such documents as, under its own laws, authorize the imprisonment and trial of the offender.

4. That the action against the offender has not been barred by the statute of limitations, under the laws of the country which makes the demand.

5. That the offender has not been sentenced for the same offense and served out his sentence.

Article 20. Extradition shall in no case be barred by the nationality of the offender.

Article 21. The offenses for which extradition is warranted are the following:

1. As to alleged offenders, those offenses which under the laws of the country which demands the extradition are punishable by imprisonment for not less than two years, or the equivalent thereof.

2. As to the convicted offenders, those offenses the minimum penalty for which is imprisonment for one year.

Article 22. No person shall be delivered up on extradition proceedings when the offense charged is one of the following:

Dueling;

Adultery;

Slander and libel;

Crimes against worship.

But common (nonpolitical) offenses connected with any of the above named shall warrant the extradition of the offenders.

Article 23. Political offenses, offenses subversive of the internal or external safety of a State, or common offenses connected with these, shall not warrant extradition.

The determination of the character of the offense is incumbent upon the nation upon which the demand for extradition is made; and its decision shall be made under and according to the provisions of the law which shall prove to be most favorable to the accused.

Article 24. No civil or commercial action affecting the offender shall prevent the extradition from being accomplished.

Article 25. The surrender of the offender may be delayed as long as he shall continue subject to the penal action of the State from which he is demanded; but the extradition proceedings shall not be interrupted for that reason.

Article 26. Such offenders as shall have been delivered up on extradition proceedings, shall never be either tried or punished for political offenses, or for any acts connected with political offenses, previously committed.

But said offenders may be subject to trial and punishment upon consent of the State which surrendered them, in accordance with the terms of the present treaty, for offenses which are extraditable but which did not form part of the charge upon which extradition was granted.

Article 27. When several nations demand the surrender of an offender for different offenses, he shall be surrendered to the nation against which the gravest offense was committed in the judgment of the State upon which the requisition has been made. If the offenses are equally grave, preference shall be given to the nation which had priority in the demand for extradition; if all the demands bear the same date, the country upon which the demand is made shall determine the order of surrender.

Article 28. If, after an offender is delivered up to one State, a new demand for his extradition is made by another State, it shall be optional with the State which first granted the extradition whether or not to accede to the new demand, provided that the prisoner has not been set at liberty.

Article 29. When the penalty for the offense with which the offender is charged is the penalty of death, the nation which grants the extradition may demand the imposition of the penalty next lower in degree.

TITLE IV. PROCEEDINGS FOR EXTRADITION

Article 30. Demands for extradition shall be presented through the respective legations or consular offices, and, in the absence of these, directly from Government to Government, and they shall be accompanied by the following documents:

1. In cases of alleged delinquents, a legalized copy of the penal law applicable to the offense on which the demand is based, and of the warrant of arrest and other antecedents referred to in paragraph 3 of Article 19.

2. In cases of those already sentenced, by a legalized copy of the final sentence of condemnation passed against the offender and the proper evidence that the condemned man was summoned and was either represented at the trial, or legally adjudged in contumaciam.

Article 31. If the State upon which the demand for extradition is made should deem the said demand to be unwarranted, owing to some defects of form, it shall return the papers to the Government which made it, with the proper explanation of the defects.

Article 32. If the demand for extradition is made in due form, the Government upon which it is made shall transmit all the antecedents to a judge or tribunal of competent jurisdiction on the subject, and the said judge or tribunal shall order the arrest of the offender and the sequestration of any property related to the crime, if it is deemed proper, under the provisions of this Treaty.

Article 33. In all cases involving the arrest of the refugee, due notice shall be given to him within the twenty-four hours following his arrest, of the cause for his arrest and of the right which is vested in him under the following article.

Article 34. The prisoner shall be allowed, within three days and no more, to be counted from the day following that on which notification was first received, to object to his extradition on the following grounds:

1. That he is not the person to whom the demand for extradition refers.
2. That the documents upon which the demand is based are not in due form.
3. That the extradition is not warranted.

Article 35. Evidence shall be admitted in the cases in which it may be necessary, governed by the same rules, as far as relevancy and time are concerned, as are in force in the country upon which the demand is made.

Article 36. After the whole evidence is on file, the judge or tribunal shall decide within ten days, and without any further steps, whether the extradition must or must not be granted.

An appeal can be taken against this decision to the competent court within three days, and that court shall decide within five days.

Article 37. If the decision is to the effect that the extradition be granted, the tribunal which rendered it shall give notice thereof immediately to the executive power, in order that the proper provision may be made by it for the delivery of the prisoner.

If the decision be adverse to the extradition, the judge or tribunal shall at once order the release of the prisoner, and shall give due information to the executive power by sending to it a copy of its decision.

If extradition was refused due to insufficient documents, the case shall be reopened provided that the Government demanding the extradition presents new documents, or supplements those which had been presented before.

Article 38. Whenever the prisoner acquiesces in his surrender, the court, upon entering the said acquiescence in due form, shall render a decision, without further transaction, granting his extradition.

Article 39. Every article or object related to the crime on which the extradition is based and found in the possession of the offender, shall be yielded to the State which obtained the surrender.

Those found in the possession of third parties shall not be surrendered unless the possessors thereof have first been given the proper hearing, and unless their objections have been resolved.

Article 40. When the extradition is to take place by land, the Government which delivers up the prisoner shall be bound to take the latter to the most convenient point of its frontier.

When the extradition is to take place over sea or by a river route, the prisoner shall be delivered up to the agents of the other nation at the most appropriate port of embarkation.

The nation requesting the extradition shall always have the right to send one or more security agents for the proper custody of the prisoner; but the functions and power of said officers shall be subordinate to the agents or authorities of the country which makes the delivery, or of the country over which the prisoner is conveyed.

Article 41. Whenever the extradition of a prisoner has been granted but the delivery cannot be actually accomplished without passing through the territory of another State, the latter shall grant permission to do so, upon no other requisite than the exhibition, diplomatically, of the decree of extradition issued by the Government which granted it.

If the transit is granted, the provisions of the third paragraph of the preceding article shall be complied with.

Article 42. The expenses which may be incurred owing to the demand of extradition up to the moment of the delivery, shall be paid by the State upon which the demand is made; but all those incurred after such delivery shall be paid by the Government making the demand.

Article 43. Whenever the extradition is granted, and the offender involved is a convicted criminal, the Government which obtained the extradition shall be bound to communicate to the Government with granted it, the decision rendered in the case or trial for which it was granted.

TITLE V. OF THE PRECAUTIONARY ARREST

Article 44. When the signatory Governments deem the case to be urgent, they shall request by mail or by telegraph that administrative procedures leading to the provisional arrest of the offender, as well as to the security of the objects related to the crime, be taken, provided that a sentence or a warrant of arrest is positively asserted to have been issued and the nature of the offense with which he is charged is clearly defined.

Article 45. The person so arrested shall be set at liberty if within ten days subsequent to the arrival of the first mail sent after the date of the petition for the provisional arrest no formal demand of extradition shall have been made by the requesting State.

Article 46. In all cases of precautionary arrest the responsibilities thereof belong to the Government which requested it.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 47. No simultaneous ratification of this treaty by all the signatory States shall be necessary for its validity. Any State which approves of the treaty shall communicate its approval thereof to the Governments of the Argentine Republic and of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay, which shall give notice thereof to the other contracting States. This process shall take the place of an exchange.

Article 48. The exchange having been made in the manner provided for in the preceding article, the treaty shall remain in force for an indefinite period of time.

Article 49. If any one of the contracting nations should deem it advisable to discontinue its adhesion to the treaty, or should desire to introduce modifications into its provisions, it shall be in its power to do so provided that it give notice of its intention to do so to the other parties; but it shall not be released from its obligation until after two years have elapsed after the notice aforesaid was given by it; and in these two years it shall endeavor to reach a new agreement on the subject.

Article 50. The stipulations of this treaty shall be applicable only to offenses committed during the time in which it has been in force.

Article 51. The provisions of Article 47 are applicable to nations which have not attended this Congress, but wish to adhere to this treaty.

In testimony whereof, the Plenipotentiaries of the cited Nations sign it and set thereto the seal on five copies, in Montevideo, on the twenty-third day of January in the year of one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine.

Desiring that their respective countries should be represented at the Second International American Conference, sent thereto duly authorized to approve the recommendations, resolutions, conventions and treaties that they might deem convenient for the interests of America, the following Delegates:

Here follow the names of the Delegates.

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers and found them to be in due and proper form, excepting those presented by the representatives of their Excellencies the Presidents of the United States of America, Nicaragua, and Paraguay, who act ad referendum, have agreed to enter into a Treaty for the extradition of criminals and for protection against anarchism, in the following terms:

Article 1. The High Contracting Parties agree reciprocally to surrender persons accused or sentenced by the proper authorities whenever the following circumstances occur;

I. That the demanding State shall have jurisdiction to commit the delinquent who is the cause of the demand of extradition.

* For lack of a sufficient number of ratifications, it never entered into force.

II. That the perpetration of a crime or offense of the common order which the laws of the demanding and requiring States punish with the penalty of not less than two years imprisonment, be duly invoked.

III. If, by reason of the federal form of government of some of the High Contracting Parties, it shall not be possible to determine the punishment corresponding to a crime for which extradition has been demanded, the following list of crimes shall be taken as a basis for the demand:

1. Murder, comprehending the crimes known as parricide, assassination, poisoning and infanticide.
2. Rape.
3. Bigamy.
4. Arson.
5. Crimes committed at sea, to wit:
 - (a) Piracy, as commonly known and defined by the Law of Nations.
 - (b) Destruction or loss of a vessel, caused intentionally; or conspiracy and attempt to bring about such destruction or loss, when committed by any person or persons on board of said vessel on the high seas.
 - (c) Mutiny or conspiracy by two or more members of the crew, or other persons, on board of a vessel on the high seas, for the purpose of rebelling against the authority of the captain or commander of such vessel, or by fraud, or by violence, taking possession of such vessel.
6. Burglary, defined to be the act of breaking and entering into the house of another in the night time, with intent to commit a felony therein.
7. The act of breaking into and entering public offices, or the offices of banks, banking houses, savings banks, trust companies, or insurance companies, with intent to commit theft therein, and also the thefts resulting from such acts.
8. Robbery, defined to be the felonious and forcible taking from the person of another of goods or money, by violence or by putting the person in fear.

9. Forgery or the utterance of forged papers.

10. The forgery, or falsification of the official acts of the Government or public authority, including courts of justice, or the utterance or fraudulent use of any of the same.

11. The fabrication of counterfeit money, whether coin or paper, counterfeit titles or coupons of public debt, or other instruments of public credit; of counterfeit seals, bank notes, stamps, dies, and marks of State, or public administration, and the utterance, circulation, or fraudulent use of any of the above-mentioned objects.

12. The introduction of instruments for the fabrication of counterfeit coin or bank notes or other paper current as money.

13. Embezzlement or malversation of public funds committed within the jurisdiction of either party by public officers or depositaries.

14. Embezzlement of funds of a bank of deposit, or savings bank, or trust company, chartered under the laws.

15. Embezzlement by any person or persons hired or salaried, to the detriment of their employers, when the crime is subject to punishment by the laws of the place where it was committed.

16. Kidnapping of minors or adults, defined to be the abduction or detention of a person or persons in order to exact money from them for their ransom or for any other unlawful end.

17. Mayhem and any other willful mutilation causing disability or death.

18. The malicious and unlawful destruction or attempted destruction of railways, trains, bridges, vehicles, vessels and other means of travel, or of public edifices and private dwellings, when the act committed shall endanger human life.

19. Obtaining by threats or injury, or by false devices, money, valuables or other personal property, and the purchase of the same with the knowledge that they have been so obtained, when such crimes or offences are punishable by imprisonment or other corporal punishment by the laws of both countries.

20. Larceny, defined to be the theft of effects, personal property, horses, cattle, livestock, or money, of the value of at least twenty-five dollars, or receiving stolen property, of that value knowing it to be stolen.

21. Extradition shall also be granted for the attempt to commit any of the crimes and offences above enumerated, when such attempt is punishable with prison or other corporal penalty by the laws of both Contracting Parties.

IV. That the demanding State present documents which, according to its laws, authorize the provisional arrest and the legal commitment of the offender.

V. That either the offence or penalty has not prescribed, in conformity with the respective laws of both countries.

VI. That the offender, if already sentenced, has not served his sentence.

Article 2. Extradition shall not be granted for political offences or for deeds connected therewith. There shall not be considered as political offences acts which may be classified as pertaining to anarchism, by the legislation of both the demanding country and the country from whom the demand is made.

Article 3. In no case can the nationality of the person accused prevent his or her surrender under the conditions stipulated by the present Treaty, but no Government shall be bound to grant the extradition of its own citizens, reserving to itself the right to surrender them when in its judgment it is proper to do so.

