*Being the tail of a guinea pig class,
from beginning to end*

Dr. Leon Levinson

This yearbook is dedicated to the memory of Dr. Leon Levinson, who, through his love of people, his enthusiasm for teaching, and his glowing personality, was an inspiration to this and many other classes at Tufts.

Dedication

*“...perhaps not unscathed...
at least in tact.”*

To the first class to graduate from the School of Medicine of Tufts University may I extend special congratulations on behalf of the whole University for the milestone of achievement which their graduation represented for themselves as well as for all of us. This change in the name of the institution is a symbol of the growing development of the Medical Center of which the School of Medicine is a part and an evidence of the front rank which Tufts University holds in medical education and medical research.

The future role that Tufts will play in medicine is very much in your hands for its success will in no small measure be a product of your interest and your material support. This is no idle or idealistic statement. As you return for your fifth, tenth, and twenty-fifth reunions you will be seeing on each occasion what you have done to make the School of Medicine of Tufts University a continuing leader in its field.

Congratulations and best wishes go with you as you enter upon what in a real sense is the crucial part of your medical careers.

Nils Y. Wessell
President
Tufts University

NILS Y. WESSELL, PRESIDENT
Tufts University

To the Class of 1955

My hearty congratulations, and those of the entire Faculty, on the attainment of your desires to become Doctors of Medicine. You have been tested in the fire of classroom, laboratory and clinic and while perhaps not unscathed, you have at least come through intact.

Now you have before you a long career in your chosen profession which should bring you satisfaction and ample rewards. True satisfaction can only be in the inner conviction of a job done to the best of your ability. Rewards must not be measured in financial success, but in the respect and affection of your colleagues and patients, in the relief of suffering both physical and mental, and in contributions to the sum of human knowledge. You have been more or less helped, guided and corrected up to this time. From now on you are on your own. Remember the last two lines of Henley's poem:

*"I am the captain of my fate,
I am the master of my soul."*

Sincerely yours,
J. M. Hayman, Jr., M.D.

Just an ordinary Werewolf bite . . .

Read & read & read!

A song to sing, it started thus...

POSTPARTUM CRAMSTUNT

As we all pack up and pull out of 136, we find our pockets will not hold everything we've accumulated in four years, so we leave some mementoes behind . . .

George Kandzie leaves his chrysanthemum beds . . . Al Anderson leaves his bicycle . . . Orne and Nicholson leave a broken alarm clock . . . Joe Arena leaves a pocketful of violin strings . . . Aronson, Nicholson, Jones, Karger, Mitchener, Biddle and Riley leave their golf bags . . . Becker and Karno leave their short-length white coats . . . Bender leaves those exam night deliveries . . . Brady leaves thirteen empty beer cases . . .

Of bones and brains, webs and pails...

Bendett leaves Duncan Hines' book . . .
Braverman and Klickstein (Mayo Brothers)
leave their clinic . . . Buckley, Friedman,
Shea and Dingle leave four valuable years
. . . Chase leaves a lead gasket for the fifth floor . . . Ching leaves a disgruntled disposition . . . Dean leaves his barbells . . . Cohen leaves a used cigar and several used women
. . . Gargano leaves his virginal reputation
Goldstein leaves his extensive picture collection . . . Shurtleff, Gallup, Wyman, McKay and Root leave an empty glass . . . Greger-man leaves a batch of rodopsin . . . Hallman leaves twenty pounds . . . Jepsky leaves his gas pipe . . . Houston, Wohler, Tyrell, Jagi-ello leave their high gastric acidity . . .

Why Madam, of course I'm interested in the diarrhea you noticed when you were prenatal . . . go on . . .

Of prunes and punctures, hearts and tails.

Israel leaves his fifteen foot bookcase . . . Snyder, Labow, Bender, Bloom, Newman, Williams, Roseman leave nineteen decks of used bridge cards . . . Levy leaves his booth at Revere Beach . . . Shea leaves a head-dress and a bag of wet lungs . . . White leaves a much relieved O. R. staff . . . Willett leaves last year's sport jacket . . . Willner leaves three year old copies of the local journal and one piece of worn chalk.

Then, there are some characters who deserve a break from the class. So, speaking for the class, we leave . . .

"Red" Blood, Rocket Ranger.