Article 4. If the person whose extradition is demanded is subject to penal proceedings, or is detained for having committed an offence in the country where he has sought refuge, his delivery shall be delayed until the end of the proceedings, or until he has served his sentence.

Civil obligations contracted by the accused in the country of refuge shall not be an obstacle to his delivery.

Article 5. Extradition, when granted, does not authorize the trial and punishment, of the party surrendered, for a crime different from the one that may have served as ground for the corresponding demand; unless it has connection therewith and is founded upon the same proof as that of the demand.

This stipulation is not applicable to crimes or felonies committed after extradition.

Article 6. If another State or States, by virtue of stipulations in treaties, demand the surrender of the same individual by reason of different felonies, preference shall be given to the demand of the State in whose territory the greatest offence has been committed in the judgment of the State upon which the requisition has been made. If the felonies should be considered of the same degree, preference shall be given to the State that may have priority in the demand for extradition, and if all the demands bear the same date, the country upon which the demand is made shall determine the order of surrender.

Article 7. The requests for extradition shall be presented by the respective diplomatic or consular agents; and, in the absence of these, directly by one Government to another; and they shall be accompanied by the following documents:

I. In regard to alleged delinquents, a legalized copy of the penal law applicable to the offence for which the demand is made, and of the commitment and other requisites referred to in Clause IV of Article 1, shall be furnished.

II. With regard to those already sentenced, a legalized copy of the final sentence of condemnation.

All data and antecedents necessary to prove the identity of the person whose surrender is asked for, shall also accompany the demand.

Article 8. In cases of urgency, the provisional detention of the individual asked for may be granted on a telegraphic request, from the demanding Government to the Minister of Foreign Affairs, or to the proper authority of the country upon which the demand shall be made, and wherein a promise shall be made of sending the documents mentioned in the foregoing article; but the person detained shall be set free, if such documents are not presented within the term that may be designated by the nation on which the demand has been made, provided such term shall not exceed three months, to be counted from the date of the detention.

Article 9. The demand for extradition, insofar as the procedure is concerned, the determination of the genuineness of its origin, the admission and competency of the exception with which they can be opposed by the criminal or fugitive demanded, shall be submitted, whenever they do not conflict with the prescriptions of this Treaty, to the decision of the competent authorities of the country of refuge, which shall proceed in accordance with the legal provisions and practices established for such a case in said country. The fugitive criminal is guaranteed the right of habeas corpus, or the protection (recurso de amparo) of his individual guarantees.

Article 10. All property which may be found in the possession of the accused, should he have obtained it through the perpetration of the act of which he is accused, which may serve as a proof of the crime for which his extradition is asked, shall be confiscated and delivered up with his person. Nevertheless, due recognition shall be given to the rights of third parties to the confiscated articles, provided they are not implicated in the accusation.

Article 11. The transit through the territory of one of the Contracting States of any individual delivered by a third country to another State not belonging to the country of transit, shall be granted on the simple presentation, either of the original or of a legalized copy of the resolution granting the extradition by the Government of the country of refuge.

Article 12. All expenses connected with extradition of the fugitive shall be for the account of the demanding State, with the exception of the compensation to the public functionaries who receive a fixed salary.

Article 13. The extradition of any individual guilty of acts of anarchism can be demanded whenever the legislation of the demanding State and of that on which the demand is made has established penalties for such acts. In such case, it shall be granted, although the individual whose extradition be demanded may be liable to imprisonment of less than two years.

Article 14. The Contracting Governments agree to submit to arbitration all controversies which may arise out of the interpretation or carrying into effect of this Treaty, when all means for a direct settlement by friendly agreements shall have failed.

Each Contracting Party shall name an arbitrator, and the two shall name an umpire, in case of dispute. The Committee of Arbitrators shall adopt the rules for the arbitration proceedings in every case.

Article 15. The present Treaty shall remain in force for five years from the day on which the last exchange of ratifications shall have been made and shall remain in force for another term of five years, if it should not have been denounced twelve months before the expiration of that period. In case any Government or Governments should denounce it, it shall remain in force among the other Contracting Parties. This Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged in the City of Mexico, within one year from the time of its being signed.

Article 16. If any of the High Contracting Parties should have concluded treaties of extradition among themselves, such treaties shall be amended only in the part modified or altered by the provisions of the present Treaty.

Transitory Article

The representatives of Costa Rica, Ecuador, Honduras and Nicaragua sign this Treaty with the reserve that their respective Governments shall not deliver the culprit who deserves the death penalty, according to the legislation of the demanding countries, except under the promise that such penalty shall be commuted for the one next below in severity.

If the Governments of the above-mentioned Delegations sustain the same reserve on ratifying the present Treaty, the latter will only bind them with those Governments which accept the conditions referred to.

In testimony whereof the Plenipotentiaries and Delegates sign the present Treaty and set thereto the seal of the Second International American Conference;

Made in the City of Mexico, on the twenty-eighth day of January nineteen hundred and two, in three copies written in Spanish, English and French respectively which shall be deposited at the Department of Foreign Relations of the Government of the Mexican United States, so that certified copies thereof may be made, in order to send them through the diplomatic channel to the signatory States.

Here follow the signatures of the Delegates.

d) Assaults committed on board a ship on the high seas for the purpose of causing serious bodily harm;

e) Desertion from the navy or army. Criminal destruction of munitions or stores on land or at sea.

23. Crimes or offenses against the laws of the contracting parties directed at the suppression of slavery and the slave trade.

24. Attacks against individual freedom and the inviolability of the home, committed by private individuals.

Article 3. When the crime or offense that is the reason for extradition has been committed, attempted, or frustrated outside the requesting State, extradition may be granted only when the legislation of the requested State authorizes the prosecution of such infractions when they are committed outside its jurisdiction.

Article 4. Extradition shall not be granted in the case of any fugitive from justice if the act on which it is based is considered in the requested State as a political offense or a related act, and no person surrendered by any of the contracting States to another shall be tried or punished for any political crime or offense or any act connected therewith, committed prior to his extradition. Nor shall extradition be granted if the requested person proves that it has been made for the purpose of trying or punishing him for a political offense or a related act.

An attempt in any form or by any means upon the life of a chief of state shall not be considered a political offense or related act.

Should any question arise as to whether a case is covered by the provisions of this article, the decision of the authorities of the requested or granting State shall be final.

Article 5. Nor shall extradition be granted in the following cases:

a) When, according to the laws of either State, the maximum penalty for the participation that is imputed to the person claimed, does not exceed imprisonment for six months;

b) When, according to the laws of the State to which the request is directed, the action or the penalty to which the person tried or convicted was subjected is barred by limitation;

c) When the individual whose extradition is requested has already been tried and set free or has paid his penalty, or when the deeds imputed have been the object of an amnesty or a pardon.

Article 6. The request for extradition shall be made scrupulously through diplomatic channels.

Article 7. When the person claimed has been charged or convicted by the requested State, the surrender, when otherwise proper, shall not be effected until the person claimed has been acquitted or pardoned or has served the sentence, or until the trial has been concluded in some way.

Article 8. The request for extradition shall be accompanied by the sentence, if the fugitive has been tried and convicted; or by the warrant of arrest issued by the competent court, with the exact designation of the offense or crime that motivates the request and of the date of its perpetration, as well as of the statements or other evidence by virtue of which the said warrant has been issued, in the event that the fugitive has only been charged.

These documents shall be presented in originals or in duly certified copies, and there shall be attached to them a copy of the text of the law applicable to the case and, insofar as possible, the description of the person claimed.

Extradition of fugitives by virtue of the provisions of the present treaty shall be effected in accordance with the extradition laws of the requested State.

In no case shall extradition be effected if a similar act is not punishable by the law of the requested nation.

Article 9. Provisional arrest of the fugitive shall be effected if an order of arrest issued by the competent court is produced through diplomatic channels. Provisional arrest shall also be effected if notice is given, even by telegraph, through diplomatic channels to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the requested State, that there is a warrant of arrest. In case of urgency, principally when it is feared that the defendant will flee, provisional arrest requested directly by a judicial official may be granted by a police authority or by a trial judge of the place where the fugitive is found.

The provisional arrest shall end if, within the term applicable by reason of distance, the request for extradition is not made in accordance with the stipulations contained in Article 8.

Article 10. The death penalty shall not be applied to a convict unless it is permitted in the country that surrenders him.

Article 11. The person extradited may not be tried or punished in the State that claims him, except for the acts mentioned in the request for extradition, nor may he be surrendered to another nation unless he has had freedom to leave that State for one month after being sentenced, after paying the penalty, or after being pardoned, as the case may be. In all these cases, the person extradited shall be advised of the consequences to which his remaining in the territory of the nation would expose him.

Article 12. All the objects that constitute the corpus delicti, those that stem from the crime, or those that have served to commit it, as well as any other evidence of guilt that may have been found in the possession of the fugitive, shall, upon the decision of the competent authority, be surrendered to the demanding State, insofar as this can be done and is in accordance with the laws of the respective nations.

Nevertheless, the rights of third persons with respect to those objects shall be duly respected.

Article 13. When a person is claimed by several States at the same time, preference shall be determined by the prior assertion of claim, unless the nation of asylum is obliged by a previous treaty to give preference in some other manner.

Article 14. If the demanding State has not taken possession of the person claimed within three months from the day on which he was placed at its disposal, the prisoner shall be set free, and he may not be arrested again for the same cause.

Article 15. The expenses occasioned by the arrest, detention, examination, and surrender of fugitives, by virtue of this Agreement, shall be paid by the State that requests extradition; and the person who is to be surrendered shall be taken to the port of the requested State that is indicated by the requesting government or its diplomatic agent, at whose expense he shall be embarked.

Article 16. If the accused so requests, the Supreme Court of Justice of the requested nation shall decide whether or not the offense alleged is to be considered of a political character or connected with a political offense.

Article 17. This Agreement shall have a duration of five years counted from one month following the exchange of ratifications thereof, and shall not have retroactive effect.

After the completion of that term it shall be understood to be extended until one of the contracting States communicates to the others its will to make it cease one year following notification.

Article 18. Except as provided in the present Agreement, the signatory States recognize the institution of asylum, in accordance with the principles of international law.

Article 19. When it is necessary, for the surrender of a defendant whose extradition has been granted by one nation in favor of another to cross the territory of an intermediate State, transit shall be authorized by that State without any requirement other than the exhibition through diplomatic channels of evidence in the form of the decree of extradition issued by the government that granted it.

In witness whereof they sign this Agreement in five copies of the same text at Caracas, July 18, 1911.

Persons accused of or condemned for common crimes taking refuge in any of the places mentioned in the preceding paragraph, shall be surrendered upon request of the local government.

BOOK IV - TITLE III

Extradition

Article 344. In order to render effective the international judicial competence in penal matters each of the contracting States shall accede to the request of any of the others for the delivery of persons convicted or accused of crime, if in conformity with the provisions of this title, subject to the dispositions of the international treaties and conventions containing a list of penal infractions which authorize the extradition.

Article 345. The contracting States are not obliged to hand over their own nationals. The nation which refuses to give up one of its citizens shall try him.

Article 346. Whenever before the receipt of the request, a person accused or convicted has committed an offense in the country from which his delivery is requested, the said delivery may be postponed until he is tried and has served sentence.

Article 347. If various contracting States should request the extradition of a delinquent for the same offense, he should be delivered to that one in whose territory the offense has been committed.

Article 348. In case the extradition is requested for different acts, the preference shall belong to the contracting State in whose territory the most grievous offense has been committed, according to the legislation of the State upon which the request was made.

Article 349. If all the acts imputed should be equally grave, the preference shall be given to the contracting State which first presents the request for extradition. If all have applied simultaneously, the State upon which the request was made shall decide, but the preference should be given to the State of origin, or in the absence thereof, to that of the domicile of the accused, if such State is among those requesting extradition.

Article 350. The foregoing rules in respect to preference shall not be applicable if the contracting State is obligated toward a third one, by reason of treaties in force prior to the adoption of this Code, to establish a different method.

Article 351. In order to grant extradition it is necessary that the offense has been committed in the territory of the State requesting it, or that its penal laws are applicable to it in accordance with the provisions of Book III of this Code.

Article 352. Extradition extends to persons accused or convicted as principals, accomplices, or abettors of a consummated offense.

Article 353. It is necessary that the act which gives rise to the extradition be a criminal offense in the legislation of the State making the request and in that upon which it is made.

Article 354. It shall be likewise necessary that the penalty attached to the alleged acts, according to their provisional or final description by the competent judge or court of the State requesting the extradition, is not less than one year of deprivation of liberty, and that the arrest or detention of the accused has been ordered or decided upon, in case final sentence has not been delivered. The sentence should be deprivation of liberty.

Article 355. Political offenses and acts related thereto, as defined by the requested State, are excluded from extradition.

Article 356. Nor shall it be granted, if it is shown that the request for extradition has been in fact made for the purpose of trying or punishing the accused for an offense of a political character in accordance with the same definition.

Article 357. Homicide or murder of the head of a contracting State or of any other person who exercises authority in said State, shall not be deemed a political offense nor an act related thereto.

Article 358. Extradition shall not be granted if the person demanded has already been tried and acquitted, or served his sentence, or is awaiting trial, in the territory of the requested State for the offense upon which the request is based.

Article 359. Nor should extradition be granted if the offense or the penalty is already barred by limitation by the laws of the requesting or requested State.

Article 360. In all cases in which the legislation of the requested State prevents extradition it is an indispensable requirement that such legislation be enacted before the commission of the crime.

Article 361. Consuls general, consuls, vice consuls, or consular agents may request the arrest and delivery on board of a vessel or aircraft of their country of the officers, sailors, or members of the crew of its war or merchant ships or aircraft who may have deserted therefrom.

Article 362. For the purposes of the preceding article, they shall exhibit to the proper local authority, delivering also to it an authenticated copy thereof, the register of the ship or aircraft, the crew list, or any other official document upon which the request is founded.

Article 363. In adjoining countries special rules may be agreed upon for extradition in the regions or localities of the boundary.

Article 364. The request for extradition should be made through agents duly authorized for this purpose by the laws of the petitioning State.

Article 365. Together with the final request for extradition the following should be submitted:

1. A sentence of conviction or a warrant or order of arrest or a document of equal force, or one which obliges the interested party to appear periodically before the criminal court, together with such parts of the record in the case as furnish proof or at least some reasonable evidence of the guilt of the person in question.

2. The filiation of the person whose extradition is requested, or such marks or circumstances as may serve to identify him.

3. An authenticated copy of the provisions establishing the legal definition of the act which gives rise to the request for extradition, describing the participation imputed therein to the defendant and prescribing the penalty applicable.

Article 366. The extradition may be requested by telegraph and, in that case the documents mentioned in the preceding article shall be presented to the requesting country or to its legation or consulate general in the requesting country, within two months following the detention of the accused. Otherwise he shall be set at liberty.

Article 367. Moreover, if the requesting State does not dispose of the person demanded within three months following his being placed at its disposal, he shall be set at liberty.

Article 368. The person detained may use, in the State to which the request for extradition is made, all legal means provided for its nationals for the purpose of regaining their freedom, basing the exercise thereof on the provisions of this Code.

Article 369. The person detained may also thereafter use the legal remedies which are considered proper in the State which requests the extradition, against the qualifications and resolutions upon which the latter is founded.

Article 370. The delivery should be made together with all the effects found in the possession of the person demanded, whether as proceeds of the alleged crime, or whether to be used as evidence, insofar as practicable in accordance with the laws of the State effecting the delivery and duly respecting the rights of third persons.

Article 371. The delivery of the effects referred to in the preceding article can be made, if requested by the State requesting the extradition, even though the detained person dies or escapes before it is effected.

Article 372. The expenses of detention and delivery shall be borne by the requesting State, but the latter shall not, in the meanwhile, have to defray any expenses for the services rendered by the public paid employees of the government from which extradition is requested.

Article 373. The charge for the services of such public employees or officers as receive only fees or perquisites shall not exceed their customary fees for their acts or services under the laws of the country in which they reside.

Article 374. All liability arising from the fact of a provisional detention shall rest upon the requesting State.

Article 375. The passage of the extradited person and his custodians through the territory of a third contracting State shall be permitted upon presentation of the original document which allows the extradition, or of an authenticated copy thereof.

Article 376. A State which obtains extradition of an accused who is afterwards acquitted shall be obliged to communicate to the State which granted it an authenticated copy of the judgment.

Article 377. The person delivered can not be detained in prison nor tried by the contracting State to which he is delivered for an offense different from the one giving rise to the extradition and committed prior thereto, unless it is done with the consent of the requested State, or unless the extradited person remains free in the territory of the former for three months after his trial and acquittal for the offense which gave rise to the extradition, or after having served the sentence of deprivation of liberty imposed upon him.

Article 378. In no case shall the death penalty be imposed or executed for the offense upon which the extradition is founded.

Article 379. Whenever allowance for temporary detention is proper, it shall be computed from the time of the detention of the extradited person in the State to which the request was made.

Article 380. The detained person shall be set free if the requesting State does not present the request for extradition in a reasonable period, within the least time possible after temporary arrest, taking into account the distance and facilities of postal communication between the two countries.

Article 381. If the extradition of a person has been refused, a second request on account of the same crime cannot be made.

DECLARATIONS AND RESERVATIONS MADE AT THE TIME OF SIGNING THE BUSTAMANTE CODE

Reservations of the Argentine Delegation:

The Argentine Delegation places on record the following reservations which it formulates to the project of Convention of Private International Law, submitted to the consideration of the Sixth International Conference of American States:

1. It understands that the codification of Private International Law should be "gradual and progressive", especially as regards institutions which present in the American Republics identical or analogous fundamental features.
2. It ratifies the force of the Treaties of International Civil Law, of International Penal Law, of International Commercial Law and of International Procedural Law, approved at Montevideo in the year 1889, with their respective Conventions and Protocols.
3. It does not accept principles which modify the "law of domicile", especially as regards everything which opposes the text and spirit of Argentine civil legislation.
4. It does not approve provisions affecting directly or indirectly the principle upheld by the civil and commercial legislation of the Argentine Republic to the effect that "juristic persons owe their existence exclusively to the law of the State which authorizes them and are therefore neither national nor foreign; their functions are determined by said law, in accordance with the precepts derived from the 'domicile' which that law acknowledges to such persons."
5. It does not accept principles which admit or tend to approve divorces ad vinculum.
6. It accepts the system of the "unity of successions" with the limitation derived from the lex rei sitae as regards immovable property.
7. It accepts all principles tending to acknowledge in favor of women the same civil rights granted to adult males.
8. It does not approve those principles modifying the doctrine of jus soli as a means of acquiring nationality.
9. It does not accept precepts solving conflicts of "dual nationality" in a manner prejudicial to the exclusive application of jus soli.
10. It does not accept rules authorizing the intervention of diplomatic or consular agents in inheritance proceedings concerning foreigners, except such principles as have already been established in the Argentine Republic regulating such intervention.
11. As regards the regulation of bills of exchange and checks in general, it accepts no provisions which may modify the criteria accepted in previous world conferences, such as those of The Hague of 1919 and 1912.

12. It makes specific reservation of the application of the "law of the flag" to questions relating to maritime law, especially as regards the charter party and its legal effect, as it considers that these should be subject to the law and jurisdiction of the country of the port of destination.

This principle was successfully upheld by the Argentine branch of the International Law Association, at its 31st Session and is now one of the "Buenos Aires rules."

13. It reaffirms the principle that offenses committed on airships within the national aerial domain or on foreign merchant ships should be tried and punished by the authorities and the laws of the States where such ships may be found.

14. It ratifies the thesis, approved by the American Institute of International Law at its session of 1927 in Montevideo, to the effect that "the nationality of the accused cannot be invoked as a ground for refusing his extradition."

15. It does not accept the principles regulating international labor questions on the juridical status of laborers, for the reasons it submitted at the sessions of the International Commission of Jurists of Rio de Janeiro in 1927, when Article 198 of the project of Convention of International Civil Law was being discussed.

The Argentine Delegation reiterates what it has heretofore declared at the meetings of Committee No. 3 that it ratifies in the Sixth International Conference of American States the votes cast and the attitude assumed by the Argentine Delegation at the sessions of the International Commission of Jurists held in Rio de Janeiro during the months of April and May, 1927.

Declaration of the Delegation of the United States of America:

The Delegation of the United States of America regrets very much that it is unable at the present time to approve the Code of Dr. Bustamante, as in view of the Constitution of the United States of America, the relations among the States members of the Union and the powers and functions of the Federal Government, it finds it very difficult to do so. The Government of the United States of America firmly maintains its intention not to dissociate itself from Latin America, and therefore, in accordance with Article Six of the Convention which permits any Government to adhere later thereto, it will make use of the privilege extended by this article in order that, after carefully studying the Code in all its provisions, it may be enabled to adhere to at least a large portion thereof. For these reasons, the Delegation of the United States of America reserves its vote in the hope, as has been stated, of adhering partly or to a considerable number of the Code's provisions.

Declaration of the Delegation of Uruguay:

The Delegation of Uruguay formulates reservations to the end that its position be consistent with that held in the International Commission of Jurists at Rio de Janeiro by Doctor Pedro Varela, professor in the Faculty of Law at the University in Uruguay. At the same time the Delegation declares that Uruguay gives its approval to the Code as a whole.

Reservations of the Delegation of Paraguay:

1. The Delegation declares that Paraguay maintains its adhesion to the Treaties of International Civil Law, International Commercial Law, International Penal Law, and International Procedural Law which were approved at Montevideo in 1888 and 1889, together with the Conventions and Protocols attached thereto.

2. It does not agree to modify the system of the "law of the domicile", sanctioned by the civil legislation of the Republic.

3. It maintains adhesion to the principle of its internal legislation that juristic persons owe their existence exclusively to the law of the State which authorizes them and are, therefore, neither national nor foreign; their functions are determined by special law, pursuant to the principles arising from the domicile.

4. It accepts the system of the "unity of successions" with the limitation derived from the lex rei sitae as regards immovable property.

5. It is in accord with every principle tending to recognize in favor of women, the same civil rights conferred upon adult males.

6. It does not accept principles which may modify the system of jus soli as a means of acquiring nationality.

7. It does not agree to precepts which solve the problem of "dual nationality" with prejudice to an exclusive application of the jus soli.

8. It adheres to the criteria, accepted in world conferences, relative to the regulation of bills of exchange and checks.

9. It makes a reservation as to the application of the "law of the flag" on matters relative to maritime law.

10. It agrees that crimes committed on airships within the aerial national domain, or on foreign merchant ships, should be tried by the courts of the State where such ships may happen to be.

Reservation of the Delegation of Brazil:

The substitute amendment it proposed to Article 53 having been rejected, the Delegation of Brazil withholds its approval of Article 52, which gives jurisdiction to the law of the matrimonial domicile for regulating separation and divorce; and likewise of Article 54.

Declaration of the Delegations of Colombia and of Costa Rica:

The Delegations of Colombia and of Costa Rica subscribe to the Code of Private International Law as a whole with the express reservation as to everything which may be in contradiction with the Colombian or Costa Rican legislations.

With respect to juristic persons, our view is that they should be subject to the local law as regards everything relating to their "concept and recognition", as wisely provided by Article 32 of the Code, in contradiction, —at least apparently—with other provisions thereof, such as Articles 16 to 21.

For the undersigned Delegations, juristic persons can not have any nationality either under scientific principles or in the view of the highest and most permanent interests of America. It would have been preferable that in this code which we are going to enact, there should have been omitted everything which might serve to assert that juristic persons, particularly those with capital stock, have nationality.

The undersigned Delegations, upon accepting the compromise set forth in Article 7 between the European doctrine of the personality of the law and the genuinely American doctrine of domicile for regulating the civil status and capacity of persons in private international law, declare that they accept this compromise in order not to delay the issuance of this Code, to which all the nations of America are looking forward as one of the most transcendental accomplishments of this Conference; but the subscribing Delegations emphatically assert that such a compromise should be transitory because juridical unity must be accomplished in the continent around the law of the domicile, the only one which effectively safeguards the sovereignty and independence of the peoples of America. Immigration countries, as these Republics are or will be, cannot but regard with the greatest concern that European immigrants should bring with them the pretension of invoking in America their own laws of origin, to determine here their civil status as to contractual capacity. To accept this possibility (which is sanctioned by the principle of national law, partially acknowledged in the Code), amounts to creating in America a State within a State and to placing ourselves almost under the capitulation regime which Europe imposed during centuries on the nations of Asia, which she considered as inferior in their international relations. The undersigned Delegations earnestly hope that very soon there will disappear from the American legislations all traces of theories (more political than legal) favored by Europe in order to preserve her jurisdiction over her nationals, who have established themselves in these free lands of America, and they hope that the legislation of the continent will be unified in accordance with the principles that subject alien immigrants to the unrestricted force of the local laws. With the hope, therefore, that very soon the doctrine of the domicile will be the one to regulate in America the civil status and capacity of persons, and feeling assured that it will constitute one of the most characteristic aspects of juridical Pan Americanism, which we are all anxious to create, the undersigned Delegations vote in favor of the Code of Private International Law and accept the doctrinal compromise on which it is inspired.

As regards the provisions relative to divorce, the Delegation of Colombia formulates its unqualified reservation to the regulation of divorce by the law of the matrimonial domicile, because it considers that for such purpose and in view of the exceptionally transcendental and sacred character of marriage (basis of society and of the State itself) Colombia cannot accept the application within her territory of alien laws.