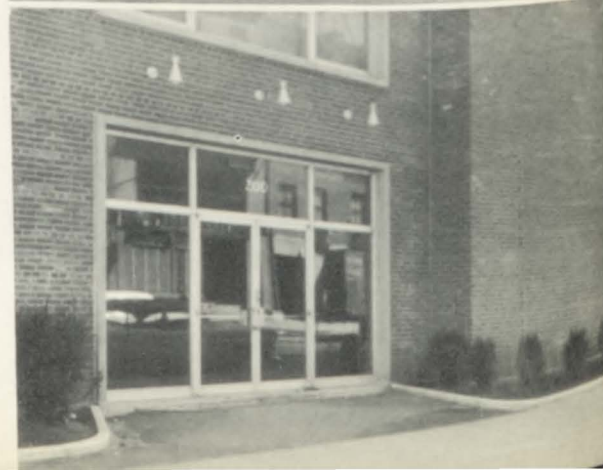

"Come in, honey."

And ended in white...

A new set of power brakes to Hausknecht . . . a new set of sneakers to Healy . . . a subscription to the Metropolitan to Holland . . . a megaphone to Barrymore (Durante) Jaffee . . . a Bromo-Seltzer to George Hilty . . . An A for effort to Lazarus for his book on "Winning friends" . . . an automatic t-crosser and i-dotter to Thomas . . . bus fare into Detroit for Eli Wagshul . . . the Brigham O. R. and a make-up kit to Zone . . . some Cortisone to Dick Marshall for his orchitis . . . a mask and scalpel to C. Gardiner McDonough and Harvey Gallagher . . .

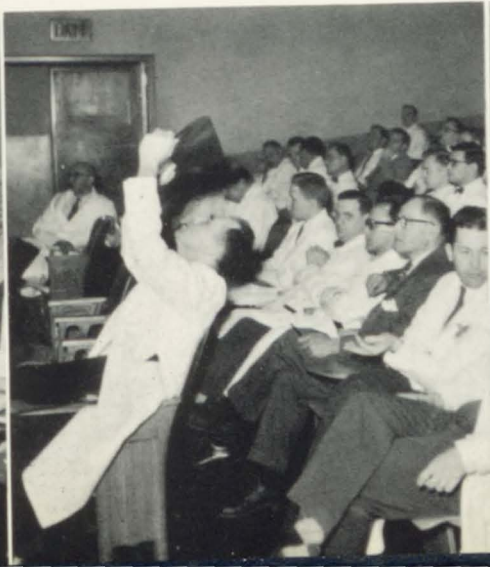

a happy future full of National Board Exams to Little . . . a new nick-name for "Lloydie-boy" Caplan and "big Dick" Marcure . . . a new steam-roller to John Q. Marshall—even Roosevelt turned over in his grave . . . a new Studebaker every year for Sabra . . . a neck tie to Mullin . . . ear-muffs and sleeping tablets for Daddy McGill . . . a year's supply of Pyribenzamine to Rex Morgan Freedman . . . a Journal in the sky to Pulitzer Litchman . . . a huge dose of gamma globulin to Sachs, Southworth, McGill, McDonough, Tyrell, Tomfohrde, Grassi, Reynolds, Aronson, and Artenstein, victims of the Yellow Plague.

"We have been hard-pressed for material this year."

"So I says — Ravden . . ."

Of troubled minds and district homes pestiferous.

Do you remember . . . histos, the woven web, on the 5th floor? . . . "Gentlemen! I regret to inform you that we're in the midst of an air-raid!" . . . Whether the blood agar plates are on the 3rd or 4th table on the left? . . . Whether yellow fever is endemic in India? . . . The smog over Denora? . . . The ophthalmology marathons punctuated by tasty stories told in undertones? . . . The reading of the litany on Saturday mornings, third year? . . . Whether you flushed the john with your foot or your hand? . . . Our running battle with the Pharmacology department? . . .

Even if you don't, we'll be looking for you in 1980, with your Cadillac, paunch, bald head, and check for $5,000.

SPLENECTOMY

Splenectomy, let's do a splenectomy,
We'll take his spleen out and all in between out.
Can't you see how lucky he will be,
This sickly blighter will find himself lighter.

I really don't know why it works,
I guess it's just one of man's quirks.
But let me resect and they'll never suspect
That it's only a cold that he has.

Spleens, you see, are such a delight to me,
I'd travel to Peru just to remove a few.
He got his tan in far off Afghanistan,
Where every native dwells loaded with sickle cells.

No matter what your ailments are,
Malaise or just chronic catarrh,
To cure your distress with the greatest success,
I will always do a splenectomy.

CLASS HYMN

A year has gone by and so we'd like to greet you
We hope that you enjoy our show.
We really shall try and so we hope to treat you
To a pleasant sight, the smoker night, you men in white.

We grow bold as we grow old,
And we're all paranoid in the end;
But junk us or flunk us, they still haven't sunk us;
The faculty is our best friend.