The subscribing Delegations also desire to record their enthusiastic admiration for the fruitful efforts of Dr. Sánchez de Bustamante which this Code embodies in its five hundred articles, formulated in clear-cut phrases, which can well serve as models for the legislators of all countries. From this day on Dr. Sánchez de Bustamante will not only be one of the most eminent sons of Cuba, but also one of the foremost citizens of the great American fatherland which can justly feel proud of raising egregious scientists and statesmen like the author of the Code of Private International Law which we have considered, and which the Sixth International Conference of American States is about to sanction on behalf of all the Americas.

Reservations of the Delegation of El Salvador:

First Reservation: Especially applicable to Articles 44, 146, 176, 232, and 233.

With respect to the incapacities to which aliens may be subjected in accordance with their personal law for disposing by will, for entering into contracts, for appearing in court, and for engaging in commerce or participating in commercial transactions or contracts, the reservation is made that said incapacities will not be acknowledged in El Salvador in cases where the transactions or contracts in question have been executed in El Salvador without contravention of the Salvadorean Law and to take effect within its national territory.

Second Reservation: Applicable to Article 187, last paragraph.

As to community of property imposed upon spouses by their personal law under the legislation of a foreign state, it will be recognized in El Salvador only if confirmed by contract between the interested parties and all requirements which the Salvadorean law now provides or may hereafter provide with respect to property located in El Salvador are complied with.

Third Reservation: Especially applicable to Articles 327, 328, and 329.

The Delegation of El Salvador makes the reservation that insofar as El Salvador is concerned the jurisdiction of foreign judges or tribunals in inheritance hearings and proceedings and in creditors' suits and bankruptcy cases affecting immovables located in El Salvador, will be unacceptable.

Reservations of the Delegation of the Dominican Republic:

1. The Delegation of the Dominican Republic desires to maintain the supremacy of its national law in all questions relating to the status and capacity of the Dominicans wherever they may be, and for this reason it cannot accept, except with reservations, those provisions of the project of Code which accord supremacy to the "law of the domicile" or to the local law: all this notwithstanding the conciliatory principle set forth in Article 7 of the project and of which Article 53 of the same is an application.

2. As regards nationality, Title I, Book I, Articles 9 et sequa, we formulate a reservation with respect, first, to the nationality of juristic persons, and second, in a special manner, regarding the general principle of our political Constitution in accordance with which no other nationality shall be acknowledged to any Dominican citizen except that of the Dominican Republic as long as he resides in its territory.

3. With reference to the domicile of foreign juristic persons, whichever may be their charters and whatever the place where they may have established their domicile, wherever their principal office may be located, et cetera, we make reservation of the following principle of public order in the Dominican Republic: any physical or moral person conducting activities of a juridical nature within its territory shall have for its domicile the place where it keeps an establishment, an agency, or any representative whatsoever. This domicile attributes jurisdiction to the national tribunals in those juridical relations concerning acts which have taken place in the country, whatever their nature may be.

Declaration of the Delegation of Ecuador:

The Delegation of Ecuador has the honor to subscribe in its entirety the Convention of the Code of Private International Law, in homage to Dr. Bustamante. It does not deem it necessary to set forth any reservation, preserving only the general power, provided in the Convention itself, which leaves the Governments at liberty to ratify it.

Declaration of the Delegation of Nicaragua:

The Republic of Nicaragua will be unable to apply the provisions of the Code of Private International Law which may be in conflict with the Canon Law in matters which now or in the future Nicaragua may consider to be subject to such Canon Law.

The Nicaraguan Delegation declares, as it has previously done several times verbally throughout the discussions, that some of the provisions of the approved Code are in disagreement with express provisions of the legislation of Nicaragua or with principles which form the basis of such legislation; but, as deserved homage to the notable work of the illustrious author of this Code, it chooses, instead of formulating the corresponding reservations, to make these declarations and to leave to the public authorities of Nicaragua the formulation of such reservations or the modification, as far as possible, of the national legislation, in cases of conflict.

Declaration of the Delegation of Chile:

The Delegation of Chile is pleased to offer its warmest congratulations to the eminent and learned jurist of America, Dr. Antonio Sánchez de Bustamante, for the great work he has done in drafting a project of Code of Private International Law, destined to regulate the relations among the Republics of America. This work is a precious contribution to the furthering of juridical Pan Americanism, which all countries of the New World desire to see strengthened and developed. Although this great task of codification cannot be accomplished in a brief span of time, because it needs mature thought on the part of the States which are to participate in it, the Delegation of Chile will not be an obstacle to the approval of a Code of Private International Law by this Pan American Conference; but it will reserve its vote on such matters and questions as it may deem advisable, especially those points relating to the traditional policy or legislation of Chile.

Declaration of the Delegation of Panama:

When casting its vote in favor of the Project of Code of Private International Law at the meeting of the Committee held on January 27th ultimo, the Delegation of the Republic of Panama stated that at an opportune time it would present such reservations as it might deem necessary, should the need arise. This attitude of the Delegation of Panama was due to certain doubts it entertained with reference to the meaning and scope of some of the provisions contained in the Project, particularly as regards the application of the national law to foreigners residing in the country, as this would have given rise to a real conflict, because in the Republic of Panama ever since its establishment as an independent nation, the system of the territorial law has been in force. However, the Delegation of Panama considers that all the difficulties which could possibly arise in this delicate matter have been foreseen and wisely obviated by Article 7 of the Project, in accordance with which "each contracting State shall apply as personal law that of the domicile or that of the nationality, or that which its domestic legislation may have prescribed or may hereafter prescribe". As in the case of all other States subscribing and ratifying the Convention, Panama, therefore, will be at full liberty to apply its own law, which is the territorial law.

With matters so understood, it is highly gratifying for the Delegation of Panama to declare, as it does, that it extends its approval without reservations of any kind to the Project of Code of Private International Law, or Bustamante Code, as it should be called in honor of its author.

Declaration of the Delegation of Guatemala:

Guatemala has incorporated into its civil legislation the doctrine of domicile, but even if such were not the case, the conciliatory articles of the Code harmonize perfectly any conflict which might arise between different States due to their affiliation with diverse schools.

In consequence, therefore, the Delegation of Guatemala is in perfect accord with the method which, with so much wisdom, caution, ingenuity, and scientific judgment, is set forth in the Project of Code of Private International Law, and it desires to leave express record of its absolute acceptance of the latter without reservations of any kind.

RESERVATIONS MADE AT THE TIME OF

Bolivia:

With the reservations formulated by the Bolivian Delegation, with respect to articles not in accord with the legislation of the country and international treaties signed by Bolivia.

Brazil:

With reservations made at the time of signing.

Chile:

With the reservation formulated by the Delegates of Chile, and also that, in Chilean law and with relation to conflicts that may appear between Chilean legislation and any foreign legislation, the provisions of the present or future legislation of Chile shall prevail over said Code, in case of disagreement.

Costa Rica:

With the reservations made by the Delegation of Costa Rica, it being understood that such reservations refer not only to our present legislation but also to any future legislation.

Dominican Republic:

With reservations made at the time of signing.

Ecuador:

Insofar as it is not opposed to the Constitution and Laws of the Republic.

El Salvador:

First: Especially applicable to Articles 44, 146, 176, 232, and 233:

With respect to the incapacities to which aliens may be subjected in accordance with their personal law for disposing by will, for entering into contracts, for appearing in court, and for engaging in commerce or participating in commercial transactions or contracts, the reservation is made that said incapacities will not be acknowledged in El Salvador in cases where the transactions or contracts have been executed in El Salvador without contravention of the Salvadorean law and to take effect within its national territory.

' Second: Applicable to Article 187, last paragraph:

As to community of property imposed upon spouses by their personal law under the legislation of a foreign state, it will be recognized in El Salvador only if confirmed by contract between the interested parties and all requirements which the Salvadorean law now provides or may hereafter provide with respect to property located in El Salvador are complied with.

Third: Especially applicable to Articles 327, 328, and 329:

Insofar as El Salvador is concerned, the jurisdiction of foreign judges or tribunals in inheritance hearings and proceedings and in creditors' suits and bankruptcy cases affecting immovables located in El Salvador, will be unacceptable.

Fourth: The Republic of El Salvador does not renounce its legislative power to prescribe in the future the laws or provisions that it believes convenient on the subjects of private international law contained in the Bustamante Code; and Fifth: It considers the Convention on Private International Law as a body of juridical doctrine of great value in jurisprudence, but deems it to be as yet of insufficient force to prevail over the express provisions of the Salvadorean law in every matter in which that body of doctrine contradicts or modifies them.

This approval does not restrict the legislative power of El Salvador to prescribe in the future the laws or provisions that it believes convenient on the subjects of private international law contained in the Bustamante Code; and

In the event that the juridical doctrines contained in the said Convention are at variance with or modify in any way the laws of El Salvador, they shall not prevail over said laws.

Haiti:

With reservations as to Articles 383, 385, 386, and 387 of said Code.

Venezuela:

Venezuela reserves acceptance of Articles 16, 17, 18, 24, 35, 39, 43, 44, 49, 50, 57, 58, 62, 64, 65, 67, 70, 74, 87, 88, 139, 144, 157, 174, 247, 248, 301, 324, 348, 360, 378, and from 423 to 435.

Since in Venezuela there is no life imprisonment, exception is taken concerning this point.

CONVENTION ON EXTRADITION

(Signed at Montevideo, December 26, 1933 at the Seventh International Conference of American States)

Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1937, Vol. VI, 1932-1934, American Union, 1952, page 24.

The Governments represented in the Seventh International Conference of American States:

Wishing to conclude a Convention on Extradition, have appointed the following Plenipotentiaries:

Here follow the names of the Plenipotentiaries

Who, after having exhibited their Full Powers, which were found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following:

Article 1. Each one of the signatory States in harmony with the stipulations of the present Convention assumes the obligation of surrendering to any one of the States which may make the requisition, the persons who may be in their territory and who are accused or under sentence. This right shall be claimed only under the following circumstances:

a) That the demanding State have the jurisdiction to try and to punish the delinquency which is attributed to the individual whom it desires to extradite.

b) That the act for which extradition is sought constitutes a crime and is punishable under the laws of the demanding and surrendering States with a minimum penalty of imprisonment for one year.

Article 2. When the person whose extradition is sought is a citizen of the country to which the requisition is addressed, his delivery may or may not be made, as the legislation or circumstances of the case may, in the judgment of the surrendering State, determine. If the accused is not surrendered, the latter State is obliged to bring action against him for the crime with which he is accused, if such crime meets the conditions established in sub-article (b) of the previous article. The sentence pronounced shall be communicated to the demanding State.

Article 3. Extradition will not be granted:

a) When, previous to the arrest of the accused person, the penal action or sentence has expired according to the laws of the demanding or the surrendering State.

b) When the accused has served his sentence in the country where the crime was committed or when he may have been pardoned or granted an amnesty.

c) When the accused has been or is being tried by the State to which the requisition was directed for the act with which he is charged and on which the petition of extradition is based.

d) When the accused must appear before any extraordinary tribunal or court of the demanding State (tribunal o juzgado de excepción del Estado requeriente). Military courts will not be considered as such tribunals.

e) When the offense is of a political nature or of a character related thereto. An attempt against the life or person of the Chief of State or members of his family, shall not be deemed to be a political offense.

f) When the offense is purely military or directed against religion.

Article 4. The determination of whether or not the exceptions referred to in the previous article are applicable shall belong exclusively to the State to which the request for extradition is addressed.

Article 5. A request for extradition should be formulated by the respective diplomatic representative. When no such representative is available, consular agents may serve, or the governments may communicate directly with one another. The following documents in the language of the country to which the request for extradition is directed, shall accompany every such request:

a) An authentic copy of the sentence, when the accused has been tried and condemned by the courts of the demanding State.

b) When the person is only under accusation, an authentic copy of the order of detention issued by the competent judge, with a precise description of the imputed offense, a copy of the penal laws applicable thereto, and a copy of the laws referring to the prescription of the action or the penalty.

c) In the case of an individual under accusation as also of an individual already condemned, there shall be furnished all possible information of a personal character which may help to identify the individual whose extradition is sought.

Article 6. When a person whose extradition is sought shall be under trial or shall be already condemned in the State from which it is sought to extradite him, for an offense committed prior to the request for extradition, said extradition shall be granted at once, but the surrender of the accused to the demanding State shall be deferred until his trial ends or his sentence is served.

Article 7. When the extradition of a person is sought by several States for the same offense, preference will be given to the State in whose territory said offense was committed. If he is sought for several offenses, preference will be given to the State within whose bounds shall have been committed the offense which has the greatest penalty according to the law of the surrendering State.

If the case is one of different acts which the State from which extradition is sought esteems of equal gravity, the preference will be determined by the priority of the request.

Article 8. The request for extradition shall be determined in accordance with the domestic legislation of the surrendering State and the individual whose extradition is sought shall have the right to use all the remedies and resources authorized by such legislation, either before the judiciary or the administrative authorities as may be provided for by the aforesaid legislation.

Article 9. Once a request for extradition in the form indicated in Article 5 has been received, the State from which the extradition is sought will exhaust all necessary measures for the capture of the person whose extradition is requested.

Article 10. The requesting State may ask, by any means of communication, the provisional or preventive detention of a person, if there is, at least, an order by some court for his detention and if the State at the same time offers to request extradition in due course. The State from which the extradition is sought will order the immediate arrest of the accused. If within a maximum period of two months after the requesting State has been notified of the arrest of the person, said State has not formally applied for extradition, the detained person will be set at liberty and his extradition may not again be requested except in the way established by Article 5.

The demanding State is exclusively liable for any damages which might arise from the provisional or preventive detention of a person.

Article 11. Extradition having been granted and the person requested put at the disposition of the diplomatic agent of the demanding State, then, if, within two months from the time when said agent is notified of same, the person has not been sent to his destination, he will be set at liberty, and he cannot again be detained for the same cause.

The period of two months will be reduced to forty days when the countries concerned are conterminous.

Article 12. Once extradition of a person has been refused, application may not again be made for the same alleged act.

Article 13. The State requesting the extradition may designate one or more guards for the purpose of taking charge of the person extradited, but said guards will be subject to the orders of the police or other authorities of the State granting the extradition or of the States in transit.

Article 14. The surrender of the person extradited to the requesting State will be done at the most appropriate point on the frontier or in the most accessible port, if the transfer is to be made by water.

Article 15. The objects found in the possession of the person extradited, obtained by the perpetration of the illegal act for which extradition is requested, or which might be useful as evidence of same, will be confiscated and handed over to the demanding country, notwithstanding it might not be possible to surrender the accused because of some unusual situation such as his escape or death.

Article 16. The costs of arrest, custody, maintenance, and transportation of the person, as well as of the objects referred to in the preceding article, will be borne by the State granting the extradition up to the moment of surrender and from thereon they will be borne by the demanding State.

Article 17. Once the extradition is granted, the demanding State undertakes:

- a) Not to try nor to punish the person for a common offense which was committed previous to the request for extradition and which has not been included in said request, except only if the interested party expressly consents.
- b) Not to try nor to punish the person for a political offense, or for an offense connected with a political offense, committed previous to the request for extradition.
- c) To apply to the accused the punishment of next lesser degree than death if according to the legislation of the country of refuge the death penalty would not be applicable.
- d) To furnish to the State granting the extradition an authentic copy of the sentence pronounced.

Article 18. The signatory States undertake to permit the transit through their respective territories of any person whose extradition has been granted by another State in favor of a third, requiring only the original or an authentic copy of the agreement by which the country of refuge granted the extradition.

Article 19. No request for extradition may be based upon the stipulations of this Convention if the offense in question has been committed before the ratification of the Convention is deposited.

Article 20. The present Convention will be ratified by means of the legal forms in common use in each of the signatory States, and will come into force, for each of them, thirty days after the deposit of the respective ratification.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uruguay shall transmit authentic certified copies to the governments for the aforementioned purpose of ratification. The instrument of ratification shall be deposited in the archives of the Pan American Union in Washington, which shall notify the signatory governments of said deposit. Such notification shall be considered as an exchange of ratifications.

Article 21. The present Convention does not abrogate or modify the bilateral or collective treaties, which at the present date are in force between the signatory States. Nevertheless, if any of said treaties lapse, the present Convention will take effect and become applicable immediately among the respective States, if each of them has fulfilled the stipulations of the preceding article.

Article 22. The present Convention shall remain in force indefinitely but may be denounced by means of one year's notice given to the Pan American Union, which shall transmit it to the other signatory governments. After the expiration of this period the Convention shall cease in its effects as regards the party which denounces but shall remain in effect for the remaining High Contracting Parties.

Article 23. The present Convention shall be open for the adherence and accession of the States which are not signatories. The corresponding instruments shall be deposited in the archives of the Pan American Union, which shall communicate them to the other High Contracting Parties.

CENTRAL AMERICAN CONVENTION ON EXTRADITION *

Bibliography: Manley O. Hudson, International Legislation, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1937, Vol. VI, 1932-1934, Numbers 304-401, page 833.

The Governments of the Republics of Guatemala, Costa Rica, Honduras, Nicaragua, and El Salvador, desiring to confirm their friendly relations and to promote the cause of justice, have resolved to celebrate a Convention for the Extradition of Fugitives from Justice, and, to that end, have named as delegates:

/Here follow the names of the delegates/

Who, after having communicated to one another their respective full powers which were found to be in good and due form, have agreed to carry out the said purpose in the following manner:

Article 1. The Contracting Republics agree to deliver up reciprocally the individuals who may take refuge in the territory of one of them and who in the other may have been condemned, as authors, accomplices or abettors of a crime, to not less than two years of deprivation of their liberty, or who may have been indicted for a crime which, in accordance with the laws of the country seeking the extradition, carries a penalty equal to or greater than that above stated.

* Supersedes the conventions signed at Washington, D. C. in 1907 (See Br. and For. St. Papers, page 848) and in 1923 (See Manley O. Hudson, International Legislation, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, 1931, Vol. II, 1922-1924, Numbers 65-133, page 954.) The Pan American Union has no information on the ratification of this convention.

Article 2. Extradition shall not be granted in any of the following cases:

1. When the evidence of criminality presented by the country seeking extradition would not have been sufficient to justify, according to the laws of the place where the accused fugitive from justice is found, his apprehension and commitment for trial, if the offense had been committed there.

2. When the offense is of a political character, or, being a common crime, is connected therewith.

3. When under the laws of the country seeking extradition or of that of asylum, the action or the penalty has been barred.

4. If the accused demanded should have already been tried and sentenced for the same offense in the Republic wherein he resides.

5. If the accused should have served the sentence which may have been imposed upon him for the same crime in any other country.

6. If, in that country, the act for which extradition is asked is not considered a crime.

7. When the penalty corresponding to the crime for which extradition is requested shall be that of death, unless the Government seeking extradition binds itself to apply the next lower penalty.

Article 3. The person whose extradition is conceded, because of one of the crimes mentioned in Article 1, shall in no case be tried and punished in the country to which he is surrendered for a political crime committed before his extradition nor for an act which may have connection with a political crime. Attempts against the life of the head of a government or public functionaries and anarchistic attacks shall not be considered political crimes, provided that the law of the country seeking extradition and of the country of which extradition is requested shall have fixed a penalty for said acts. In that case extradition shall be granted, even when the crime in question shall carry a penalty of less than two years of deprivation of liberty.

Article 4. The Contracting Parties shall not be obliged to deliver their nationals; but they must try them for the infractions of the Penal Code committed in any of the other Republics. The respective Governments must communicate the corresponding proceedings, information and documents, and deliver the articles which constitute the corpus delicti, furnishing everything that may contribute to the elucidation needed for the expedition of the trial. This having been done, the case shall be prosecuted until its determination, and the Government of the country of the trial shall inform the other of the final result.

Article 5. If the individual whose extradition is sought should have been indicted or should have been found guilty in the country of his asylum for a crime committed therein, he shall not be delivered except after having been acquitted by a final judgment, and in case of his conviction after he has served the sentence or has been pardoned.

Article 6. If the fugitive whose extradition is requested by one of the Contracting Parties should also be sought by one or more Governments he shall be delivered in preference to the one first making the requisition.

Article 7. Request for the delivery of fugitives shall be made by the respective diplomatic agents of the Contracting Parties and, in default of the latter, by consular officers.

In urgent cases the provisional detention of the accused may be requested by means of telegraphic or postal communication, addressed to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, or through the respective diplomatic agent, or in his absence, through the consul. The provisional arrest shall be made according to the rules established by the laws of the country of which extradition is requested; but shall cease if the request for extradition has not been formally presented within the term of one month following the arrest.

Article 8. The request for extradition shall specify the proof or presumptive evidence which, by the laws of the country wherein the crime has been committed, shall be sufficient to justify the apprehension and commitment of the accused. The judgment, indictment, warrant of arrest, or any other equivalent document shall also accompany the same; and the nature and gravity of the acts charged and the provisions of the penal codes which are applicable thereto must be indicated. In case of flight after having been found guilty and before serving the entire sentence, the request for extradition shall express the circumstance and shall be accompanied only by the judgment.

Article 9. The proper authority shall apprehend the fugitive, in order that he may be brought before the competent judicial authority for examination. Should it be decided, according to the laws and the evidence presented, that the surrender can be carried out in conformity with this Convention, the fugitive shall be delivered in the manner prescribed by law in such cases.

The country seeking extradition shall take the necessary measures to receive the accused within one month from the date when the latter shall have been placed at its disposal, and if said Government should fail to do so, the aforesaid accused may be released.

Article 10. The person delivered cannot be tried nor punished in the country to which his extradition has been granted, nor delivered to a third country, for a crime not included in this Convention, and committed before his surrender, unless the Government which makes the surrender consents to the trial, or to the delivery to said third nation.

Nevertheless this consent shall not be necessary:

1. When the accused may voluntarily have requested that he be tried or delivered to the third nation;

2. When he may have been at liberty to leave the country for thirty days after his release, on the ground of the lack of foundation in the charge for which he was surrendered, or, in case of conviction, a term of thirty days after serving his sentence or obtaining a pardon.

Article 11. The expenses of arrest, maintenance, and travel of the extradited person, as well as of the delivery and transportation of the articles which, because of their connection with the crime, have to be returned or forwarded, shall be borne by the Government seeking extradition.

Article 12. All the objects found in the possession of the accused and obtained through the commission of the act of which he is accused, or that may serve as evidence of the crime on account of which extradition is requested, shall be confiscated and delivered with his person upon order of competent authority of the country from which extradition is sought. Nevertheless the rights of third parties concerning these articles shall be respected, and delivery thereof shall not be made until the question of ownership has been determined.

Article 13. In all cases of detention the fugitive shall be acquainted within the term of twenty-four hours with the cause thereof, and notified that he may, within a period not to exceed three days counted from the one following that of the notification, oppose extradition, by alleging:

1. That he is not the person claimed;
2. Substantial defects in the documents presented; and
3. The inadmissibility of the request of extradition.

Article 14. In cases where it is necessary to prove the facts alleged, evidence shall be taken, in full observance of the provisions of the law of procedure of the Republic of which extradition is requested. The evidence having been produced, the matter shall be decided without further steps, within the period of ten days, and it shall be declared whether or not the extradition shall be granted. Against such a decision and within three days following notification thereof, the legal remedies of the country of asylum may be invoked.

Article 15. The present Convention shall take effect with respect to the Parties that have ratified it, from the date of its ratification by at least three of the signatory States.

Article 16. The present Convention shall remain in force until the first of January, nineteen hundred and forty-five, regardless of any prior denunciation, or any other cause.

From the first of January, nineteen hundred and forty-five, it shall continue in force until one year after the date on which one of the Parties bound thereby notifies the others of its intention to denounce it. The denunciation of this Convention by one or two of said Contracting Parties shall leave it in force for those Parties which have ratified it and have not denounced it, provided that these be no less than three in number. Should two or three states bound by this Convention form a single political entity, the same Convention shall be in force as between the new entity and the Republics bound thereby which have remained separate, provided these be no less than two in number. Any of the Republics of Central America which should fail to ratify this Convention shall have the right to adhere to it while it is in force.

Article 17. The exchange of ratifications of the present Convention shall be made through communications addressed by the Governments to the Government of Guatemala in order that the latter may inform the other Contracting States. If the Government of Guatemala should ratify the Convention, notice of said ratification shall also be communicated to the others.

Article 18. When the present Convention becomes effective the one celebrated in the city of Washington on February 7, 1923, on the same subject will cease to be in effect.

Signed in the city of Guatemala on the 12th day of April 1934.

TREATY ON POLITICAL ASYLUM AND REFUGE *

(Signed in Montevideo on August 4, 1939 at the Second South American Congress on Private International Law)

Bibliography: The American Journal of International Law, Vol. 37,
Number 3, July 1943, page 99.

His Excellency the President of the Republic of Peru; His Excellency the President of the Argentine Republic; His Excellency the President of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay; His Excellency the President of the Republic of Bolivia; His Excellency the President of the Republic of Paraguay; and His Excellency the President of the Republic of Chile.

In view of the fact that the principles governing asylum which were established by the Treaty on International Penal Law signed at Montevideo on January 23, 1889, require amplification in order that they may cover the new situations which have arisen and may serve to confirm the doctrines already sanctioned in America, have agreed to conclude the present Treaty on Political Asylum and Refuge through the medium of their respective plenipotentiaries, assembled in congress in the City of Montevideo as a result of the initiative taken by the Governments of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay and the Argentine Republic.

Here follow the names of the plenipotentiaries.

The aforesaid representatives, having presented their full powers, which were found to be in due form, and after holding the appropriate conferences and discussions, have agreed upon the following provisions:

Chapter I. On Political Asylum

Article 1. Asylum may be granted without distinction of nationality, and without prejudice to the rights and obligations of protection appertaining to the State to which the refugees belong.

The State which grants asylum does not thereby incur an obligation to admit the refugees into its territory, except in cases where they are not given admission by other States.

* Revision of the Treaty on International Penal Law signed at the First South American Congress on Private International Law, Montevideo, 1888-1889.

Article 2. Asylum may be granted only in embassies, legations, men-of-war, military camps or military airplanes, and exclusively to persons pursued for political reasons or offenses, or under circumstances involving concurrent political offenses, which do not legally permit of extradition. The chiefs of mission may also receive refugees in their residences, in cases where the former do not live on the premises of the embassies or legations.

Article 3. Asylum shall not be granted to persons accused of political offenses, who shall have been indicted or condemned previously for common offenses, by the ordinary tribunals.

The determination of the causes which induce the asylum appertains to the State which grants it.

Asylum may not be granted to deserters from the sea-, land-, or air forces, except when the act is clearly of a political character.

Article 4. The diplomatic agent or military commander who grants asylum shall immediately communicate the names of the refugees to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the State where the act in question occurred, or to the administrative authorities of the locality, if the said act has taken place outside the seat of government, except when grave circumstances materially impede such communication or make it dangerous to the safety of the refugees.

Article 5. While the asylum continues, the refugees shall not be permitted to commit acts which may disturb the public tranquillity or may tend toward participation in, or influence upon, political activities. The diplomatic agents or military commanders shall require of the refugees information as to their personal history, and a promise not to enter into external communications without the express intervention of the former. This promise shall be in writing and signed; and if the refugees should refuse to accept, or should violate, any of these conditions, the diplomatic agent or commander shall immediately terminate the asylum. The refugees may be forbidden to carry with them articles other than those destined for personal use, the papers which belong to them, and the money necessary for their living expenses, the deposit of any other securities or articles in the place of asylum being prohibited.

Article 6. The Government of the State may demand that a given refugee be removed from the national territory within the shortest possible time; and the diplomatic agent or military commander who has granted the asylum may, for his part, demand the necessary guaranties before the refugee is permitted to leave the country, with due regard for the inviolability of the latter's person, and of the papers belonging to him and carried with him at the time when he received asylum, as well as for the funds necessary to support him for a reasonable time. In the absence of such guaranties, the departure may be postponed until the local authorities shall make them available.

Article 7. Once they have left the State, the refugees shall not be landed in any other part of it. In case an ex-refugee should return to the country in question, he shall not be accorded new asylum if the disturbance which led to the original grant subsists.

Article 8. When the number of refugees exceeds the normal capacity of the places of refuge specified in Article 2, the diplomatic agents or military commanders may provide other places, under the protection of their flag, for the safety and lodging of the said refugees. In such cases, the agents or commanders must communicate that fact to the authorities.

Article 9. Men-of-war or military airplanes temporarily located in dry-docks or workshops for repairs, shall not accord protection to persons who take refuge in them.

Article 10. If, in a case of severance of relations, the diplomatic representative who has granted asylum should have to leave the territory of the country where he is located, he shall depart from it accompanied by the refugees; or, if this should be impossible for some reason not dependent upon the choice of the refugees or of the diplomatic agent, he may deliver them to the agent of a third State, with the guaranties specified in this treaty. Such delivery shall be effected by the transfer of the said refugees to the premises of the diplomatic mission which shall have accepted the charge in question, or by leaving the refugees on the premises where the archives of the departing diplomatic mission are kept; and these premises shall remain under the direct protection of the diplomatic agent to whom that function has been intrusted. In either case, the local Ministry for Foreign Affairs shall be duly advised, in conformity with the provisions of Article 4.

Chapter II. On Asylum in Foreign Territory

Article 11. Asylum granted within the territory of the high contracting parties, in conformity with the present treaty, is an inviolable asylum for persons pursued under the conditions described in Article 2; but it is the duty of the State to prevent the refugees from committing within its territory, acts which may endanger the public peace of the State from which they come.

The determination of the causes that induce the asylum appertains to the State which grants it.

The grant of asylum does not entail for the State which makes that grant, any obligation to admit the refugees indefinitely into its territory.

Article 12. Political emigrants shall not be permitted to establish juntas or committees for the purpose of instigating or promoting disturbances of order in any of the contracting States. Such juntas or committees shall be disbanded, upon proof of their subversive character, by the authorities of the State where they are found to exist.

Discontinuance of the benefits of asylum does not imply authorization to place a refugee in the territory of the pursuing State.

Article 13. Upon the request of the interested State, the one which has granted asylum shall undertake to keep watch over or to intern political emigrants, within a reasonable distance from its frontiers. The State receiving the request shall determine the propriety of the petition and shall fix the distance in question.

Article 14. The State making the request shall be liable for all expenses incurred in the internment of political refugees and emigrants.

Prior to the internment of the refugees, the States involved shall come to an agreement concerning their maintenance.

Article 15. Political internees shall advise the Government of the State where they are located, when they decide to leave its territory. Their departure shall be permitted on condition that they do not go to the country of their origin, and notice of this permission shall be given to the interested State.

Chapter III. General Provisions

Article 16. Any difference which may arise concerning the application of this treaty shall be decided through diplomatic channels, or, in default thereof, shall be submitted to arbitration or judicial decision, provided that there is a tribunal whose jurisdiction both parties recognize.

Article 17. Any State which has not signed the present treaty may adhere to it by sending its instrument of adhesion to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay, which shall notify the other high contracting parties, through diplomatic channels, of that adhesion.

Article 18. This treaty shall be ratified by the high contracting parties in accordance with their constitutional rules. The original treaty and the instruments of ratification shall be deposited with the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay, which shall communicate the ratifications, through diplomatic channels, to the other contracting States. The treaty shall go into effect among the high contracting parties in the order in which they have deposited their ratifications. The corresponding notification shall be considered as an exchange of ratifications.

Article 19. This treaty shall remain in force indefinitely, but may be denounced through notice given two years in advance, after the lapse of which period it shall cease to bind the denouncing State, but shall continue to be binding upon the other signatory States. Denunciations must be addressed to the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay, which shall transmit them to the other contracting States.

Here follow the signatures of the plenipotentiaries.

Note: The following countries have deposited the instrument of ratification, without reservation, with the Government of Uruguay: Uruguay and Paraguay.

The following countries signed this treaty, but have not deposited the instrument of ratification: Bolivia, Argentina, Chile and Peru.

TREATY ON INTERNATIONAL PENAL LAW *

(Signed in Montevideo on March 19, 1940 at the

Bibliography: The American Journal of International Law, Vol. 37,
Number 3, July 1943, page 122.

His Excellency the President of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay; His Excellency the President of the Republic of the United States of Brazil; His Excellency the President of the Republic of Colombia; His Excellency the President of the Republic of Bolivia; His Excellency the President of the Argentine Republic; His Excellency the President of the Republic of Peru, and His Excellency the President of the Republic of Paraguay,

Have agreed to conclude the present treaty through the medium of their respective plenipotentiaries, assembled in congress in the City of Montevideo as a result of the initiative taken by the Governments of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay and the Argentine Republic.

Here follow the names of the plenipotentiaries.

The said representatives, having presented their full powers, which were found to be in due form, having taken into consideration the fact that the Treaty on International Penal Law signed at Montevideo on January 23, 1889, might well be subjected to a process of revision for the purpose of modifying and harmonizing the rules therein laid down, and bearing in mind the conferences and discussions held in this connection, have agreed upon the following provisions:

* Revision of the Treaty on International Penal Law signed at the First South American Congress on Private International Law, Montevideo, 1888-1889.

TITLE I. OF JURISDICTION AND THE LAW APPLICABLE THERETO

Article 1. Crimes, whatever may be the nationality of the agent, of the victim, or of the injured party, shall be tried by the tribunals, and punished according to the laws, of the State in whose territory they are committed.

Article 2. Crimes affecting two or more States and committed by one or more offenders, shall come under the jurisdiction of the judges or tribunals of the place where the said crimes were perpetrated; and the local laws must be applied in the corresponding proceedings.

If the crime was perpetrated in more than one country, it shall come under the jurisdiction of the tribunals of the first State to take judicial cognizance thereof, and the laws of that State must apply.

Article 3. In cases involving connected crimes committed by one or more offenders, whether as principals, as accomplices, or as harbormen, in the territory of two or more signatory States, preference shall be given in regard to trial of the crime, to the authorities and penal law of the country in which the more serious offense was perpetrated, a matter which shall be left to the discretion of the requested State.

Article 4. In the cases to which Articles 2 and 3 refer, the judge of the proceedings shall communicate with the Executive Power, in order that the latter may notify the States interested in the trial, of the institution of proceedings.

Article 5. Acts committed in the territory of a given State, which are not susceptible of punishment according to its own laws but which are punishable by the State wherein they produce their effects, may not be tried by the judges or tribunals of the latter unless the offender shall be found within its jurisdiction.

A similar rule applies with respect to those crimes for which the extradition of the offenders is not authorized.

In cases involving acts committed by public functionaries who are serving in a foreign country, if such acts constitute a criminal violation of the specific duties attached to the office with which they have been entrusted, the foregoing rule shall not apply, and the said functionaries shall be tried and punished by the judges or tribunals of the offenders' own State, in conformity with its laws.

Article 6. Any of the signatory States may expel, in accordance with its laws, alien offenders who have taken refuge in its territory, provided that after the appropriate request has been presented to the authorities of the country where any of the extraditable crimes were committed, the surrender of the said offenders is not requested, through the channel of extradition, within ninety days.

Article 7. The principles of public international law shall be observed for the trial of crimes committed by any of the functionaries of a diplomatic mission or by any member of their respective suites.

A similar procedure shall be followed with respect to Chiefs of State and their suites; and also with respect to members of armed forces, when the crime has been committed within the bounds of the place where they are stationed, and bears a legal relationship to the said forces.

Article 8. Crimes committed on the high seas, whether on board airplanes, or on men-of-war, or on merchant ships, must be tried and punished according to the law of the State whose flag the vessel flies.

Article 9. Crimes perpetrated on board men-of-war or military planes of one State, while these are in the territorial waters of another State, shall be tried by the tribunals, and punished according to the laws, of the State to which the said men-of-war or airplanes belong.

If only persons who do not belong to the crew of the warship or airplane, participate in the commission, on board, of such acts, prosecution and punishment shall be conducted in accordance with the laws of the State within whose territorial waters the warship or airplane is located.

The laws of the country to which the ship or airplane belongs, shall also govern the trial and punishment of such punishable acts as are committed elsewhere than on board by members of the crew or by individuals charged with the exercise of some function on board, when the said acts affect only the disciplinary order of those ships or planes.

Article 10. Crimes committed on board vessels other than vessels of war shall be tried and punished by the judges or tribunals, and according to the laws, of the State in whose territorial waters a given vessel was located at the time when such a crime was committed.

If the crimes are committed on board private airplanes which are not in flight, the corresponding trial and imposition of punishment shall be conducted according to the laws, and by the judges of the territory where the crimes occurred.

Article 11. Trial and punishment for crimes committed on board airplanes or on men-of-war or on merchant ships, under the conditions specified in Articles 2 and 3, shall be conducted according to the provisions laid down in those articles.

Article 12. For the purposes of criminal jurisdiction, territorial waters are declared to be those included in a belt five miles wide running along the coast of the mainland or of the islands which constitute part of the territory of the various States.

Article 13. A riparian State has the right to continue on the high seas a pursuit begun within its territorial waters, as well as the right to arrest and try the vessel that has committed an offense within the said waters. In all cases where a capture is effected on the high seas, that fact shall be communicated without delay to the State whose flag the vessel flies. The pursuit must be broken off instantly when the vessel enters other/ territorial waters, or a port belonging to its own country or to a third State.

Article 14. International piracy, traffic in narcotics, white slavery, and the destruction or damage of submarine cables, are subject to the jurisdiction and law of the State into whose power the offenders may come, regardless of the place where such crimes were committed; but without prejudice to the preferential right of the State in which the criminal acts were perpetrated, to request the extradition of the offenders.

Article 15. Crimes committed on board airplanes in flight over a foreign State shall come under the jurisdiction of the latter if the airplane should make its first landing there. Otherwise, such jurisdiction shall appertain to the State in whose territory that first landing is made, and the laws of the subjacent State shall apply. When it is not possible to determine the territory over which the crime was committed, the case shall be governed by the law of the State whose flag the plane flies.

The pilot of an airplane in flight, who has been notified of the commission of a crime, is bound to land at the first known airport and inform the authorities of that port.

Article 16. Prescription of actions and of penalties shall be determined by the judges or tribunals, and in accordance with the laws, of the State to which cognizance of the crimes in question appertains.

Article 17. A judgment rendered in any of the signatory States shall be recognized in those States for the purpose of establishing the repetition or habitual commission of the offense, or a tendency thereto, on the part of the accused; and also in order to make it obligatory that he accede, while he is in their territory, to indemnification of the damage, to measures of security against his person, and to the interdiction resulting from the proceedings.

The signatory States shall furnish reports in regard to the judicial or police antecedents on file in their archives, if they are requested to do so by another interested State.

TITLE II. OF EXTRADITION

Chapter I. Of the System of Extradition

Article 18. The contracting States bind themselves to surrender, if they are requested to do so, persons who have been prosecuted or condemned by the authorities of one of those States, and who are found in the territory of another.

The request for surrender shall be granted in accordance with the procedural formalities in force within the requested State, provided that the following conditions are both met:

(a) The person to be surrendered must have been condemned by final judgment to one year in prison, at least; or, if the case concerns an indicted person, the crime that constitutes the subject-matter of the prosecution must be punishable, according to the laws of the requesting State, by a minimum intermediate penalty of two years' imprisonment. Half the sum of the extremes within which the particular penalty involving deprivation of liberty is fixed, shall be considered as the intermediate penalty.

(b) The requesting State must have jurisdiction to try and to pass sentence concerning the crime which motivates the demand, even when the acts involved have been committed outside the territory of the contracting States.

Article 19. The nationality of the accused may not be invoked as a reason for refusing extradition, except when a constitutional provision establishes otherwise.

Article 20. Extradition shall not be granted:

(a) For the crime of dueling;

(b) For the crime of adultery;

(c) For the crimes of libel and slander, even when perpetrated through the medium of the press;

(d) For political crimes;

(e) For common crimes committed with a political purpose, except when, in the opinion of the judge or tribunal receiving the request, the common character manifestly predominates;

(f) For common crimes in cases where, in the opinion of the judge or tribunal of the requested State, it can be inferred from the attendant circumstances that the purpose in making that request is preponderantly political;

(g) For essentially military crimes, exclusive of those governed by the common law. If the person sought is charged with a military crime which is also punishable by the common law, he shall be surrendered with the reservation that he is to be tried only in accordance with the said law and by the ordinary tribunals;

(h) When the person sought has been or is being tried, for the same act and in accordance with the provisions of this treaty, in the requested State; or when the action or penalty has been invalidated by prescription, according to the laws of the requesting State, before the seizure of the accused;

(i) When the person sought would have to appear before a tribunal or court taking cognizance of exceptions.

The determination of the character of the offenses involved appertains exclusively to the authorities of the requested State, on the basis of the law more favorable to the accused.

Article 21. No civil or commercial action involving the accused shall hinder his extradition.

Article 22. When the individual sought is deprived of his freedom by virtue of a prosecution or a service of sentence in the requested State, his surrender may be postponed until the restriction on his freedom has been removed, or the sentence has been served; but in the meantime, prescription of the action or penalty in question shall be suspended.

Article 23. The murder of the Chief of a contracting State, or an attempt upon his life, shall not be regarded as a political crime or act connected therewith.

Article 24. Persons whose extradition has been granted may not be tried for crimes previous to those on which the extradition is based.

Crimes constituting grounds for extradition may be tried and punished, provided that the requested State gives its consent previously and in conformity with the terms of this treaty.

Article 25. When the extradition of a given individual is demanded by different States, and the demands are based upon the same crime, preference shall be accorded to that of the State in whose territory the crime was perpetrated; or, if it was committed in different countries, preference shall be given to the first demand.

If different acts are involved, preference in granting the extradition shall be given to the State in whose territory the more serious crime was committed, according to the judgment of the requested State.

In cases involving different acts which the requested State regards as equally serious, the preference shall be determined by the order in which the requests are received.

Article 26. In the cases contemplated in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the foregoing article, the requested State may, as a condition of granting the extradition, stipulate that the person demanded must also be subject to ulterior extradition.

Article 27. In no case shall the death penalty be imposed for the crime for which extradition has been granted.

Article 28. The foregoing rules will apply in the case of persons condemned to measures of security, provided that the latter consist of deprivation or restriction of freedom, and that for their extinction more than a year has yet to elapse.

Chapter II. Of Extradition Procedure

Article 29. The demand for extradition must be made by the appropriate diplomatic agent or, in default thereof, either by the consular agents or directly from Government to Government; and it must be accompanied, according to whether the persons involved are accused or condemned persons, either by a copy of the order of imprisonment or judicial order providing for deprivation of freedom, issued by the competent authorities, or by an authenticated copy of the judgment of condemnation.

The records supplied must include a precise statement as to the act on which the charge is based, and the date and place of its occurrence. The said records shall be accompanied by copies of the laws applicable to the case, as well as by copies of those relative to prescription as it affects the action or penalty in question. Data and information regarding antecedents, to facilitate identification of the person sought, shall also be included.

Article 30. The demand for extradition of a condemned person cannot be based on a sentence rendered by default, that is to say, a sentence rendered when the accused has not been personally summoned to defend, or when he has been summoned but has not appeared. However, the requested extradition may be granted if the requesting State promises to reopen the case in such a way as to allow for the defense of the accused.

Article 31. If the demand for extradition has been made in due form, the requested Government shall send the documents on the case to the competent judge or tribunal, who must pass upon the propriety of the said demand, on the basis of the provisions contained in Articles 29 and 30; and, whenever the case warrants such action, the said judge or tribunal shall take the necessary steps for the apprehension of the person sought, ordering his arrest and the seizure of the articles involved in the crime, if they believe this to be the proper procedure.

Article 32. If the judge of the requested State considers that the demand is legally inadmissible because of some defect of form, he shall advise the judge of the requesting State as to what documents are lacking and shall fix a reasonable time-limit for their remission.

Article 33. In cases where the arrest is made, the party concerned shall be informed of the cause of arrest within twenty-four hours.

Within a period of three days and no more, reckoned from the day following the notification, the interested party may oppose exceptions based on the following grounds:

- (a) Incompetence of the judge of the requested State who ordered the arrest;
- (b) The fact that the said party is not the person sought;
- (c) Defects of form in the documents presented;
- (d) Impropriety of the demand for extradition.

Article 34. In cases where it is necessary to verify the allegations, the question shall be laid open for proof; and the provisions of the procedural law of the requested State shall govern with respect to such proof and to the time allowed for it.

Article 35. When the proof has been produced, a decision on the question shall be reached without further proceedings, by a declaration as to whether or not grounds for extradition exist.

In cases where cognizance of the demand appertains originally to the judge of first instance, the decision shall be appealable to the competent tribunal.

Article 36. If the sentence is favorable to the demand for extradition, the tribunal which renders the decision shall communicate it immediately to the Executive Power, in order that he may take the steps necessary for the surrender of the culprit.

If the sentence is unfavorable, the judge or tribunal, once it has become final, shall order the immediate release of the prisoner and shall so advise the Executive Power, enclosing a copy of the said sentence in order that the Executive may bring it to the knowledge of the requesting Government.

Article 37. If the prisoner acquiesces in the demand, the judge or tribunal shall draw up a statement regarding the terms of that acquiescence, and shall, without further proceedings, declare that extradition is proper.

Article 38. Articles found in the possession of the person sought, if they were acquired in consequence of the act in question, if they were used in its execution, if the act was perpetrated upon them, or if they constitute evidence in some other way, shall be seized and delivered to the demanding State, even though the extradition may fail to take place owing to the death or disappearance of the accused.

Article 39. In cases where the delivery of the accused is to be effected over a land route, the requested State shall transfer him to the most suitable point on the frontier.

When his transfer must be effected over a maritime, fluvial or air route, he shall be delivered to those agents whom the requesting State may appoint, at the most suitable port or airdrome of embarkation.

The requesting State may, in any case, appoint one or more police agents; but they shall act as subordinates of the agents or authorities representing the territory of the requested State, or that of the State of transit.

Article 40. If it should be necessary to traverse the territory of an intermediate State in order to surrender a prisoner whose extradition has been agreed to by one State in favor of another, such transit shall be permitted by the said intermediate State without any requirement other than the exhibition through diplomatic channels of the proper attestation, in the form of a decree of extradition which authorized the surrender.

Article 41. The expenses incurred in the extradition of the offender shall be borne by the requested State until the moment when the surrender takes place; and thenceforth, they shall be borne by the requesting Govern-

Article 42. When extradition of a person under indictment has been accorded, the Government whose request was granted shall communicate to the Government that granted it, the final judgment pronounced in the case which constituted the grounds for extradition.

Article 43. When extradition has been accorded, and the person sought has been placed at the disposal of the diplomatic, consular or police agent of the demanding State, he shall be released if, within a period of forty days from the date of the pertinent communication, he has not been sent to his destination; always provided that no request for a reasonable delay has been presented. In such circumstances, no new demand based upon the same grounds will be admissible.

Article 44. When the request for extradition has been granted, the requesting State agrees to try the accused, in accordance with Article 24, exclusively for the act for which he was surrendered and not for any previous act, unless he should remain voluntarily for more than thirty days, after being released, in the territory of the requested State.

Article 45. During the extradition proceedings the person detained may not be released on bail.

TITLE III. OF PROVISIONAL ARREST

Article 46. In urgent cases, the contracting States may request by post or by telegraph that steps be taken for the arrest of the accused and for the seizure of articles connected with the crime, once the nature of that crime has been determined and the existence of an order of imprisonment issued by a competent judge, has been invoked.

In such cases, the prisoner shall be released if, within sixty days from the date of his arrest, the formal demand for extradition, duly drawn up, has not been presented to the requested State.

When that interval has elapsed and the prisoner has been released, his arrest cannot be requested again until after the documents required by Article 29 have been presented.

Article 47. In cases of provisional arrest, the release of the accused shall be effected without prejudice to the retention of the articles mentioned in Article 38, for a reasonable time, to be fixed by the judges of the State which proceeded to the arrest and in accordance with the attendant circumstances.

Article 48. In all cases of provisional arrest, the responsibilities which may arise therefrom appertain to the State that requested it.

TITLE IV. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 49. The simultaneous ratification of this treaty by all of the signatory States is not necessary in order to bring it into operation. The States which approve it shall communicate their approval to the Government of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay, so that the latter may notify the other contracting States to that effect. This procedure shall take the place of an exchange.

Article 50. When the exchange has been made, in the form indicated by the preceding article, this treaty shall be effective from that time forth indefinitely.

Article 51. If any of the contracting States should deem it advisable to withdraw its adherence to the treaty or introduce changes into the said instrument, it shall so advise the other signatories; but the withdrawal shall not take effect until two years after the date of denunciation, during which time an effort to reach a new accord shall be made.

Article 52. No demand for extradition in connection with a crime committed before the exchange of the ratifications of this treaty may be based upon the provisions therein contained.

Article 53. Article 49 applies also to States which have not attended this Congress, but which wish to adhere to the present treaty.

In Witness Whereof, the plenipotentiaries of the aforesaid nations sign the present treaty in Montevideo on the 19th day of March, 1940.

Here follow the signatures of the plenipotentiaries.

Note: The following countries are signatories to this treaty: Argentina, which signed with a reservation, Bolivia, Brazil, Colombia, Paraguay, and Peru. Uruguay, which is the depositary country, has deposited its instrument of ratification.

CONVENTION ON DIPLOMATIC ASYLUM

at the Tenth Inter-American Conference)

Bibliography: Treaty Series No. 18, Pan American Union, 1961,

The governments of the Member States of the Organization of American States, desirous of concluding a Convention on Diplomatic Asylum, have agreed to the following articles:

Article 1. Asylum granted in legations, war vessels, and military camps or aircraft, to persons being sought for political reasons or for political offenses shall be respected by the territorial State in accordance with the provisions of this Convention.

For the purposes of this Convention, a legation is any seat of a regular diplomatic mission, the residence of chiefs of mission, and the premises provided by them for the dwelling places of asylees when the number of the latter exceeds the normal capacity of the buildings.

War vessels or military aircraft that may be temporarily in shipyards, arsenals, or shops for repair may not constitute a place of asylum.

Article 2. Every State has the right to grant asylum; but it is not obligated to do so or to state its reasons for refusing it.

Article 3. It is not lawful to grant asylum to persons who, at the time of requesting it, are under indictment or on trial for common offenses or have been convicted by competent regular courts and have not served the respective sentence, nor to deserters from land, sea, and air forces, save when the acts giving rise to the request for asylum, whatever the case may be, are clearly of a political nature.

Persons included in the foregoing paragraph who de facto enter a place that is suitable as an asylum shall be invited to leave or, as the case may be, shall be surrendered to the local authorities, who may not try them for political offenses committed prior to the time of the surrender.

Article 4. It shall rest with the State granting asylum to determine the nature of the offense or the motives for the persecution.

Article 5. Asylum may not be granted except in urgent cases and for the period of time strictly necessary for the asylee to depart from the country with the guarantees granted by the Government of the territorial State, to the end that his life, liberty, or personal integrity may not be endangered, or that the asylee's safety is ensured in some other way.

Article 6. Urgent cases are understood to be those, among others in which the individual is being sought by persons or mobs over whom the authorities have lost control, or by the authorities themselves, and is in danger of being deprived of his life or liberty because of political persecution and cannot, without risk, ensure his safety in any other way.

Article 7. If a case of urgency is involved, it shall rest with the State granting asylum to determine the degree of urgency of the case.

Article 8. The diplomatic representative, commander of a warship, military camp, or military airship, shall, as soon as possible after asylum has been granted, report the fact to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the territorial State, or to the local administrative authority if the case arose outside the Capital.

Article 9. The official furnishing asylum shall take into account the information furnished to him by the territorial government in forming his judgment as to the nature of the offense or the existence of related common crimes; but this decision to continue the asylum or to demand a safe-conduct for the asylee shall be respected.

Article 10. The fact that the Government of the territorial State is not recognized by the State granting asylum shall not prejudice the application of the present Convention, and no act carried out by virtue of this Convention shall imply recognition.

Article 11. The government of the territorial State, may, at any time, demand that the asylee be withdrawn from the country, for which purpose the said State shall grant a safe-conduct and the guarantees stipulated in Article 5.

Article 12. Once asylum has been granted, the State granting asylum may request that the asylee be allowed to depart for foreign territory, and the territorial State is under obligation to grant immediately, except in case of force majeure, the necessary guarantees, referred to in Article 5, as well as the corresponding safe-conduct.

Article 13. In the cases referred to in the preceding articles the State granting asylum may require that the guarantees be given in writing, and may take into account, in determining the rapidity of the journey, the actual conditions of danger involved in the departure of the asylee.

The State granting asylum has the right to transfer the asylee out of the country. The territorial State may point out the preferable route for the departure of the asylee, but this does not imply determining the country of destination.

If the asylum is granted on board a warship or military airship, departure may be made therein, but complying with the previous requisite of obtaining the appropriate safe-conduct.

Article 14. The State granting asylum cannot be held responsible for the prolongation of asylum caused by the need for obtaining the information required to determine whether or not the said asylum is proper, or whether there are circumstances that might endanger the safety of the asylee during the journey to a foreign country.

Article 15. When, in order to transfer an asylee to another country it may be necessary to traverse the territory of a State that is a party to this Convention, transit shall be authorized by the latter, the only requisite being the presentation, through diplomatic channels, of a safe-conduct, duly countersigned and bearing a notation of his status as asylee by the diplomatic mission that granted asylum.

En route, the asylee shall be considered under the protection of the State granting asylum.

Article 16. Asylees may not be landed at any point in the territorial State or at any place near thereto, except for exigencies of transportation.

Article 17. Once the departure of the asylee has been carried out, the State granting asylum is not bound to settle him in its territory; but it may not return him to his country of origin, unless this is the express wish of the asylee.

If the territorial State informs the official granting asylum of its intention to request the subsequent extradition of the asylee, this shall not prejudice the application of any provision of the present Convention. In that event, the asylee shall remain in the territory of the State granting asylum until such time as the formal request for extradition is received, in accordance with the juridical principles governing that institution in the State granting asylum. Preventive surveillance over the asylee may not exceed thirty days.

Payment of the expenses incurred by such transfer and of preventive control shall devolve upon the requesting State.

Article 18. The official furnishing asylum may not allow the asylee to perform acts contrary to the public peace or to interfere in the internal politics of the territorial State.

Article 19. If as a consequence of a rupture of diplomatic relations the diplomatic representative who granted asylum must leave the territorial State, he shall abandon it with the asylees.

If this is not possible for reasons independent of the wish of the asylee or the diplomatic representative, he must surrender them to the diplomatic mission of a third State, which is a party to this Convention, under the guarantees established in the Convention.

If this is also not possible, he shall surrender them to a State that is not a party to this Convention and that agrees to maintain the asylum. The territorial State is to respect the said asylum.

Every person is under its protection, whatever his nationality.

Article 21. The present Convention shall be open for signature by the Member States of the Organization of American States and shall be ratified by the signatory States in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.

Article 22. The original instrument, whose texts in the English, French, Spanish, and Portuguese languages are equally authentic, shall be deposited in the Pan American Union, which shall send certified copies to the governments for the purpose of ratification. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited in the Pan American Union, and the said organization shall notify the signatory governments of the said deposit.

Article 23. The present Convention shall enter into force among the States that ratify it in the order in which their respective ratifications are deposited.

Article 24. The present Convention shall remain in force indefinitely, but may be denounced by any of the signatory States by giving advance notice of one year, at the end of which period it shall cease to have effect for the denouncing State, remaining in force, however, among the remaining signatory States. The denunciation shall be transmitted to the Pan American Union, which shall inform the other signatory States thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, having presented their plenary powers, which have been found in good and due form, sign this Convention, in the name of their respective Governments, in the city of Caracas, this twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.

RESERVATIONS

Guatemala:

We make an express reservation to Article 2 wherein it declares that the States are not obligated to grant asylum; because we uphold a broad, firm concept of the right to asylum.

Likewise, we make an express reservation to the final paragraph of Article 20 (Twenty), because we maintain that any person, without any discrimination whatsoever, has the right to the protection of asylum.

Uruguay:

The government of Uruguay makes a reservation to Article 2, in the part that stipulates that the authority granting asylum, is, in no case, obligated to grant asylum nor to state its reasons for refusing it. It likewise makes a reservation to that part of Article 15 that stipulates: "...the only requisite being the presentation, through diplomatic channels, of a safe-conduct, duly countersigned and bearing a notation of his status as asylee by the diplomatic mission that granted asylum. En route, the asylee shall be considered under the protection of the State granting asylum." Finally, it makes a reservation to the second paragraph of Article 20, since the government of Uruguay understands that all persons have the right to asylum, whatever their sex, nationality, belief, or religion.

Dominican Republic:

The Dominican Republic subscribes to the above Convention with the following reservations:

First: The Dominican Republic does not agree to the provisions contained in Article 7 and those following with respect to the unilateral determination of the urgency by the State granting asylum; and Second: The provisions of this Convention shall not be applicable, consequently, insofar as the Dominican Republic is concerned, to any controversies that may arise between the territorial State and the State granting asylum, that refer specifically to the absence of a serious situation or the nonexistence of a true act of persecution against the asylum by the local authorities.

Honduras:

The delegation of Honduras subscribes to the Convention on Diplomatic Asylum with reservations with respect to those articles that are in violation of the Constitution and laws in force in the Republic of Honduras.

CONVENTION ON TERRITORIAL ASYLUM

(Signed in Caracas on March 28, 1954
at the Tenth Inter-American Conference)

Bibliography: Treaty Series No. 19, Pan American Union, 1961,
page 7.

The governments of the Member States of the Organization of American States, desirous of concluding a Convention regarding Territorial Asylum, have agreed to the following articles:

Article 1. Every State has the right, in the exercise of its sovereignty, to admit into its territory such persons as it deems advisable, without, through the exercise of this right, giving rise to complaint by any other State.

Article 2. The respect which, according to international law, is due the jurisdictional right of each State over the inhabitants in its territory, is equally due, without any restriction whatsoever, to that which it has over persons who enter it proceeding from a State in which they are persecuted for their beliefs, opinions, or political affiliations, or for acts which may be considered as political offenses.

Any violation of sovereignty that consists of acts committed by a government or its agents in another State against the life or security of an individual, carried out on the territory of another State, may not be considered attenuated because the persecution began outside its boundaries or is due to political considerations or reasons of state.

Article 3. No State is under the obligation to surrender to another State, or to expel from its own territory, persons persecuted for political reasons or offenses.

Article 4. The right of extradition is not applicable in connection with persons who, in accordance with the qualifications of the solicited State, are sought for political offenses, or for common offenses committed for political ends, or when extradition is solicited for predominantly political motives.

Article 5. The fact that a person has entered into the territorial jurisdiction of a State surreptitiously or irregularly does not affect the provisions of this Convention.

Article 6. Without prejudice to the provisions of the following articles, no State is under the obligation to establish any distinction in its legislation, or in its regulations or administrative acts applicable to aliens, solely because of the fact that they are political asylees or refugees.

Article 7. Freedom of expression of thought, recognized by domestic law for all inhabitants of a State, may not be ground of complaint by a third State on the basis of opinions expressed publicly against it or its government by asylees or refugees, except when these concepts constitute systematic propaganda through which they incite to the use of force or violence against the government of the complaining State.

Article 8. No State has the right to request that another State restrict for the political asylees or refugees the freedom of assembly or association which the latter State's internal legislation grants to all aliens within its territory, unless such assembly or association has as its purpose fomenting the use of force or violence against the government of the soliciting State.

Article 9. At the request of the interested State, the State that has granted refuge or asylum shall take steps to keep watch over, or to intern at a reasonable distance from its border, those political refugees or asylees who are notorious leaders of a subversive movement, as well as those against whom there is evidence that they are disposed to join it.

Determination of the reasonable distance from the border, for the purpose of internment, shall depend upon the judgment of the authorities of the State of refuge.

All expenses incurred as a result of the internment of political asylees and refugees shall be chargeable to the State that makes the request.

Article 10. The political internees referred to in the preceding article shall advise the government of the host State whenever they wish to leave its territory. Departure therefrom will be granted, under the condition that they are not to go to the country from which they came and the interested government is to be notified.

Article 11. In all cases in which a complaint or request is permissible in accordance with this Convention, the admissibility of evidence presented by the demanding State shall depend on the judgment of the solicited State.

Article 12. This Convention remains open to the signature of the Member States of the Organization of American States, and shall be ratified by the signatory States in accordance with their respective constitutional procedures.

Article 13. The original instrument, whose texts in the English, French, Portuguese, and Spanish languages are equally authentic, shall be deposited in the Pan American Union, which shall send certified copies to the governments for the purpose of ratification. The instruments of ratification shall be deposited in the Pan American Union; this organization shall notify the signatory governments of said deposit.

Article 14. This Convention shall take effect among the States that ratify it in the order in which their respective ratifications are deposited.

Article 15. This Convention shall remain effective indefinitely, but may be denounced by any of the signatory States by giving advance notice of one year, at the end of which period it shall cease to have effect for the denouncing State, remaining, however, in force among the remaining signatory States. The denunciation shall be forwarded to the Pan American Union which shall notify the other signatory States thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, having presented their plenary powers which have been found in good and satisfactory form, sign this Convention, in the name of their respective Governments, in the city of Caracas, this twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.

RESERVATIONS

Guatemala:

We make express reservation to Article 3 (three) wherein it refers to the surrender of persons persecuted for political reasons or offenses; because according to the provisions of our Political Constitution, we maintain that such surrender of persons persecuted for political reasons may never be carried out.

We affirm, likewise, that the term "internment" in Article 9 means merely location at a distance from the border.

Dominican Republic:

The delegation of the Dominican Republic subscribes to the Convention on Territorial Asylum, with the following reservations:

- Article 1. The Dominican Republic accepts the general principle embodied in that article in the sense that, "Every State has the right to admit into its territory such persons as it deems advisable", but it does not renounce the right to make diplomatic representation to any other State, if for considerations of national security it deems this advisable.
- Article 2. It accepts the second paragraph of this article with the understanding that the latter does not affect the regulations of the frontier police.
- Article 10. The Dominican Republic does not renounce the right to resort to the procedures for pacific settlement of international disputes that may arise from the exercise of territorial asylum.

Mexico:

The delegation of Mexico makes express reservation to Articles 9 and 10 of the Convention regarding territorial asylum because they are contrary to the individual guarantees enjoyed by all the inhabitants of the Republic in accordance with the Political Constitution of Mexico.

Peru:

The delegation of Peru makes reservation to the text of Article 7 of the Convention regarding Territorial Asylum, insofar as it differs from Article 6 of the draft proposal of the Inter-American Council of Jurists, with which the delegation concurs.

Honduras:

The delegation of Honduras gives its approval to the Convention regarding Territorial Asylum with reservations with respect to those articles opposed to the Constitution and to the laws in force in the Republic of Honduras.

Argentina:

The delegation of Argentina has voted in favor of the Convention regarding Territorial Asylum, but makes express reservations in regard to Article 7, as it believes that the latter does not duly consider nor satisfactorily resolve the problem arising from the exercise, on the part of political asylees, of the right of freedom of expression of thought.
